Regular Correspondence of the INTALLIGANCES.

COLUMBIA, Pa., July 7.—A very serious runsway secident happened in Columbia, at a late hour yesterday morning, to Dr.

A. Craig, of town, and Dr. John Thompson, of Wrightsville. They were driving in the carriage of the latter on their way to the town across the river. The gentlemen were driving across the Pennsylvania railroad, when the horse became frightened at the when the horse became frightened at the noise made by engine No. 413, and started o ran off. Dr. Thompson endeavored to the horse by giving the reins a sudden jets, but, this caused the bit to break. Thompson then got from the vehicle to back of the animal, but was unable to ck his flight. The horse was running ectly towards the steep embaukment at entrance of the Columbia bridge, i, as the animal neared this place, Thompson tumped from the horse. and, as the animal neared this place, Dr. Thompson jumped from the horse. The embankment at his place is about fitteen feet deep and an iron railing extends from the bridge along the stone wall. The horse ran for the bank and made a plunge down it at the end of the iron railing. Dr. Craig caught hold of the iron railing and thereby saved himself from a terrible fail. The carriage was also prevented from coins down the riage was also prevented from going down the riage was also prevented from going down the bank by the railing. When the horse went over the bank he was entirely free from all the barness. Dr. Thompson received a few slight bruises, but Dr. Craig got a very ugly gash at the knee of his right leg and was otherwise bruised. He is confined to his home by reason of his injuries. The horse was not injured in any manner from his jump down the embankment of about lifteen less. The carriage also escaped damage. oet. The carriage also escaped damage.

A Terrible Fall From a Tree.

Yesterday morning Joseph McDivitt, about 12 years of age, son of William McDivitt, living in Wrightsville, met with a probably fatal secident while picking cherries at the residence of Mr. H. B. Paxson. The boy was on the tree and tried to climb out on a limb which hung over the street; while so doing, the limb broke and the boy iell a distance of about 12 feet to the ground, landing with great force on his head. The unfortunate d was removed to his home and Dr. Channell summoned, when it was found that the skull was badly fractured. Several pieces of the skull have been removed and the chances for recovery are very slight.

Uriah Holsinger and James Dallas, two colored men of town, were arrested by Officer Hardnele for stealing picture frames from the house of John VanNess. They were at this house and the frames disappeared with their departure. The stolen things were sold to Aaroa Snyder, of Front street, and the money divided. They had a hearing before Squire Frank and were sent fail for a trial at

A number of cases were heard at 'Squire Evans' this morning, consisting of assault and battery and drunkenness. The lot were outcome of too much Fourth of July celebration. The cases were dismissed upor costs being paid. Town Notes.

MINERAL SPRING WATER. BLACK BARREN

Mineral Spring Water

Is strongly impregnated with the sulphates of magnesia and soda, silica and chloride. These elements are naturally combined with the water, and are not precipitated by ordinary causes. They maintain the purity of the water for years and it never gets stagnant or flat.

Its medical properties are strong and active, it manifests itself first as a directic, correcting the kidneys, expelling the uric acid promptly, decomposing calculus sugary and foreign deposits and removing them from the system. It invigorates the stomach, tones the general health of the body. The water is cheap, reliable pleasant, effectual. Medical testimony and reference given. F. S. 6000 MAN, Manager. No. 3 East Grant Street, chear of court House.) BLACK BARKEN SPRING HOUSE now open. For terms, etc., address MISS CHRISTIE ROMBERGER, Pleasant Grove, Lancaster County, Pajunel8-5md

NEW GROCERIES. Presents mean deception. The name, in its business use, is a travesty of the act. Perspications and far-seeing people know this. Bither in quantity or quality, or through trickery, dupes pay for their delusion. The purchaser must and always does pay dearly for the supposed—gift. (?) Stare this question straight in the face and see how farcical it is; and remember that you pay 20c. for with a package of cornetarch, &c., which you need only buy as you require.
