COLUMNIA, Ang. 23.—A terrible burning coldent happened in Columbia on Tuesday of Grota Mouli, a three year-old daughter of the columnia on Cherry street. The to Grean Missil, a three year-old daughter of fame Missil, living on Cherry street. The little child had procured a match in some which she ignited while lying in her to be in the upper floor of the house. The match set fire to the bed clothing and the dethes of the child, and they were soon in a biase. The heat from the burning material started the child to crying which was heard by the mother. Mrs. Mauli ran up stairs and found the bed clothing in flames. With the amistance of some neighbors the fire was soon extinguished. The cries of the child were heard just in time, as the smoke of the fire would have soon stified the little girl and fatal results would have occurred. Dr. Berntheisel was hastily summoned and rendered all possible aid to alleviate the sufferings of the child. The injuries consist of terrible burns about the lower limbs, but they will not result in any serious manner. The parents are at a loss to know how the child got the match, as these articles are always kept out of the reach of the children.

A Narrow Escape.

A Narrow Escape. On Tuesday, Mr. M. Bachenheimer, ac nied by Mr. Harry Waller, of Sunbury. Pa, went out on the river on a fishing exn. The boat was rowed up the river towards the steamboat landing, at the bridge.

The water at this place is about fifteen feet in The water at this place is about fifteen feet in depth. Mr. Waller stood up in the boat and attempted to take hold of the cribbing, at the landing. When he caught hold of the logs he tried to pull the boat to the landing, but he pushed the boat farther from him and fell into the water. Mr. Waller not being able to swim, had a very narrow escape from being drowned. The only part that could be seen was his hands. Mr. Bachenheimer seized a fishing rod, which the struggling man managed to take hold of. In this way he was pulled towards the boat. In the confusion of the time, the boat was nearly upset and was half full of water. The escape from drowning was very close. drowning was very close, Met With Poor Success.

Word was received in town yesterday to d police assistance to the farmers along the Chickies creek who have been troubled to a great extent by tramps. The three poofficers went to the place where the tramps were encamped, but the men had left for other places. A number of fires and other signs indicated the presence of tramps a short while previous. They must have received notice of the coming of the police. When tramps are arrested by the officers for disturbing the farmers considerable trouble is had to get the farmers to appear against them.

Nearly two weeks ago John W. Michael had a four-cared skiff stolen from the Wal-nut street wharf by having the lock on the boat broken. After considerable trou-ble the boat was found in Marietta and se-cured by the proper owner. Some person had stolen the boat and took it up the river, where it was sold for three dollars. The purchaser had repainted the boat after he bought ft. A man in town is suspected of the theft and will most likely be brought to account for the act.

"Our Jonathan" To-night.—The comedy which will be given at the open house to-night is one that is very popular. The troupe is stong and it includes William Moore, Miss Balls Yivian and others, who will introduce a number of new songs, &c.

The Play To-morrow Night.—On Thursday evening "Bound to Succeed" will be played in this opera house. The New York Dispatch says: "Bound to Succeed" did succeed not only in attracting numerous audiences, but in pleasing them very greatly. There are enough of incidents, exciting situations and realistic effects to furnish material for half a dozen ordinary melodramas.

Friday Evening's Comedy.—"Nancy & Co" will be presented by Arthur Rehan's company on Friday evening. The party carry accessories, including velves plush portieres, tapessures, oriental rugs, drapings, &c. The hotel scena in the second act is very natural, with real doors, &c.

A Healthy Hody and a Clear Head.

If indigestion, constipation and billouances orment the body, the head cannot be clear these disorders react upon the brain most hurtuilly, and produce a cloudiness in the organ of hought not experienced by a healthy man tapplity these brain oppressing maladies may a sufficiely dispelled by that peerless alternative, testetter's Stomach Bitters, which cheers, refreehes and invigorates the brain and nerves, while it regulates the organs of direction, assimilation and billous secretion. It expels the morbid humors which poison the system through the bownis and urinary passages, and exerts a powerful invigorating influence as well. Its cathartic action is never irritating, violent or painful, but even, natural and progressive. As an appetizer and sleep promoter, the Bitters is unrivaled; it mitigates the infirmities of age, relieves the aliments peculiar rothe gentler sex, arrests premature decay, and builds up an enfectived physique.
