PELL FROM A CHERRY TREE. A Little Boy Badly Injures Himself and a Child by a Big Tumble. Harry Milley, a nine-year-old son of Benfilley, who res es on Dorwart street near Manor, met with a terrible accident yesterday, and his escape from death was very narrow. The boy was picking cherries on the top of a tree when he made a misster nd fell down, a distance of twenty-five feet and fell down, a distance of twenty-five feet. Several children were playing under the tree and in the boy's descent he struck a little girl named Etter, aged three years. She was badly cut and bruised about the head and face, and her spine is so severely injured that she is unable to walk to-day. The boy was picked up unconscious and he remained in that condition for some time after the accident. Dr. McCormick was sent for and attended the children. The boy was found to be bruised all over. He has two ugly gashes on his head and one in the face. He is also very badly injured internally. Last night it was feared that the little fellow would die, but to-day the physician has more hopes for him.

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE MILL FROPERTY owned by the City of Lancaster, on SATURDAY, JUNK 19, 1888, at the County House on East King street, will be sold all that certain tract of land, stuate at Intersection of the Conestoga and flig Spring turnpike and Conestoga creek. In Lancaster and West Lampeter townships, Lancaster county, Pa, known as the Old Factory property, containing Seven Acres and One Hundred and Ten Perches.
The buildings on these premises consist of the remains of the Four-Story stone Factory which was destroyed by fire a number of years ago, but the wails remain standing as firm as at the time of the fire, and can be built upon again. The water power to be, obtained here is second to none in the county. The head and tail race stand intact as when the mill was in active operation, and can be turned by a moderate outlay into one of the best Grist Mills in the county.
This property is not more than a mile from Lancaster City, with a good turnpike running into town, and coated in the midst of perhaps the richest agricultural and wheat growing districts in the world.
Sale to commence at 1% o'clock p. m.
