There, in the downy meahes planed, Such sweet tlusions maint their rest, They think her breath the fragrant wind, And tremble on her breast

Recently Re-Elected Treasurer of the Irish Sational League of America.

The Reverend Charles O'Reilly, who was iosen treasurer of the Irish National Lan League in the third week of August, 1886, is Catholic elergyman of Detroit, Michigan He was born in this country, of Irish parent-age, but his noble and full-hearted devotion o the land of his foreigthers, has made him an Iriahman rather than an American. He has taken as much interest in Irish affairs as any of his brethren who were born and bred on Irish soil. He is decidedly a thorough Irish Nationalist of the most pronounced character. His prominence in connection management of the league affairs began at the convention of 1883, which was held in Philadelphia, Pa. Affairs of the $15,000 Ald for Evicted Tenants. The following was sent from Detroit, Mich., on Tuesday by Treasurer O'Reilly:

"T. Harrington, O'Connell street, Dublin, Ireland: Am mailing Maloney draft for £3,000. American League reads with indignation of Gweedore and other heartless evictions, and will do its utmost to keep our kindred in their homes while waiting for Irish Partiement."

The reverend treasurer wishes it distinctly understood that this transmission is from the surplus of the League fund reported to the Chicago convention, in nowise connected with the parliamentary fund, but used in cases of emergency and for the protection of evicted thanns. No funds will be held on deposit here so long as pressing necessity requires their use in Ireland.

A Siser's Property.

John V. Schanck, of Matawan, N. J., generally known as a miser, and who is dying, sent for some of his neighbors on Monday. and, after giving them his will, with instruc and, after giving them his will, with instructions not to open it till after his death, told them to look around the house for his property. In the course of the search they found about $30,000 in coin and paper. Some of the former was concealed in the barrels of old of musicets, of which he had a collection.
Bundles of bank notes were found among old iron scraps. The house itself was a curiosity; it is covered with three-inch plank and then shingled. The nails holding the shingles on go through and are clinched on the inside. The thops leading to the second story, are cut in an inclined trunk of a tree.
The house is surrounded with an oak fence, the palings of which are secured to the ralls with the boits. There are about one hundred old muskets and pistols in the house, Schanck having a mania for collecting them. There was also enough ammunition for a seige. In the yard is a good-sized squirrel house, with a large quantity of corn inside, and holes cut in the walls for the ingress and egress of the animals, of which he made pets. Schanck is seventytwo years of age. tions not to open it till after his death, told

"Hope on, hope ever." How many delicate ladies there are who, while they attend to their daily duties, do so with aching heads, a sense of fuliness, pain in the back and depressed spirits, who are "only Recording about," as the phrase is. Some day they "go into a decline," and leave their children motheriess. To such we want day, "Cheer up." Timely use of Dr Flerce's "Favorite Prescription" corrects all female irregularities, weaknesses, and kindred affections easily, pleasantly and quickly. W 5 & W

A QUESTION ABOUT

Brown's Iron Bitters

ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thou sands of times. "How can Brown's from Bitters oure everything?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would preserbe 180N. Physicians recognize from as the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of fros than of sny other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that fros is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of Bilown's IRON BITTERS no perfectly satisfactory combination had ever been found. Bilown's IRON BITTERS cures in discovery of Bilown's IRON BITTERS cures in discovery in the state of the same shades of th
