His babes about : the golden morn Strikes goditke on yon holy hill;
itis wife and daughter grinding corn,
"Two women grinding at a mill."
Oh, mystery! Yon sun of old
Was god, was god and ample gold.

You golden hill had flocks of snow ; You golden an interest of the saw his white sails fil and blow. By puppy tales in flower seas. The wood dove sang for him his loves, His harshest note the soft wood dove's The Spanlard's hand is laid upon

His fields, his flocks, hard, fast and tight But oh ' this glorious golden dawn, The golden doors that close at night. His gold-hued babes, her russet breast,

HAD A GOOD TIME IN LANCASTER.

The Fourth of July Orator of the G. A. R.

Records stis Experience, Chiti W. Hazzard in Monongahela Republican. What a county, and how proud every Pennsvivanian ought to be of its great wealth and grand resources. People talk about "the West," and think that westward lies the empire of agriculture; that people who wish to follow farming for profit were toolish to stop this side of the Mississippi valley. But cold figures shatter that idea. The richest county in the United States, agriculturally speaking, is Lancaster. It leads not only the other counties of Pennsylvania, but of the United Capt. McBride's company, during the war. He asked kindly after the boys, many of whom he remembers and called by name. The colonel grows somewhat feeble from age, but was well enough to attend a camp fire the evening prior, and to join the lads in a cup of coffee for auld lang syna. He is re-tired as a colonel of the army, and lives in a comfortable home in the city be loves so well. Before the war Col. Hambright was a supervisor on the Lancaster division of the Pennsylvania railroad; his record in the war is one to be proud of, and to have served under him is indeed an honor.

under him is indeed an honor.

I found tabernacle in the elegant home of the foremost educator of the state, J. P. Wickersham, I.L. D., for fifteen years our state superintendent of education, the man to whom the state is indebted for the systematic organization of its schools; the author of most of our school laws, the organizer of the normal system, and the author of several tooks acknowledged authority on the theory of teaching. Since his retirement theory of teaching. Since his retirement from Harrisburg, the doctor has been abroad for the government, and has ripened his judgment by observation and travel, until judgment by observation and travel, until now his counsels are not only invited into the rapidly organizing school districts of the South, but his correspondence is largely in Europe and with leading educators world over. He has just sent to press a History of Education in Pennsylvania, which one may be well assured will be welcomed because valuable and accurate. The fact that Mr. Wickersham is to lead in accurate discussions at the state teachers, inseveral discussions at the state teachers' in stitute, will, more than anything else, draw thither leading teachers. * * * A call on Reinochl, a half hour's social call with Har! man, a brief interview with Brosius, the scholarly orator and author, rounded me up, till train time, and I left Lancaster, wishing that I owned one-ninth of its year's product, and then that my lot had been cast in such pleasant fellowship.

Nobody ever touches Lancaster without being captivated—a willing captivity, however, for on the shield of each Laucaster knight, below the Red Rose, is emblazoned a teasers hospitales. I rolled away from the city where Thaddeus Stevens lived and where the Conestoga wagon was born, and came unto the land where the falling in banks river flows past the little city which I love to

The Private Pension Vetoes.

From the Pittsburg (Pa.,) Chronicle, July 8. In spite of the adverse criticism by congressmen of the president's action in vetoing so many private pension bills the impression is strong upon the people at large that Cleve-land has acted conscientiously in the matter. It is the belief that the government has been protty badly plundered through the loose enactment of pension laws, and that thousands of men are now carried upon the pen-sion rolls who are in no wise entitled to the public bounty. The president is human and liable to err, and in a few cases his vetoes may work hardships to worthy applicants for relief; but as he has access to all papers and evidence in each case his opportunities for forming a correct judgment as to the merits of such applications are certainly better than those possessed by the men who denounce his action. Fair play is a lewel, and it should be given to President Cleveland even if he is

To break up colds and 'evers, use early Dr. Pierce a Extract of Smart-Weed, M.Thaw Typhoid Fever.

Charles Hartford, of New Castle, Westchester county, N. Y., suffered with typhoid fever and was given up to die. He was restored to health in one week by taking five Brandreth Pillsevery right and drinking plentifully of catmeal gruei. A few doses of Brandreth's Pills will invariably cure any kind of fever.

All That Science and Skill could do to make Benson's Capcine Plasters the best porrous plasters, and also the best general external remedy in the world, has been done. Whenever it is possible to improve them it is done. Benson's plasters are not made to impose upon the creditions, but to cure disease. Their eminent success has procured for them the voluntary endorsement of £0s physicians, pharmacists and druggists throughout the country, and the outsnoken preference of the intelligent public. They are prompt, powerful, cleanly and certain. They cure where no others will even retieve. Befose imitations styled "tapsicin," "Capsicin " 'Capnein " plasters the full the first plasters the full mark on the genuine and the word "Capcine" cut in the centre of the plaster.

Do Not Be Deceived.

Hypocrisy is the compliment that vice pays to virtue. Imitation is the compliment failure pays to success. The name—not the character —of Benson's Capeine Pinsters is imitated by unserupnious parties, who make and try to sell plasters variously called "Capeien," "Capeien, "Capeien," "Capeien, "Capeien, "Capeien," "Capeien, "Capeien," "Capeien, "Capeien," "Capeien, "Capeien," "Capeien, "Capeien," "Capeie to virtue. Imitation is the compliment failure

SPECIAL NOTICES.

" Grunt It Out." "Grunt it Out,"
The above is an old saw as savage as it is senseless. You can't "grunt out" dyspepsia, nor liver complaint, nor nervousness if they once get a good hold. They don't remove them selves in that way. The taking a few doses of "Burdock Blood Bitters is better than "grunting it out." What we can cure let's not endure. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

You Can Depend On It. "For severe toothache and Neuraigia of the head I used Thomas' Eclectric Oil. This is cer-tainly the best thing I ever knew for relief of pain of any kind. The house is never without it," Mrs. A. M. Frank, 177 W. Tupper St., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

The Resurrection of Lazarus Was a miraculous operation. No one thinks of raising the dead these times, though some desperately close to death's door have been completely restored by "Burdock Blood Bitters" to genuine and lasting health. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 133 North Queen street, Lancastor.

A Yelling Baby
is something to be avoided. Babies with colds, babies with croup, babies with scalds, burns,
bites, aches, sprains, or pains are bound to become noisy tenants of the household. "Dr.
Thomas' Eclectric Oil" will cure all these complaints. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

A Pleasant Acknowledgment.

"Had sour stomach and miserable appetite for months, and grew thin every day. I used Burdock Blood Bitters with the most marvelous results; feel splendid." Mrs. Joseph Johnson, Pittsburg, Pa. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Humbugs! Imposters ! Thieves! The above are terms applied to the unreliable and dishonest. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for diphtheria, catarrh, asthma, rheumatism, and all aches, sprains, and pains is not a thing of deception but a pleasant and honest remedy. It is honestly put up, honestly sold, and does what is claimed for it. For saic by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 157 and 159 North Queen street, Lancaster.

TIRED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some sort of tente. IRON enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who need building up.

Physicians and Druggists Recommend

BROWN'S

AS THE BEST TONIC.

For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, Etc., it HAS NO EQUAL, and is the only fron medicine that is not injurious. It Enriches the Blood, Invigorates the System, Restores Appelite, Alda Digestion. It does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—as other medicines de.

Dr. G. H. Biskier, a leading physician of springfield, Ohio, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its section excels all other forms of fron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it.

Dr. W. N. WATERS, 1210 Thirty-second Street, Georgelown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the Tonic of the age. Nothing better, it reates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."
