gar, Coatesville, hired a horse at the livery stable of John Reynolds, that place, a few Sundays ago for a drive to Hibernia, a few miles distant. When the young man re-turned three shoes were off the horse's feet and it was badly used up. Taylor, fearing he would be arrested, left town, and was not seen until Thursday night, when he put in his appearance, and was arrested by Offi-cers Roese and Linton. He was given a hearing on Friday before 'Squire Thomas, when he (Reynolds) said the horse's feet were bleeding, and it was in a terrible condition when returned. The horse had been driven all over the country, and in order to settle the matter he was willing to leave it to three persons to fix the amount of damage. Graham Rambo, J. V. Pennegar and they agreed that $45 would be a fair com-pensation. Taylor was unable to procure the money, but sent word to a gentleman in Bmyrns, Lancester county, who is his guar-dian. That gentleman arrived and had acon-ference with Taylor in the lock-up Friday evening, but could not settle the matter. Bankers & Merchants' telegraph company, recognized the dog as the property of Harry Hirsh, and meeting the latter at the races at McGrann's park on Saturday, asked him what he would give for the safe return of the dog. The reply was that five dollars would be paid for its return. Special Offi-cer John Gill and Patrick Burns promptly went to Eccert's store, and without many went to Eckert's store, and without many words seized the dog, brought it to Hirsh and secured the reward.

Young Miller would not permit this to go by unnoticed. On Saturday evening he brought suit before Alderman Fortney for brought suit before Alderman Fordery for larceny against Gill and Burns. The latter claim that they were suthorized by Hirsh to go for the dog, but this is denied by the com-plainant. Then it is a question of law whether Miller could bring an action of lareny for property not his own. The dog is ; valuable animal and registered property.
