President Egan's bosom must have thrilled with pride at the thought of the magnificent work his organization had done in behalf of the Emerald Isle. The world knew before he announced it that the Irish National League of America had contributed $320,000 to the cause, and that largely through its instrumentality the Parnell following in Parliament had been increased from a beggarly 25 to 30 to a formidable delegation of 85.

These results are far beyond the most sanguine expectations of those who gave the organization birth, and they have won for Ireland a place in the world's esteem that would otherwise have taken years of arduous labor to finally accomplish. Its deliberations should be made in full view of the responsibility that attends them, for the convention is speaking for the millions that make ly implies-he is the peer of any man in his up that " better Ireland beyond the sea."

The French Republic.

The French Monarchists attempted to make the elections for the councils general of the departments a test of the strength of the opposition to the republic, and were only successful in proving that, while the Imperialists and Monarchists of France have no dispicable strength in the cities, the peasantry of France are overwhelmingly Republican.

The expulsion of the princes has excited ting the constitutional inability of Gov. no popular regret or indignation among the masses of the people, and they appear to agree with the government in the vention has done the next best thing by opinion that their presence in France, as a naming for the succession Lieutenant Govcause for revolt, formed a constant ernor Black, an unquestionably able, fit and menace to the public peace. experienced man. But few men have been

The trouble with Republicanism in France seems to be that there is no organized and powerful parliamentary opposition to the party in power, except that of the Revolutionary party. Until that germ of revolt is exterminated, and the Republicans of France feel that the republic is established with sufficient firmness to permit their division into parties and factions on questions of public policy, France cannot be regarded as a true democracy. It is simply a nation ruled by a few of its ablest men to whose dictation all are compelled to submit in order to avoid the peril of a re-establishment of monarchy.

Heretofore attention was called to the narrow escapes made by individuals from huge rocks that nearly crushed them to death; and to the great boulders that crashed through the roofs of houses in the vicinage. Had it fallen a few hours earlier, when the station was filled with people, lives would inevitably have been

Is there no police protection in this town against such perilous work? Who is responsible for the danger to human life that is attending this work?

They Mean What They Say.

Senator Wallace, upon being told of the completed work of the convention, said It is a ticket that will win."

Senator Coxe, upon hearing of the whole ticket nominated, said: "I was disappointed in my choice for governor, but it is an excellent ticket of Democrats, and we will elect it."

THE Democratic standard-bearer make it very Black for Gen. Beaver.

THOSE who lost by the defalcation of Wiliam Gray, of Boston, are not deserving of a large amount of sympathy, for they trans gresses the plainest rules of business and common sense when they suffered the entire control of their business to drift into the hand of one man and did not even take the trouble to assure themselves at regular intervals of the ability and honesty of his management. His manner of life was such s would be calculated to excite the suspicions of the most careless man of business, for he spent much of money in yachting, kept fast horses and an expensive green house, besides a costly domestic establishmen. Mr. Africa has been again and again designated by the people of this state as ment. And yet the business Gray controlled yielded no dividends to the stockholders The 1,500 employes of the Atlantic mills who the preeminently proper man for the office to which he was named. FLORICULTURE Will probably receive quite a boom from the meeting of the Society of American Florists now in progress in Philadelphia. One of the speakers referred to the fact that there are over 8,000 florists ee tablished in business in this country, who with their work people, make a consid showing in the population. The number of Americans engaging in the business creases yearly, for, though England con-tributes the largest quota to the trade, with Germany and France following closely, Americans are now waking up to the poss bilities of the business. Allowing 400 feet of glass covered surface to each florist-a low estimate - would give a total of 3,200,000 feet, or 630 acres of glass surface. Last year the trade sold 24,000,000 cut roses and 120,000,000 carnation flowers. This interchange of views of these skilled florists will lead to enlarged knowledge of this captivating trade, and the future promises to make floriculture still more prominent in the world of business.

BEAVER might as well stay in the wild West and grow up with the country. He never will be missed.

NAVAL CONSTRUCTOR HICHBORN has been inspecting the navies and the shipyards nations, and in spite of the determined and natural hostility of foreign gov ernments to his mission, he has succeeded in gathering a vast amount of useful informs tion. The first copies of his report have appeared and from them it is learned that the cruisers provided for in the recent bill for the increase of the navy are quite on a par with the most approved war vessels now building abroad. The 10,000 and 14,000 ton ressels that have recently been launched for Italy and England have not met with the general approval of experts in those matters and ships of about 6,000 tons displacement are now considered the most efficient.

The Rischuelo, an armored cruiser, built for Brazil, is highly commended for its well calanced design ; combining high speed and large coal capacity with an armament of sufficient power to make it equal to any but est ironclads afloat, and no mean enemy of even one of these monsters. Our navy must be small for several years to come and it is well that two vessels modeled closely after the Riachuelo have been selected a among the first to be built.

"JUSTICE moves with a leaden heel, but strikes with an iron band.

Ture collapse of the Anglo-Russian Afghan commission shows that Russian diplomacy has again been too much for England The dispute is now no nearer settlement than it was a year or more ago, but Russia is much better prepared for war. She has built the trans-Caspian railway and launched a powerful fleet of steamers on both the Caspian and Black seas, while England has accomplished but little in the way of preparation for the inevitable struggle in the Afghan mountain passes. They will be held by the party that can "get there" first and most numerously.

STRONG candidates on a strong platform. This is the Democratic position, and it is in vincible.

PERSONAL.

"WILL" CARLETON, the author of "Betsy and I are Out," is going to lecture and read to English audiences this autumn. SIRARTHUR BASS, of "Pale Ale" tame, en ters the British peerage as "Baron Burton of Rangemore and Burton-upon-Trent." MRS. CLEVELAND'S photographer is printing 500 pictures of the president's wife every day and cannot supply the demand. ELI WHITNEY BLAKE, inventor of the Blake stone crusher, died in New Haven, Connecticut, Wednesday, aged 91 years.

MR. JOHN BOYLE O'RELLLY intends to acquire a stock of poetry and health in course of a lonely canoe-voyage down the Delaware. REV. MISS LOUISE BAKER is a preacher at Nantucket. A correspondent says of her:
"She has a serenely beautiful face and a sweet voice. Young men get converted by a H. C. McCormick has been nominated for Congress by the Lycoming county Republicans. Thomas Dinan, W. F. Schooley and L. R. Knight were named for the assembly. Dinan is a present member and an old Lan castrian. MAYOR McQUAID, of Jacksonville, Fla., is making it warm for those carrying on business in that city without taking out the required license. The license tax has not been generally enforced for some time past, and the fact that the law required the taking out of a regular license for the privilege of carry-ing on certain kinds of business has been al-most entirely ignored.

SENATOR EDMUNDS has accepted the invitation of the managers of the Vermont state fair to deliver the annual address at the joint exhibition of the Vermont State Agricultural society and the Champlain Valley association to be held at Howard Park in September, The management first extended an invitation to deliver the address to Hon. James G. Blaine, who declined on account of the Maine campaign. It seems appropriate that Edmunds should be after Blaine.

THE POET WHITTIER, although a very grave man, has a humorous impulse now and then. An instance of this appeared when a gentleman wrote to him asking if he had a copy of the poem called "Maud Muller's Reply." His answer was as follows:

DEAR SIR: I never saw or heard of "Maud Muller's Reply." I am glad that the poor soul could speak for herself. Thine truly. JOHN G. WHITTIER.

Democratic Prospects in the Next Congress. Washington Correspondence of Baltimore Sun So far all the information received from various sections of the country is encouraging, and points to the continuance of a working Democratic majority in the Fiftieth Congress. In some quarters the workingmen's organizations will interfere with the regular party contests, but, on the whole, the defection from that source is about equally divided between the Democrats and Republicans. While it is possible that the Democrats may lose a few congressmen in the South, it is thought they will gain in the West and Northwest. Secretary Thompson says the reason there are so many new aspirsays the reason there are so many new aspir-ants for congressional honors in the Southern states is due entirely to the failure of the present congressmen to obtain as much pat-ronage as their constituents expected. In many of the Southern states the people have been taught to expect that assoon as the Dem-ocratic party came into power there would be a clean sweep, and every member of that party would be provided with a comfortable office under the government. This feeling is party would be provided with This feeling is office under the government. This feeling is not confined to the Southern states alone. In other parts of the country this doctrine has been preached, and those congressmen who are unable to secure all that was expected of are unable to secure all that was expected of them are to be turned down, and new men sent to Washington to try their hand at place-getting. The new men may mean well, but after they reach Washington and engage in two or three bouts with the heads of de-partments only to be passed over to the civil-service commissioners, they will doubt-less become as unpopular with their con-stituents as the sitting members are now.

Senator Jones and the Burgiars. From the Inter-Ocean

Senator John P. Jones, of Nevada, who is about twice as big and strong as Mr. New-comb, said, upon hearing of the music : "I am surprised at the lack of judgment on the part of Newcomb. I know I never play the part of a policeman to expose mysell to have a knife put in my belly or a built in my head.

"Whenever I get into contact with burglars or highwaymen, and this has happened more than once to me, I always surrender, and tell them that I am a radical, and be likes in corrected." and tell them that I am a radical, and believe in everybody carrying on his natural vocation without any opposition. I further explain to them that, being a society man, my attention is absorbed only by social events, and I pay no attention to individual struggles for life."

He added, however, subsequently, that as he never wears jewelry or a watch, and as he has seldom more than a couple of silver dollars in his pocket, he usually comes out of such encounters first best.
