ter Cigarmaker Assaulted in Reading.

From the Reading Herald. A young man named Howard Jacobs, who same from Lancaster some weeks ago to work at cigarmaking at Glaser & Frame's factory, came down Penn street about 3 o'clock Thursday morning, looking as though he had suddenly dropped from a land of snow and the flakes had not yet melted from his clothing. He was covered with white limestone dust from head to foot, and, in answer to inquiries, said that he had gone to C. B. Miller's park in the early part of the night, leaving the place to walk to the city about 11 o'clock, but that when he was passing along about where the old ball ground used to be, he was attacked by three men, who knocked him down and robbed him of $2. Next they stripped him of his coat, vest, hat and shoes and went away, leaving him lay. Whether he became unconscious or not he is unable to say, but after a while he walked back to the hotel and informed the proprietor of the occurrence, and the two, taking with them a lantern, came down the road again. The clothing was found, but the men were not to be seen. day morning, looking as though he had

A Painful Accident.

This morning about 9 o'clock Patrick Welsh, a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, met with a very painful accident at the cut-off near the blg Conestoga bridge. He cut-off near the big Conestogs bridge. He was in the act of ascending the steps leading from the bumper to the top of a freight car while the train was in motion. A sudden joiling together of the cars shook his feet from the step and his right foot was caught between the bumpers. The big toe was crushed to a jelly and it is leared that some of the bones of the foot are also fractured. Welsh was brought to the railroad baggage room in this city where his wounded foot was temporarily dressed by Dr. Eberman, after which the toe was amputated by Dr. Welchans, and the sufferer was sent to his Telchans, and the sufferer was sent to his ome in Columbia He is a single man.

False Pretense and Forgery.

Chief Smith arrested Miller Shissier last night in bed, at the County house, on warrants issued by Alderman A. F. Donnelly, charging him with false pretense and forgery. It appears that some weeks ago, by means of an order purporting to be signed by a Philadelphia firm, but which it was subby a Philadelphia firm, but which it was sub-sequently learned was forged. Shissler ob-tained from E. F. Althouse, cigar manufac-turer, 10,000 cigars. The goods were shipped to Philadelphia, but passed into the hands of Shisaler who disposed of them. Shissler re-mained away from the city from the time he got the cigars until a few days ago, and when Althouse learned he was back again he prose-cuted him. The prisoner was unable to fur-nish bail and was committed for a hearing.

Oliver F. Leed was prosecuted on Thursday by John P. Good, before Alderman Mc-Glinn. Leed gave the officers of the organization a check for the smount of money in his possession—$175, but the check is not payable until Monday, which is not entirely satisfactory to all parties, and he may be re-arrested before night.
