Inquiry for a Man Who Was Robbed. The following has been received by Post-

CARLISLE, Pa., June 8.—Sir. I wish to ascertain the whereabouts of a person or his heirs who was robbed of about $5,000, in the spring of 1856, by a gypsy woman. It occurred somewhere in Sonthern Pennsylvania, but where or who is to find out.

Can you remember or give information; please address Leonard P. White, Harrisburg, Page 11 or 1999.

State Veterinary Surgeon Dr. Francis Bridges, visited Marple, Delaware county, Bridges, visited Marpie, Delaware county, Monday, and killed three cows suffering from pieuro-pneumonia. STRALING A WOMAN'S CLOTHES. The Strange Charge Made Against George Wil son by an Aggreeved Husband.

George Wilson is charged with the rather unusual offense of stealing Mrs. Coleman

Warfel's clothes while that lady was wearing them. Wilson was arrested and now lan guishes in a prison cell, awaiting distributive instice as it shall be dealt out to him by the ponderous alderman of the Sixth ward at a hearing to be held in the near future. the ponderous alderman of the Sixth ward at a hearing to be held in the near future. The facts of the case as far as developed are that Wilson and Warfel were fellow-workmen at Hollinger's tannery, south of the city. Mr. Hollinger beards his workmen, but didn't want to have them about the premises on Sundays. Wilson was the only one unprovided with Sunday quarters, and Warfel, who lives in Lancaster, kindly took him to his home. Wilson soon began to pay marked attention to Mrs. Warfel. On several occasions, when it was time to be off to work on a Monday morning Mr. Wilson would be taken suddenly ill, and had to be left to the care of Mrs. Warfel while her husband went to work at the tannery. Well, the usual result followed—gossip, scandal, heart-burnings—and on Friday evening last Wilson bought tickets for Harrisburg for himself and Mrs. Warfel. Mrs. Warfel boarded the train and left for Harrisburg, but Wilson did not get on. He was seen dodging about the care, but as there

As soon as Mrs. Warfel's disappearance was discovered, measures were taken to hunt her up and bring her back. Her husband, accompanied by Constable Shaub, went to Harrisburg and ceptured her. Wilson was arrested in this city and was given a partial hearing Juesday evening before Alderman Deen, the complaint against bim being that of "lareeny of Mrs. Wartel's clothing." iewsy Notes of the Diamond of Interest to Lovers of the Game. The League games yesterday resulted as follows: At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 8, Detroit 4 : at New York : Chicago 3, New York 2; at Boston: Boston 14, Kansas City 9; at St. Louis; St. Louis 7, Washington 6. The Association games were; At Brooklyn; Brooklyn 11, Athletic 3; at Pittsburg; Cin-cinnati 10, Pittsburg 9; at Baltimore: Balti-more 3, Mets 1; at Louisville; St. Louis 9, Louisville 3.

The Detroits won yesterday by excellent fielding.

The Brooklyn club, with Smith back at short, hit Atkinson very hard yesterday. McTamany had a single, double and a triple. The Pittsburg outbatted and outfielded the Cincinnati yesterday yet they lost by the battery errors of Handiboe and Ringo. Manager Phillips, of Pittsburg, says all the stories about Hofford being on bad terms with the other players and wishing for his release are not true. Hofford has been very careless in attending to himself and his health. He has often been told to use the usual precautions taken by bathing his arm after a game and otherwise taking care of himself. He has disregarded these warnings, and it was to bring him to a sense of his negligent conduct that he was put on the mourners' bench without shekels. The Mets had but four hits off Kilroy yes-

The Mets had but four hits off Kilroy yesterday and the Baltimore had only one more off Mays.

The Cincinnati people have become disgusted with Williams and have induced Will White, one of their old pitchers, who had retired, to go into the box again.

The League has no schedule to day and there are only two games in the Association:

Pittsburg at Cincinnati and Louisville at St.

Yesterday afternoon an exciting game of base ball was played on the Ironsides ground, between the Knights of Rest from the southern series of learning and the Knights from the ern part of town and the Knights from th ern part of town and the Knights from the west end. Adam Snyder was manager of the former and Michael Snyder of the latter team. Gibson and Trissler formed the battery for the west enders, and Huber and Binkley for their opponents. Charles Shay umpired the game in a satisfactory manner. After ten innings had been played the southern end men won by the score of 12 to 13. Officers, Gill and Kissinger, played on 13. Officers Gill and Kissinger played on Michael Snyder's team. The batting of the former was a feature of the match, as they had a home run and a triple. There was a large audience present.

Charles Shay started for Nortolk, Va.,

Mrs. Cleveland's Inheritance The will of the late Colonel John Folsom disposes of an estate valued at $400,000, There are nine heirs, which, after the final division of the homestead, which will not be until the grandchildren attain their majority, would leave the president's bride $50,000. This is smaller than the amount talked of at the time of her grandfather's death. In the will the deceased made no special mention of his favorite grand-daughter, which was another surprise.

Fish Cases Disposed of. Alderman Spurrier disposed of a number of cases this morning where parties were charged with violating the fish law. John D. Snyder and George Herr were each fined 25 and costs and appealed to court. The cases against David Hahn, David Kreider, Adam Espenshade and Benj. Kreider were dismissed, the commonwealth failing to make out cases against them.
