COLUMBIA, Pa., July 12.—A terrible run-away accident happened in Columbia on Sanday evening, about seven o'clock, to the horse and carriage of Jacob Stauffer, living In Manor township. Mr. Stauffer and C. W. Minich drove the team down Union stree', alopping in front of Mr. Minich's butcher then, where that gentleman got out. Mr. tenfor was in the act of turning the callings around, when the horse became frightened at a parasol raised by some person on the street. The animal turned very short, upsetting the carriage, throwing Mr. Stauffer to the ground and then ran up Union street at a terrible gait, with the overturned carriage dragging after it. The top was torn off before Fourth street was reached. At Fifth and Union streets the horse ran into the lamp post, which was broken into pieces. This caused the vehicle to tear loose from the corner a baby carriage, containing an infant child of Thomas W. Haldeman, was being pushed along the pavement in charge of the nurse. The horse was coming directly for the coach, and the nurse seized the child, removing it quickly from the impending danger, but not a mement too soon, as the maddened animal struck the coach, kicking it to pieces. There Is Much Building Going Oa - Need of Business Enterprises.

ELIZABETHTOWN, July 12-Our little sorough is still adding new improvements in various ways. The latest ordinance passed by our councilmen was to pave Bainbridge or Railroad street, which certainly was a wise action, and ere long we may take either side and go to the depot. A great many buildings are being erected at present here, while many are contemplated. All this adds to the beauty of the town. But we believe the bet ter pian would be to invest some of this surplus capital in some enterprise which would employ numerous hands and increase our population, our business interests, and everything else. Then it would be worth while to erect dwellings for rent. It was no task at all to raise $100.000 to incoraction, and ere long we may take either side It was no task at all to raise $100,000 to incorporate the Elizabethtown National bank, which is doing a large business, and the stock of which is worth $115 at the least. It would be likewise with some industry. There would be no trouble to raise the "boodle," would be no trouble to raise the "boodle," for it is plenty.

A few days ago the employes at the "Tunnel Cut" were paid. Among them are a large number of Irishmen, who got on a big spree, and fought with one another in a manner which is a shame for the borough authorities to endure.

The picnic, under the auspices of the Elizabethtown corner hand to Mr. Greens make
