

A POPULAR PASTOR.

Some folks sneered and said Grace church was made money in this... Rev. C. E. Houpt, A. M., Not Yet Thirty Years of Age—A Graduate of Pennsylvania University—His Pastoral Career in This City—Preacher and Pastor.

The clergy of a city without any doubt be its most influential citizens. The high duty of their vocation, the paternal relationship which they bear to the people...

His Professional Career. Rev. C. E. Houpt, A. M., was born in Philadelphia on the 6th day of October, 1856.

Soon afterwards he entered the theological seminary of the Lutheran church, at Philadelphia, and after studying theology for three years under the eminent teachers of that institution graduated May 29, 1878.

When Mr. Houpt received a call to Grace church he hardly knew whether to accept it or not. Rev. Dr. Greenwald, the pastor of the Lutheran church, whereupon Rev. Houpt was elected his successor, and accepting the call entered upon his new pastoral duties, June 15, 1880.

After much reflection and prayer for guidance Mr. Houpt determined to accept the call from Grace church, and he was accordingly installed as pastor of Grace church, Lancaster, Pa., on the 15th day of January, 1878.

Mr. Houpt is an enthusiast, and has the power of creating enthusiasm among his hearers; and yet he appeals more to the reason than to the passions or sentiments.

A member of the church council, being questioned about Rev. Houpt's pastoral work, said: "Oh, he would kill himself working if we would let him. He is so good-natured that he would press sermons and make addresses for everybody outside the church as well as in it."

PENRYN'S PLEASURE PICNICS.

THE COMPLETE LIST OF EVENTS YET TO COME OFF ON THE HILL. How the People in This Part of the County are Enjoying Themselves During the Hottest Days—Where They Are and What They Are Doing.

As the season advances the spirit of complete enjoyment of the summer season seems to have fully taken hold of the people of this part of the county. The harvest is well high and the weather is so pleasant that the people are out in all directions.

July 26—Lancaster Leidekrantz, Lancaster. July 27—Second Evangelical Sunday school, Lancaster. July 28—Reformed Sunday school, Quarryville.

July 29—First Reformed Sunday school, Reading. July 30—Union Sunday school, Manheim. July 31—Union Sunday school, Petersburg.

August 1—Lutheran Sunday school, Myerstown. August 2—Moravian Sunday school, Lititz. August 3—St. Luke's Reformed Mission Sunday school, Lancaster.

August 4—Lutheran Sunday school, Myerstown. August 5—Moravian Sunday school, Lititz. August 6—St. Luke's Reformed Mission Sunday school, Lancaster.

August 7—Lutheran Sunday school, Myerstown. August 8—Moravian Sunday school, Lititz. August 9—St. Luke's Reformed Mission Sunday school, Lancaster.

THE DISGRACED DILKE.

OLD OFFENDER AND NEW CHARGE. Jim Henry, incendiary and horse thief, taken into custody again. "Old Jim Henry," as he has been familiarly called in police circles for the past twenty years, is again under arrest.

Many of our readers will remember that on the 20th of April last, the large barn and stabling on the farm of John W. Rhine, in Adams county, Pa., was destroyed by fire.

London, July 24.—The London News-papers, which under the late were prohibited from commenting on the Dilke trial during its progress, all burst out this morning with editorials on what the Morning Post calls "this story of unutterable shame."

On July 19 Charles G. Banks, president of the village, whose house is about a mile distant from the main street, was crossing the field on his way to his office when he saw one of the cows lying down and apparently unable to get up.

Mr. Banks inquired of the woman who was with the cow, and she told him that the cow had been lying down for some time, and that she was unable to get up.

Mr. Banks inquired of the woman who was with the cow, and she told him that the cow had been lying down for some time, and that she was unable to get up.

Mr. Banks inquired of the woman who was with the cow, and she told him that the cow had been lying down for some time, and that she was unable to get up.

Mr. Banks inquired of the woman who was with the cow, and she told him that the cow had been lying down for some time, and that she was unable to get up.

CONGRESS STILL AT WORK.

THE SENATE VOTING WITH PUBLIC BUILDING BILLS. The House Gets Down to the Consideration of the Naval Appropriation Increase—Sensate bills for public buildings at Washington and at last devote a Saturday to the transaction of public business.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—On motion of Mr. Bayne, the Senate passed the House bill for the erection of a public building at Jacksonville, Florida.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—Immediate action was taken by the Senate on the House bill for the erection of a public building at Jacksonville, Florida.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—The Senate passed the House bill for the erection of a public building at Jacksonville, Florida.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—The Senate passed the House bill for the erection of a public building at Jacksonville, Florida.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—The Senate passed the House bill for the erection of a public building at Jacksonville, Florida.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—The Senate passed the House bill for the erection of a public building at Jacksonville, Florida.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—The Senate passed the House bill for the erection of a public building at Jacksonville, Florida.

THE DISGRACED DILKE.

OLD OFFENDER AND NEW CHARGE. Jim Henry, incendiary and horse thief, taken into custody again. "Old Jim Henry," as he has been familiarly called in police circles for the past twenty years, is again under arrest.

Many of our readers will remember that on the 20th of April last, the large barn and stabling on the farm of John W. Rhine, in Adams county, Pa., was destroyed by fire.

London, July 24.—The London News-papers, which under the late were prohibited from commenting on the Dilke trial during its progress, all burst out this morning with editorials on what the Morning Post calls "this story of unutterable shame."

On July 19 Charles G. Banks, president of the village, whose house is about a mile distant from the main street, was crossing the field on his way to his office when he saw one of the cows lying down and apparently unable to get up.

Mr. Banks inquired of the woman who was with the cow, and she told him that the cow had been lying down for some time, and that she was unable to get up.

Mr. Banks inquired of the woman who was with the cow, and she told him that the cow had been lying down for some time, and that she was unable to get up.

Mr. Banks inquired of the woman who was with the cow, and she told him that the cow had been lying down for some time, and that she was unable to get up.

Mr. Banks inquired of the woman who was with the cow, and she told him that the cow had been lying down for some time, and that she was unable to get up.

THE DISGRACED DILKE.

OLD OFFENDER AND NEW CHARGE. Jim Henry, incendiary and horse thief, taken into custody again. "Old Jim Henry," as he has been familiarly called in police circles for the past twenty years, is again under arrest.

Many of our readers will remember that on the 20th of April last, the large barn and stabling on the farm of John W. Rhine, in Adams county, Pa., was destroyed by fire.

London, July 24.—The London News-papers, which under the late were prohibited from commenting on the Dilke trial during its progress, all burst out this morning with editorials on what the Morning Post calls "this story of unutterable shame."

On July 19 Charles G. Banks, president of the village, whose house is about a mile distant from the main street, was crossing the field on his way to his office when he saw one of the cows lying down and apparently unable to get up.

Mr. Banks inquired of the woman who was with the cow, and she told him that the cow had been lying down for some time, and that she was unable to get up.

Mr. Banks inquired of the woman who was with the cow, and she told him that the cow had been lying down for some time, and that she was unable to get up.

Mr. Banks inquired of the woman who was with the cow, and she told him that the cow had been lying down for some time, and that she was unable to get up.

Mr. Banks inquired of the woman who was with the cow, and she told him that the cow had been lying down for some time, and that she was unable to get up.

CONGRESS STILL AT WORK.

THE SENATE VOTING WITH PUBLIC BUILDING BILLS. The House Gets Down to the Consideration of the Naval Appropriation Increase—Sensate bills for public buildings at Washington and at last devote a Saturday to the transaction of public business.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—On motion of Mr. Bayne, the Senate passed the House bill for the erection of a public building at Jacksonville, Florida.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—Immediate action was taken by the Senate on the House bill for the erection of a public building at Jacksonville, Florida.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—The Senate passed the House bill for the erection of a public building at Jacksonville, Florida.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—The Senate passed the House bill for the erection of a public building at Jacksonville, Florida.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—The Senate passed the House bill for the erection of a public building at Jacksonville, Florida.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—The Senate passed the House bill for the erection of a public building at Jacksonville, Florida.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—The Senate passed the House bill for the erection of a public building at Jacksonville, Florida.