LANCASTER, AUGUST 21. 186.

An Announcement.

The half interest in the INTELLIGEN-CER establishment, which since May, 1874, has been owned by W. U. Hensel, has been sold and transferred by him to Richard M. Reilly and Robert Clark.

The purchasers have for a long time been identified with the INTELLIGENCER -its editorial management and business direction; and the change of owners involves no change of policy.

For the immediate present no alteration will be made in the firm name of Steinman & Hensel; all the accounts of the old firm will be settled by the new.

From now until the day of the Pennsylvania state election, Mr. Hensel will devote himself exclusively to the management of the Democratic campaign.

Some Lies Disposed Gr.

There are some lies adming current now, chiefly in depublican newspapers of the paser sort, that may as well be jumped upon before they get much of a start.

It is related that Mr. Wallace became a candidate at the suggestion or invitation of Mr. Randall; and continued in the field at his solicitation, to be betrayed and ightered. We are not in the confidence of either Mr. Wallace or Mr. Randall ; but this story may be set down as a lie, pure and simple. If Mr. Wallace was to ome a candidate for governor he was not the man to ask Mr. Randall's consent or wait upon his nod.

It is alleged that before the convention. about the convention and in the convention the whole power of the federal officeholders in the state was exercised for Mr. Black and against Mr. Wallace. This is utterly untrue. Some of the most conspicuous federal office-holders in the state, before the convention, about the convention, if not in the body of the convention itself, were ardently urging Mr. Wallace's nomination; and in the membership of that body many of those who were as influential as they were prominent in his behalf had exercised the largest influence in their respective localities in the selection of federal appointees.

Instead of " a ring of Democratic congressmen" dictating the nomination, it appears that the influence of the seven nocratic congressmen gave very few votes to Mr. Black, the representatives of the districts of Scott, Curtin, Boyle, Sowden and Storm giving him very few votes indeed and casting most of their strength for Mr. Wallace.

It is said that Mr. Wallace, Mr. Coxe, Mr. Scott and other distinguished gentlemen, who did not approve the nomination of Mr. Black in advance, will not heartily support his election. This is another false-hood. Mr. Coxe announced his determination, before the convention ended, to give the ticket his hearty support. In answer to a suggestion in Philadelphia on Friday that his friends should " try " to elect the ticket, Mr. Wallace firmly said : "No. not try to elect, we will elect it." Mr. Scott telegraphs from New York that the ticket will win. What Democratic der will not support this ticket with all his might? Give us the supposed name, and see how quick he will prove it to be a

But the "rank and file" are said to be discontented. Are they? Who? Where? "Uncle" Jake Zeigler, whose brow is silverad with many winters of Democratic effort, is quoted as saying the people who nominated the ticket will be left alone to elect it. He said no such thing. What he did say was this: "I was for Wallace. Now I am for Black and the rest of the ticket. Personally I had but little choice, but I knew Mr. Wallace to be one of the best organizers in the country and we needed his executive ability. I saw Mr. Wallace to-day, and be assured me that he should do every thing in his power to secure the success of the ticket, and I believe he will." The ht and vigorous young men who run the Bedford Gazette, were among the most at supporters of Mr. Wallace. They sir esteemed newspaper: "Mr. k's nomination will be entirely satisbey to the Democratic party. Black in smoorat of the Jeffersonian school. He en an earnest teacher of the political h which he believes in and has done more bly than any other man in Pennsylrania to keep the party from straying into the paths of errors."

The Republican hopes of success are based entirely on Democratic discontent.

That fog will soon lift.

A Good Man Wronged. at injustice is being done that vet-nd aggressive Democrat, Mr. Will-i. Singerly, of Philadelphia, by the action that he is against the election Mr. Black because the Record does not artily to his support. Mr. Singerly

Here's a Funny Scheme.

Since the new marriage license law has gone into effect, making it necessary for those desirous of matrimony to pay for a license, there has been a large hegira to Camden, N. J., for that purpose.

Some Camden ministers, with more thrift than good taste, have prepared printed blanks as an advertisement of how expeditiously they can tie the connubial knot. The printed slip is filled in with the names of the alleged contracting parties. At the top of the slip is a pen picture of Camden, showing some of the principal streets. Underneath a heavy dotted line is the inscription : " Dotted line leading to the residence of Rev. -

All will agree that those who follow this kind of tactics are merely borrowing the livery of heaven to serve the boss of the subterranean regions.

A CARGO of gold and Dr. Holmes are reported on the ocean bound for America. Both will be welcomed eagerly.

THE postoffice department has come out rictorious from the contest with the Pacific Mail Steamship company over the carrying of the mails without special subsidy. The company has backed down so tar as to make an arrangement with the department on the old basis, thereby admitting what it has all along denied that there was profit in that arrangement. The firmness and energy with which the department has performed the service without the aid of a company that had dared to demand a subsidy and to attempt to win it by coercion are deserving of the warmest praise.

THERE will be a great many Black Republican votes cast next November.

Maurice Thompson, the well known literateur, has an interesting article on "Precious Titles," in the current issue of the New York Independent. All will recognize the truth of Mr. Thompson's remark that there is a certain involuntary, and often abnormal mpulse which generates brilliant mental action consequently exceptional and inimi-table creative power, especially in the direc-tion of what may be called imaginative lift. Nowhere is this peculiar, individual characteristic of genius more noticeable than in the precious titles that have come down to is from the favored few. The quintessence of poetry, bewilderingly suggestive and sub-tle, accompanies these imperishable names given to fortunate songs by masters long ago dead.

THE Australian wheat crop is short, ours s not; we seent prosperity afar. Not very DISPATCHES from Mexico announce that if Cutting be released he will be escorted to the frontier by troops and ordered imperatively to quit Mexican territory, and that his release will not be in compliance with the demand of Secretary Bayard, but as a matter of policy he will be expelled on the ground that he is not the right kind of a erson for Mexico to harbor. Let them call it what they please.

AT last we can hurran for the Black Republicans. The woods are full of them.

THE abuses of the soldiers' orphans chools is one of those iniquities that will be reformed under the next Democratic administration in this state. Governor Pattison discovered them and Governor Black will eradicate them. The report of Gen. Louis Wagner, inspector of these schools, shows a deplorable condition of affairs. At Chester Springs school he reports the bedding old and worn, the tableware and dining room furnitue poor and not well kept, no saucers no napkins, no tumblers, bad discipline a the table, no basins, soap, brushes, or combe in the lavatory, the boys' clothing in a bad state of repair, the school rooms not in good shape, no instruction in mechanical or agricultural employments, as the law directs, and that the institution, as a whole, is in an stactory condition. The same criticisms are made concerning the arrangements at McAllisterville, Mercer. niontown, Dayton, Hartford, Whitehall Butler and Loysville, while the Mount Joy school, with its rickety and ill-ventilated buildings, its dark "play room," so-called, ranks low, and the false system of economy there practiced has worked the most damaging results. The inspector advocates the entire reorganization of this school and the reduction of the number of children. The act of 1867 requiring instruction in the usual branches of education is entirely disregarded in a number of the schools. Certain branches are omitted altogether. Vocal music is taught in only two schools, military tactics are taught in only one school, calisthenics are taught in one school, instruction in mechanical employment is ignored, instruction in agricultural employment is equally neglected. The Mercer, McAilisterville, Mount Joy and Chester Springs schools are suffering from Reform is necessary and it will come under Democratic rule. As a way out of the Mexican trouble let Geronimo be exchanged for Cutting.

DR. JOSEPH JASTROW, of Philadelphia, before the members of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, in session in Buffalo, delivered an interesting lecture on centenarians. Of the 4,016 alleged entenarians the female sex claims 2,607 and the males only 1,409, that is, two of every three are women. Again, distinguishing between the several races, it is found that the natives white claim only 502, the foreign born 363 and the colored race no less than 3,061, of which more than two-thirds are women, so that more than half of the alleged ored women. Allowing for exaggeration ong the latter, the native male white ratio of centenarianism to the whole country is reduced from 4,016 to 806, or about 1 in 62,000. The somewhat remarkable conclusion is reached by the paper that wherever the people claim the largest share of centenarians there then is the most illiteracy.

FROM the vast increase of whirlpool cranks a plot is suspected to turn the whiripool. Its name should be changed to whirifool.

The Dow law is in league with hell and the devil, and the Methodist who will follow it up hasn't got any sense. That Dow law virtually sells out the Sabbath. The Germans are trying to take this country, but this is America. The question for your people to settle is: Shall we turn this country over to the devil, the Dutch and the drunkards? I hope the day will come when the preachers will take hold of these things and thender them from the pulpit like hell fire." like hell fire.

JOHN P. FINERTY.

One of the Prominent Figures Before the Recent Irish Convention. The convention of the Irish National Land League in Chicago was one of the largest conventions ever held under the auspices of that organization, owing to the impetus given to it by the arrival of many prominent Irish politicians from Europe, and although there are disagreements between many of the members, nothing outside of purely political subjects will be likely to be introduced. Mr. Finerty, who is one of the brightest stars in the constellation of first-class magnitude, has much to say in regard to the Irish question. He says "we have no desire to force the hand He says "we have no desire to force the hand of Parnell, or to drive the Irish people into war unprepared. All that we demand is this (and we will be satisfied with nothing less) that no leader of the Irish people, who is supposed to speak for them, shall commit himself or them as a final settlement, bills of relief unworthy of the dignity of Ireland's national demand." Mr. Finerty's speech in nawar to Davitt at the convention excited answer to Davitt at the convention excited unlimited applause. Among other things he said, which elicited much cheering was, "the Irish Americans wanted to force no policy upon the Irish people at home, but they would not surrender their own; they, too, had a long and terrible account to settle with England. They had as many wrongs to avenge as the people of Ireland them-selves." Mr. Finerty's name had been fa-vership mentioned in connection with the selves," Mr. Finerty's name had been favorably mentioned in connection with the presidency of the Land League as Egan's successor, but he would not allow it to go before the convention, as his election would necessarily prevent him from taking an active part in politics. Mr. Finerty was formerly a correspondent of the staff of the Chicago Times, and represented a Chicago district in Congress for one term.

Union.

Chauncey Forward Biack is the worthy son of an honored sire, but he does not owe his nomination for governor of Pennsylvania to the fact that he is any man's son. He is one of the coming statesmen of this generation. Of independent mind, possessed of great administrative ability, forceful, eloquent, amiable, of incorruptible integrity, wholly in sympathy with the ideas that dignify and elevate the labor of the many, as distinguished from the policy that enriches and entrenches the few, he is the sort of leader to lead the Democrats of Pennsylvania to victory in this one hundred and eleventh year of American independence.

He can be elected.

≪FACTS≫

It don't seem possible. Yet it is a Fact. We are making up to Order All-Wool Suits of twenty different style of goods at $10, $12 and $15, that were $15, $15 and $20. We admit at these prices we lose money, but the stock must be reduced and we need the Cash. Whoever buys one of these Suits will save nearly half the price of a Suit. Come and see for yourselves.
