the Cause of the Trouble at the American MIDDLETOWS July 29.—Every public manifestation of docility on the part of the strikers at the American Tube and Iron company does not picture the real situation here. The Knights of Labor, who are numerous, are becoming excited since Hungarians and Poles are arriving and accepting work below the wages the strikers were getting. Twenty-nine of them went to work yesterday morning.

A committee of the strikers held conference with the superintendent, but no agreement was reached.

on Catherine street. It will be 41x60 feet and three stories high. Most of the strikers are members of the order, and receive benefits during their idleness.

The cause of the strike has been misrepresentated by all the papers. It was the demand for the pay of 1883 and the eight-hour system.

The rumor that the works will be removed to Youngstown, Ohio, has no foundation. The company has a plant there, but the mill here has advantages quite as important as natural gas.

memory in West Laurel Hill cemetery, to whice the remains of the bishop's mother and brother have just been removed. The tomb is situated in the centre of a circular lot ninety feet in diameter, located in the highland section of the cemetery. The structure is in the shape of a miniature chapel, built in the Gothic style of architecture, the maisrial Connecticut gramte, upon which the tuilder has placed no costly embellishments, but has erected a monument pian and simple.

The structure is cruciform, 18 feet 6 inches wide, 32 feet 6 inches long, and 24 feet 6 inches to the top of the crosses which cap each gable end. The entrance to the mausoleum, an arched doorway, will be closed in summer by a perforated bronze gate of elegant design and superior workmanship, and in winter by a door of heavy carved oak. A REPUBLICAN SPLIT. Two Conventions in the Twenty-Seventh Con-

of the Twenty-seventh district met in Corry, Erie county, on Tuesday. There were in the field C. W. Mackey, of Franklin ; L. F. Watson, of Warren, and Isaac B. Brown, of Corry. It was conceded when the convention met that Mackey had the majority, and the Brown and Watson faction filibustered and consumed the time of the convention until the question of balloting for a nomina-tion was finally put, at 1 o'clock in the morn-ing. The Brown and Watson delegates failing to get an adjournment, forty-five of them retired from the hall. What was left of the convention after the withdrawal then pro-ceeded to ballot, and nominated C. W. Mackey, the vote standing Mackey, SS; Wat-

Mackey, the vote standing Mackey, S.; Watson, 21; Brown, 3. The nomination was then made unanimous.

Forty bolters, a portion of the delegates of Watson and Brown, held a minority convention next day. W. R. Nutting, of Warren, made an inflammatory speech, stating that, after the conduct of the Mackey delegates in refusing to recognize the Watson and Brown men, every effort should be made to secure Mackey's deleat. Surseches of the same tenor were made by members from Eric.

Colonel L. F. Watson, of Warren, one of the opposing candidates, then addressed the minority, stating that the bolt was made without his knowledge or consent, and that Warren county would support Mr. Mackey, and he called upon his delegates to with-draw from the minority, which was done, leaving but seven Brown men, who, being unable to transact business, adjourned.

Mr. Watson says that the Warren county Republican committee would give Mr. Mackey a unanimous complimentary vote The Brown delegates are intense in their feel-ing against Mr. Mackey, and if he accepts the nomination, which is regarded as doubt-ful, they will probably secure his deteat. The Democrats of the district are jubilant, and anticipate victory.

The World's Sugar.
The statistics of the world's production o sugar show that there is a steady and large annual increase. The amount of case sugar produced in the season of 1885-6 was 2,905,000 tons, an increase of 733,000 tons over that of and 1.078 583 tons over that of 1875 Cuba led the list with 600,000 tons this season, which is a falling off of 27,000 tons from the year before, and 61,058 tons less than in 1875-6. There was also a decrease in the product of Java, the next greatest source of supply, of 60,000 tons from the yield of 1884 5. But in the production of almost all other cane growing countries there has been, as shown by the totals, a marked advance. The yield of beet rootsugar(2,014,000 tons this season) has fallen off 501,000 from the last annual report, but comparisons with the statistics of 1875 6 shows a growth of 702,689 tons in ten years.

These reports do not recognize glucose and grape sugar, or sorghum sugar or maple sugar, and are evidently made up from the basis of commercial statistics concerning the basis of commercial statistics concerning the sugar that has entered the market. Reyond this there are vast quantities of cane sugar produced for domestic use in all tropical countries and consumed by the producers and their immediate neighbors, which do not enter into the computation. The most nota-ble increase in any country is in the best root sugar yield of Russia, which has grown from sugar yield of Russia, which has grown from 220,000 in the season of 1875-6 and 386,000 tons in 1884-5 up to 525,000 tons in 1885-6.

Mr. L. C. Fowler, photographer, No. 12 West King street, mounted his bicycle Wednesday morning and rode to Philadelphia. He left Lancaster at 5 a. m., and stopped for breakfast at Nick Danner's hotel, Paradise. The roads were bad owing to the rain of the day before. From Paradise to Coatesville, the roa is were still worse, being badly washed in many places. He took dinner at the Stevenson house, and then pushed on to Downingtown over good roads. From Downingtown to Paoli he found the roads bad, but from Paoli to Philadelphia roads bad, but from Paoli to Philadelphia they were almost as smooth as a floor. The ride was a delightful one, and Mr. Fowler made the distance from Paoli to 221 street in an hour. ome Wise Suggestions Touching the Care of Animals in Summer. The American Humane association presents the following suggestions relative to the care of animals during the heatest term:

Provide water—fresh, pure water. Think, reader, how you are refreshed by a drink of cool water on a hot day. The lower animals are equally in need of the means of quenching thirst.

The active dog requires drink frequently during the hot day, as does also the cat; and during the hot day, as does also the cat; and a dish of fresh water should stand where they can have access to it. Undoubtedly many dog is driven to madness through lack of water; and the testimony is that hydrophobic is almost unknown in those localities where is almost unknown in those localities where dogs can drink when they wish.

Every city, village and country town should be liberally supplied with drinking fountains for animals, and they should be so constructed that even the smallest dogs can drink from them. No gift to a people conters a greater pleasure than a fountain, and that person who turns aside a stream from the field and gives a watering trough to the roadstide, or provides a fountain at which roadside, or provides a fountain at which man and beast can drink pure water, is truly a public benefactor.

Give the borse frequent opportunity to quench thirst at times when not too much over-heated, and before eating. To drink treely immediately after eating prevents a favorable digestion of tood. Provide shade. How instinctively we seek the shadow when the sun is pouring its hot rays on the dry and parching earth. If the pasture is not provided with shade trees, in a convenient locality set four, six or eight sup ports, across which place straw or grass, and thus, in a brief time and with little labor make a shade in which animals can rest from the heat of the sun, to the great comfort of themselves and benefit to their owners. Remove the harness from the horse in the hot day, whenever you desire to give them a full, free rest, and once during the day, preferably at night, a thorough currying and grooming will not only give rest, but will do about as much towards improving the animal's condition as will the oats.

Examine the harness on your working team and you will discover that blinds, check-reins and cruppers are simply torturing con-trivances, serving no useful purpose. Take them all off for the convenience of yourselves and the comfort of the horses. Keep the stable well ventilated and free from the strong ammonia, which is injurious to the eyes. Assist the animals to protect themselves against flies, feed regularly, hitch in the shade, and remember that the care which will give comfort to the lower animals, will make them doubly profitable to their owners, aside from the humane bearing upon the

DECADENCE OF THE RINK. How The Roller Sante Mania Had Its Little

Day. When the roller skating craze first struck New England it struck it hard, and it was a poor village that did not boast its own rink. There was a good deal of money in the business for a time, and people who put money into rinks got rich. One man in Massachusetts established a circuit, leased buildings in a dozen big towns and cities, and within 12 months was credited with having resped profits of over $100,000. Before the roller skating wave came to take him into this good fortune he was putting in ten hours a day for weekly wages of $12. He wasn't the only lucky man who saw the chance that the pop-ular craze offered and made dollars out of it. The business grew so in some quarters of New England that in some cases it rose to the dignity and standing of a bank, and in-stances were at hand where managers and cashiers made big hauls by embezzlement, and at least one representative of the rinks is permanently settled up in Canada. Now, however, the wave has spent itself, and roller skating seems to have been laid away for good. Half of the rinks have been torn down. New Haven at one time had five or six rinks open, all doing a thriving business. The biggest and oldest of them is now being knocked to pieces to make room for something more profitable. As usually is the case in every similar affair, it was just on the ebb of the tide that most people were anxious to put out their shekels and extend the enterprises; and the result has been that a number of rinks have been put up, and many of them erected at great expense, which lost money for their owners from the start. It is safe to say that a good many tens of thousands of dollars have been sunk in these fleeting rink enterprises in Connecticut and Massachusetts alone.

A Druggist Terribly Burned by Acid. Dr. McDaniels, a young druggist of High-spire, undertook to rub up chloride of potash and sanic acid in a mortar, at his drug store, Wednesday evening, when an explosion occurred burning him terribly about the face and hands. He is entirely blind at present, but the attending physician thinks his sight will be restored eventually. Dr. McDaniels' clothes were aimost burned off his body. Dr. D. B. Dickinson, of Steelton, was sum moned and did all in his power to alleviate the sufferings of the injured man. Dr. Mc-laniels has only been in the drug business a short time, and was experimenting at the time the explosion occurred.

The Commissioners Divided. The county commissioners to-day held a session in reference to the opinion of Judge Livingston, as to the liability of the county to the county officers for the money to their credit when the salary act was declared uncredit when the salary act was declared un-constitutional. All of the county's attorneys in the city tavor appealing to the supreme court. Commissioner Myers is also in favor of taking it up. Surest Tranquillizer of the Nerves. Surest Tranquillier of the Nerves.

The surest tranquilizer of the nerves is a medicine which remedies their supersensitiveness by invigorating them. Over-tension of the nerves always weakens them. What they need, then, is a tonic, not a sedative. The latter is only useful when there is intense usential excitement and an immediate necessity exists for producing quietude of the brain. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters restores transquil-ity of the nerves by endowing them with the vigor requisite to bear, without being jarred or disturbed unhealthfully, the ordinary im-pressions, produced through the media of sight, hearing and reflection. Nay, it does more than this—it enables them to sustain a degree of tension from mental application which they would be totally unable to endure without its assistance. Such, at least, is the irresistible conclusion to be drawn from the testimony of business and protessional men, litterateurs, clergymen, and others who have tested the fortifying and reparative influence of this celebrated tonic and nervine. jy20 lmd
