The randence of Mr. A. G. Guiles, on the Second street, Columbia, was entered Bunday morning, at about one o'clock, by presse unknown, and several articles, some considerable value, stolen. The burglass are first in the yard of the adjoining house Motorints were plainly seen where ithey and over the fence. The robbers effected brance in Mr. Guiles' house by using a of nippers on the key of the rear door, turning the key in the lock. The perisastened the door of the stairway in the of the house, and then went to the of the house, and then went to the stairway. A few rooms were entered the following articles stolen: A gold and the following articles stolen: A gold watch, belonging to Miss Stroh, a visitor of Miss Ida Guiles; two gold rings, belonging Miss Guiles; a music box, two coats, belonging to Mr. Guiles and his son, a gold pencil, a silk umbrills and a pair of shoes. The robbers were in the lower part of the house, where many valuable household article were standing, but the above mentioned were the only things stolen. Several burnt matches were lying about the house, used by the robbers in their search. About the time the persons were in the house, Mrs. Guiles heard the noise they made but did not entertain any suspicions, supposing it to be made by one of the inmatce. The first discovery of the deed was made when an attempt was made to go down the near stairway and the finding it locked. No clue is had to the thieves, but during the day a man carrying a satchel was at the house for something to eat. After he left he was seen talking to another stranger. These parties might have been concerned in the robbery.

Police News.

Hannah Burrells, a colored resident of town, was arrested by Officer Hardnele, last Saturday night, for disorderly conduct. She was committed to jail for five days by 'Squire Frank.

Stephen Burrells, husband of the above woman, was arrested by Officer Wittick, last Saturday night, for disorderly conduct. He was discharged on the payment of costs. These people are notorious in the town police courts.

Mr. Harry Meyers has a sunflower stalk growing on his lot on South Fifth street, which measures 148 inches in height. The stalk contains over 25 buds.

Funeral of Daniel McLaughlin. The funeral of the late Daniel McLaughlin took place from St. Mary's Catholic church a. m., to-day, and was very largely attended. Among those in the foot proces sion were seen nearly all of Lancaster's most prominent builders, and the representation of those of different faith from the deceased was quite large. Many members of the Michnerchor were also present. Rev. Dr. McCullagh celebrated solemn requiem mass, and the choir sang W.

Dressier's mass, Miss Doyle and Miss Bachler taking the solo parts in exquisite style. Miss Johnston finely renderest the "Benedictus." At the conclusion of the mass Miss Bachler sang "Angels Ever Bright and Fair" in pathetic manner, after which the funeral cortege wound its way to St. Mary's cemetery, where the interment took place.

The pall-bearers were Daniei A. Altick, R.

J. McGrann, Michael Reilly, Joseph Altick, John W. Lowell and Michael Haberbush. A Dog Bites Three Children

Fritz Grotwald, the old junk dealer, always has a lot of very ugly coon dogs around him.
They travel with the wagon when Fritz drives around town and are quite savage
This morning Fritz made his appearance on Dorwart street and with his usual number of Dorwart street and with his usual number of dogs. A number of children were on the street, and without any apparent cause one of the dogs ran among and bit three of them. Two of them were little girls named Etter and Milley and a boy named Remley. The wounds were promptly cauterized and are not serious. Fritz has been in trouble before about his dogs, yet he does not seem to care, as the number never decreases.

Tols afternoon Special Officer Gill went out to Grotwald's residence and shot the dog. Fritz was very angry and threatens to bring all kinds of suits.

Suits Against Insurance Companies. J. S. Townsend to-day entered suits in the J. S. Townsend to-day entered suits in the court of common pleas against the Mutual Fire Insurance company of Chester county, to recover $3,300 loss sustained by Mr. Townsend by the burning of his creamery at Goshen. Mr. Townsend had two policies in the company aggregating $3,700, but the company refuses to pay the amount of the loss or reasons which will appear when the cases are tried.

Stole a Coat. A boy visiting some friends near Dillerville was robbed of a coat on Saturday by a number of tramps. They compelled him to give them the coat and then they sent him to give them the coat and then they sent him to his home. Word was sent to the station house and Officers Weish and Pyle were sent out to look for the thieves. They found two tramps and arrested them. They denied having stolen the coat, but they were tramps of their own admission, and the mayor sent them to the workhouse for 30 days to break stone.

Reception to a Teacher.

Sister Agatha, who was connected with St.
Joseph's school some years ago, is now in this city on a visit. Last evening she was given an informal reception at the Sacred Heart academy by young toks who were in the classes of 1860-76-71. The sister was presented with a well-filled purse by her old acholars, and she thanked them in a few well chosen remarks.

Those who were lucky enough to visit W.
H. Liller's confectionery, No. 219 North Queen street, at his grand opening on Saturday night, had a pleasant time and the choices of good things to eat. Prof. Ira Kendig's suchestra discoursed excellent music all ovening.

TROUSANDS AT SHOWNSTOWN.

The Biggest Day This Campmeeting Groun Has Ever Seen. BROWNSTOWN CAMPMEETING GROUNDS Aug. 9.—Sunday was the biggest day ever seen on this campinesting ground, the esti-mates of the people present varying from 6,000 to 10,000. The vehicles gathered about the grove, and on all roads leading thereto must have numbered 1,500, and the crowd present showed that they were all well packed in transportation. One six-mule team pulled a vehicle containing seventeen persons, and it was not an unusual sight to see a family of it was not an unusual sight to see a family of seven or nine in one carry-all.

On the grounds all was quiet and orderly, and the proceedings commanded the most respectful attention. The 630 prayer meeting was led by Rev. Leary, of Bairtown. At 850 a. m. J. J. Reitz, of Reading, led the prayer meeting. Rev. B. D. Albright, of Adamstown, conducted the 950 services, and Presiding Elder Rev. J. E. Hornberger preached an able sermon from the first enapter of John, 5-20. Kev. J. H. Shirey, of Reading, followed in an eloquent English dising, followed in an eloquent English dis-course from the first chapter of Corinthians course from the first chapter of Corinthians, 4th verse.

At 1:30 p. m. the children's meeting was addressed by different speakers. At 2:45 p. m. Rev. J. D. Woodring, of Terre Hill, preached a very eloquent sermon of more than an hour from the text "What Shall I do With Jesus?" He was tollowed by Rev. B. J. Miller, of Mount Joy, in a powerful German sermon. The exercises of the evening were of a very interesting character.

Campers Elsewhere, The annual campmeeting of the colcred people was held at Rigby, Maryland. The crowd present was tremendous, and it incrowd present was tremenated at the cluded many colored folks of this city, who drove all the way to the camp. The Lancas-ter hucksters were present in a body, and did a thriving trade. The order was good. A campmeeting was also held at Terre Hill, yesterday, and there was a very large crowd present.

Team Stolen and Abandoned Isaac Jacoby, farmer for Oliver Strohl, attended the Brownstown campmeeting on Sunday and returned home between 10 and Il o'clock at night. He put the horse in the If o'clock at hight. He put the horse in the stable and gave him some hay. This morning when he went to the stable the horse was gone and also a buggy and set of harness. Only a small portion of the hay had been eaten and the supposition is that the thief stole the horse soon after he was put away. The team was found this morning at Robrerstown where it was abandoned by the thief. It has been rejurned to its owner. It has been returned to its owner.

On Saturday a painful accident happened to Hiram Herr, aged about 50 years, living at Fruitville, at the residence of Mr. David B. Huber. Mr. Herr was assisting in threshing grain, and while passing under the platforn upon which the sneaves are thrown, ran his head against a bolt which was protruding, making an ugly wound, laying bare the skull to the extent of three inches. Dr. E. H.* Witmer, of Neffsville, attended to the injury.

The Presbyterian Memorial Camping association returned on Saturday from their week's trip to York Furnace, all the members being highly elated at the good time that was had. The prize for the best fisherman was awarded to James R. Garvin. It was a handsome fishing rod. John F. Heinwas a handsome insing root. John K. Heli-itsh drew the premium for the poorest fish-ing. His prize was a sheet-iron reel, heavy ishing line, tremendous cork and book large enough to land a shark.

Mr. John K. Leonard and family left today on a week's coaching trip through Ches-ter county.

Delegations of the Mannercher and Liederkranz left this morning for Reading. The Harmonie Mænnercher of that city is hold-ing a picnic and summer night's festival in Auer's park.

Harry Watson and Adam Dorwart, two of the INTELLIGENCER'S typos, are recupera-ting their failing health, by ascending the "Incline," at Reading, for two days.

Atmost Dead In Chicago, A. Donsbach, a nurse at St. Luke's Free bospital, Chicago, writes to Postmaster Slay maker, for information concerning Joseph Murray, 17 years old, who is now an inmat of the institution. She says that he cam on July 12. He was then suffering from ty on July 12. He was then suffering from typhold fever. Complications set in and the boy's life is now despaired of.

All that the hospital people know of Murray is that he left Lancaster three weeks previous to his going to Chicago. He says he has an aunt in Lancaster and his people belong to the Episcopal church. He says that he has an adopted sister. The boy is fail

An Old Button John Brown, of No. 625 Marietta avenue has in his possession a button of the kinwhich was shown the Reading Eagle maby a Lancaster county gentleman some day ago. It is of copper, about one inch and quarter in diameter. In the middle of it are the letters "G. W.," and around them is the inscription, "Long Live the President." Or the edges are the abbreviated names of the thirteen original states. This button was found on College avenue some days ago.

ending August 9th, 1886: Ludies' List .- Mrs. E. F. Ballister, Mis Susie Brenneman, Hannah K. Hess, Miss Eila Leddy, Miss Margie Parmer, Mary Sinciope, Gents' List.—I. C. Gooding, Fritz Reuter, Harry Wertemberg.

At Penryn Park.

There was a meeting of deaf mutes, con-sisting of ladies and gentleman from Lebaoon, Harrisburg, Steelton and this city, in Penryn park on Saturday. They num-bered some thirty, and while there they en-gaged in playing several games, which they semed to enjoy.

To-day the union picnic from Newmans-town, Sheridan and Richland is being held, and to-morrow the members of St. Mary's Catholic church, Lebanon, will enjey themselves at the park.

A Curious Egg

Samuel Dorwart, of 524 West Lemon street, brought to this office this morning a curious egg laid by a White Leghorn. It has three cells—two whites and a yelk—joined by a thin membranous cord. The covering of the whole is a soft shell, and one of the bulbs greatly resembles a duckling. Mr. Dorwar will preserve it in alcohol.

Cross Action &.

Daniel McCarthy has presecuted Michael K. Young at Alderman Fordney's for drunk enness and disorderly conduct and assault, and Young has made similar complaints against McCarthy at Alderman McConomy's. This morning McCarthy paid the costs in the case against him and was discharged.

The charges against Edward Copland and wife for keeping a disorderly house and violating the liquor law, which were to have been heard by Alderman Fordney, have been continued to a date not yet named. The reason of the continuance was the in-ability of one of the counsel for the defense to be present.

Held For Adultery. Samuel Overly, charged with having committed adultery, had a hearing before Alderman Spurrier, Saturday evening, and was held to answer at court.

Telephone Connection.
E. M. Gorrecht's eigar box factory, No 152 North Christian street, is connected with the telephone exchange.
