COLUMNIA, July 15.—Columbia Lodge, to 117, Brotherhood of Railroad Brakemen, vill celebrate the first anniversary of the in il celebrate the first anniversary of the in-tettion of the lodge, to-night, by the hold-golf appropriate exercises in the armory, as lodge was organized in July, 1885, in third story of the old Spy building in mk alley. The members had been very carried in their efforts to increase the membership and have been very successful, the ledge now has upon its roll of members a very large proportion of the men in Columbia employed on the railroad, in the capacity of brakemen. Some time after the lodge was instituted the members began looking around for a more destrable room for meeting purposes began looking around for a more desirable room for meeting purposes and finally selected the third story of the Wike building, on Locust street. The members then went hard to work and have succeeded in fixing up this room in a manner excelled by none in Columbia. The new room was dedicated on the first day of January, 1886, with very interesting exercises, including an address by C. C. Kauffman, and. Several members of the lodge, with A. P. Rodgers, has prepared a programme for the observance this evening, and it will consist of singing, an address by John H. Klime and an elegant banquet.

THE ANIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Rain Causes a Postponement of the Outdoo Rain fell at intervals all Wednesday at To ronto, Canada, and the weather was so gloomy that all the outdoor part of the proramme in connection with the Knights of Pythias demonstration was postponed till today, when it is hoped the prize drill competi tion, over which much interest is manifested will take place. The visiting knights spent will take place. The visiting knights spent the day driving about the city in covered hacks, giving concerts in various centres of the city, while their ladies generally engaged in shopping. The supreme lodge of the world was in session all day.

The special train which conveyed the Florida division to the city is a centre of interest among citizens, and thousands visited it during the day, and the Knights from Florida presented prominent citizens with it during the day, and the Knights from Florida presented prominent citizens with alligators which they brought here with them. This evening a grand concert was given to the visiting Knights, in which prominent American and Canadian artists took part. To-morrow, the last day, is expected to be the best of the demonstration. There is considerable speculation as to the next place of meeting the supreme lodge will decide upon. Chicago and Cincinnati are the only places that are regarded as at all likely to get it. A supreme lodge officer said that most of the representatives favored Chicago, and that it would undoubtedly get the most votes.

The prize drill competition will take place this m orning, commencing at 9 o'clock, rain or shine. If the weather is fine the competition will be held on the exhibition grounds. If unfavorable it will be held in the Caledonia skating rink. The divisions will be drilled in the following order: First, Chicago division, Chicago; second, Lincoln division, Nebraska; third, Indianapolis division, Indiana; sourth, Fort Dearborn division, Chicago; fifth, Kokomo division, Indiana: sixth, Alpha division, Hamilton, Canada; seventh, Red Cross division, Cloveland; eighth, Austin division, Amsterdam, N. Y.; ninth, Damon division, Cincinnati. The first two named divisions are in Class 2, the other seven in Class 1. The prize drill competition will take place

Safe "At Home." Isaac Powden, of North Mulberry street, this city, visited the House of Refuge, Philadelphis, on Wednesday, to have an interview with the managers of that institution about the restoration to his care of his grandson, Able Powden, whose case the INTELLI-GENCER has brought to public notice. Mr. Powden bore letters from a number of lead ing citizens of Lancaster, asking the board to favorably consider the case. Among the writers were Mr. B. J. McGrann, whose interest in the case when the lad was first taken away led to its re-opening; S. H. Reynolds, esq., who is one of the managers of the House of Refuge; and Judge Patterson. The managers were fully convinced that the boy would be much better placed in the Children's Home of this city; he was accordingly given to his grandfather, who brought him with him, and he was placed in the Home, the management of which institution gladly received him. The lad has not yet reached his tenth year. ing citizens of Lancaster, asking the board to

BEMOVAL OF AN ABYLUM.

Kirabride's in Philadelphia Sold to a Syndicate of Capitalists for $2,000,000.

The purchase of five hundred acres of the hundred acres land at Newton Square, Delaware county, is understood to have been made for the trus tees of the Pennsylvania hospital for the in-sane at Philadelphia, for the purpose of removing the hospital buildings from their present location in West Philadelphia. This land cost from $200 to $500 per acre and includes four of the best farms and includes four of the best farms in the county. Buildings are to be erected, it is said, for the accommodation of three thousand patients and the farms purchased, together with others which it is proposed to acquire, will be used to raise produce sufficient to supply the needs of the hospital. Newtown Square is about five miles south of Bryn Mawr and an equal distance northeast from Media. It was one of the earliest settled sec-Media. It was one of the earliest settled setions of the state and has long been noted for the beauty of the scenery roundabout, the richness of its soil and the high character of the people in the neighborhood.

The present grounds, which include all the land between Forty-second and Fifth-second and Market streets and Harford avenue, are said to have been sold to a syndicate of capi-talists at a price stated at $2,000,000. The hospitals will probably be torn down, streets cut through from Market streets to Haverford avenue and five hundred dwelling houses avenue and five hundred dwelling houses erected. The erection of the new buildings will require at least two years, but it is proposed to begin work on them in the near future. The building now occupied by the females was opened for use in 1841, but since that time it has been enlarged and extended. It is the result of the first efforts put forth in this country to make provision for the insane. The building occupied by the males was commenced in 1856 and completed in 1859. The institution is commonly called Kirkbride's, after Dr. Thos. S. Kirkbride, who gave the best years of his life to establishing and fostering it. During his lifetime he was superintendent and physician-inchief and achieved a world-wide reputation.

AN ELOPEMENT EXTRAORDINARY. The Escape and Capture of a Patr of Dusky Adulterers.

Special Correspondence of Intelligences. SMITHVILLE, July 15 .- Israel Taggert, a Welsh mountain negro of this place, eloped with H. Green's wife. A warrant was issued for their arrest and placed in the hands of the Smithville detective who started for the Welsh mountain rendezvous. He put up at the house of a relative who resides in the mountains and started out in quest of the fugitives, but sought in vain. When it became known to the denizens of this notorious resort that a stranger was among them and his business, they flocked to his stopping his business, they flocked to his stopping place in great numbers, eager to obtain a glimpse of one who had the courage and audacity to beard the lions in their den—the fastnesses of the Welsh mountains. The criminals had fled and where to find them was the question which puzzled the vigilant officer. He returned home and obtained another clue which he eagerly followed and was successful in capturing Taggert near Green Briar, where he was secreted in a small, deserted cabin. Tagwas secreted in a small, descrited cabin. Tag-gert is married to Green's sister and left his wife and family with young Green for sup-port, besides Green's own family, which was, as he thought, more than one man's share.

A Patent for Setting Tires. Through W. R. Gerhart, patent solicitor, a patent, No. 345,322, dated July 13, 1886, has been issued to Henry and John S. Rohrer, formerly of Lancaster, for a new device for setting tires. In this tire-setter the fellies are pressed inward by means of a compres sion band acting uniformly upon the entire circumference of the wheel, until they are forced far enough to permit the tire to be put on; the fellies are then caught by grips which hold them in position to receive the fire, the compression band loosened, and the tire adjusted. As the fellies are pressed inward the spokes buckle sidewise; and to prevent the bend in the spokes extending to the hub and loosening them in their sockets, they are rested in sockets in a futerum whee placed near the hub. The fellies have elastic joints fastened between them to permit them to give to the pressure of the band.

Some Knights Unshaved on Sunday,

From the Toronto News. Some Americans were going around the streets yesterday mutturing hard thing against Canadian Sunday institutions. They wanted to get shaved. One man would will-ingly have given a dollar.

THEY DID NOT THIRST.

Because They Knew How to Beat the Law Easily.

It was a warm night in the streets of the great city of New York, but there was a gentle current of refreshing air moving across the roof of the Casino. Thither repaired two young men of the order known as gilded youth. They were warm and thirsty for music, and likewise for a cooling drink. Having seated themselves in a comfortable corner they summoned a waiter and gazed upon him with expressive countenance. Then the elder said unto the younger:

"Gawge, what'll you 'ave, old chappie?"
"I think a brandy and soda 'll suit my health this evening, deah boy, don't ye think?"
"All right. Waitah, two brahndies and

"By Jawve! What a beastly nuisance. Gawge, what'll we do? Gawge chewed his mustache for a few moments and then was stricken heavily with an idea.

"Can we get a messengah heah "" "Car we get a messengan nean"
"Certainly," answered the water.
The messenger was summoned, and Gawge wrote a message to his vatet and dispatched the boy with it. In the course of 15 minutes the lad returned with a fine cut glass decanter of superior brandy, brought from Gawge's rooms.

rooms, "Waitah," said Gawge, "bring us tw plain sodas." The order was filled. The sodas were poured into glasses and then Gawge, taking up his decanter, remarked to his friend ; "Say when, old chappie."

There was silence for the space of severa seconds, save for the gentle gurgle of the So. P. as it flowed down to mingle with the o, P. as it howed down to mingle with the solds. CUT PRICES

CORSETS!

It is a common practice with manufacturer Corsets, when they discover their makes of Corsets becoming popular or a necessity, to raise the prices and compet merchants who handle their Corsets to sign a contract to sell them at a stipulated price. They also claim that if a merchant does not sign their contract they cannot get the Corsets. We do not sign any con-tracts of that kind, preferring to sell our goods at our price, not at the manufacturer's price, and assure our customers that we can furnish all sizes of the brands we advertise at the cut prices. Some of the most prominent makes of Corsets we name below at cut prices, and in short time will have every prominent brand on the list, but only at reduced prices.

Thompson's Glove Fitting Corset, satteen Finish, at $1.31. Regular Price, $1.50.

Dr. Schilling's Health Preserving Corset, Eighty-nine cents. Regular Price, $1.00. The guarantee on the box of this Corset reads as follows: "Any lady not satisfied with the Dr. Schilling Corset after wearing it a month can return it and the price paid will be refunded." Ball's H. P. Corsets, Eighty-nine cents. Regular Price, $1.00 Warner's Flexible Hip Corset, One Hundred and twenty bones, 80 cents, Regular Price, $1.00.

The Pivot Corset, Eighty-nine cents. Regular Price, $1.60. Indestructible Corset, Sixty-four cents. Regular Price, 75c.
