FIRST GENERAL REHEARSAL

Of the Cecellan Society, Lancaster's New Mr sical Organization.

Last evening the Cecelian society, Lancas ter's new musical organization, held their first general rehearsal in Fulton opera house No admission was charged and only those persons having tickets were admitted. The opera house was crowded by a fashionable audience and the affair was a grand success This society is only four weeks old and it has one hundred and twenty-five members. This includes an orchestra of eight persons. The remainder are singers and they are the best in the city. There is about an best in the city. There is about an equal number of ladies and gentleman. Last evening's rehearsal was given for the purpose of showing the public what the society is able to do. Prof. Hall, is conductor of the society, and much of its success is due to his efforts. Prof. Hass very ably presided at the plane. The programme of last night was as follows:

A SCENE IN COURT.

Attorneys Reinwhl and Holahan Have Quite a Court met at 100'clock to hear argument on applications for license not disposed of at the April term. The first application heard was that of John A. Getz, who petitioned for a license to keep hotel at Akron. There was a remonstrance filed to the granting, on the remonstrance filed to the granting, on the ground that a second hotel was not necessary for the wants of that community, there being already 16 licensed places within a radius of two and a half miles. The depositions of pe-tilioners also charged that Monroe B. Wenger, who keeps the hotel at Akron, violated the liquor law. Major Reinochi appeared for Wenger and commented strongly on the coriquor law. Major Reincehl appeared for Wenger and commented strongly on the conduct of the parties interested in Getz's appli-cation, attacking Wenger's reputation when he had no opportunity to reply. T. B. Holahan, one of the counsel for Getz, in his argument said some rough things about Getz. Major Reincehl understood Mr. about Getz. Major Reincehl understood Mr. Holahan to be taiking about him, and he jumped up from his chair and said the said that outside the court room he would smack his mouth. The court called the major to order. Mr. Holshan said he was takking about Getz and not the major. The major

Abram Summy's Remarkable Cane. From the Marietta Times.

Our fellow-townsman, Abram Summy, enq., is in possession of a cane cut and carved in the war of 1812, by a British soldier. It is of white walnut wood. The head of it rep resents the head of the warrior Tecumseh, admirable likeness of an Indian, having the high cheek bone, the sunken eye, the long straight hair and a sullen Indian expression. Around the came is carved a representation of a Lake Ontario water snake in the act of catching a frog, all of which was carved with an ordinary pocket knife. The history connected with this relic is as follows: After Tecumseh was shot and killed by Col. Johnson, there was a brief in-terval of time before the British were again men, of the British striny, improved this ine by cutting and carving this cane and presented it to Major Abram Hostetter's men, of the British swill, the first item was this: "I bequeath my walking cane to the friend Abram Summy, of the U.S." Mr. Summy came in possession of the came bout twelve years ago, at the desth of bout twelve years ago, at the desth of and the Statetter, who resided in Canada and the Statetter, who resided in Canada and the Statetter a cousin twice removed. admirable likeness of an Indian, having the could. The disorderly was Wm. Kauffman. He is a young man living in the Eighth ward, and he was arrested this morning by Chief Smith for insulting people on the street. He was committed for 24 hours.

The Chicken and Pigeon Murderer.

The "mysterious animal" that for months past has been playing havoc among the henroosts and pigeon-cotes in the southeastern part of the city, effected an enterance last night into the pigeon-cote of Richard Zecher, 416 East Strawberry street, and killed 24 of his Antwerps, Tumblers, Priests and other variaties of pigeons. Only two escaped. The birds were bitten under the wing and their bodies somewhat incerated, but the animal that killed them made no attempt to eat their famh.

Little Ahle Powden's Case. At a meeting of Monterey Lodge, No. 242, L.O. O. F., last evening, the case of Able Powden, recently sent by the local court to the House of Refuge at Philadelphia, was brought to the attention of the lodge, but no action was taken except to endorse all that had been done in the boy's behalf by the officers of the lodge. It is expected that the directors of the Philadelphia Odd Fellows' Home for Orphans will take measures at their meeting to-night to have Able admit-ted to their institution at an early day. reason to be proud of last night's entertain-ment, and indeed the people of the city should be glad that they have so much musical talent. A better pleased audience than that of last night has seldom attended in concert in this city. During the evening Prof. Hall made a short speech in which he stated that the rehearsals will be given at intervals of about six weeks during the season. On Thanksgiving a big concert will be given and next spring something greater in the musical line will be attempted.

" Big Injun" Patriotic. Early this morning, the big Indian standing in front of Locher's cigar store, Centre Square, holding out the " calumet of peace," was elaborately adorned, not with trinkets or beads, but with large crackers, evidently intent to enjoy the coming Fourth. He waited patiently the advent of the time for firing, anticipating great fun, which apparning, anticipating great iun, which appar-ently was joined in by a faithful dog crouched by his feet. But lo? the poor Indian was sadly doomed to vexation and disappoint-ment. Taking advantage of the situation, two wags stole gently up and feloatous disrobed him of his patriotic ornaments and decamped, not withstanding his missing if was whee still night. him of his patriotic ornaments and decamped, notwithstanding his piercing "war whoop" or piteous whinings of his poor dog. The scamps, however, secured their booty, and Mr. Locher is minus a lot of shooting crack-Alt. Locher is minus a tot of shooting crack-ers. Had Tecumseh consulted some persons not far off, they could have directed him on the proper "war-path," and recovered his loss by stepping into an adjoining build-
