The Lancaster Intelligencer. LANCASTER, AUGUST 27, 1886.

The Prohibition convention has put up a state ticket of good material and has resolved some very wise and otherwise things, in language that has the contour, perfume and exact appearance of the language used in the resolves of the Prohibition conventions since their creation.

The nomination of Mr. Wolfe likewise will be of chief importance to the Republican party, not only because he is a Republican, but because he will obtain many recruits for his ticket and they will mainly come as our experience tells us, from the Republican ranks.

The submarine monitor that has just been successfully tested in the North river is a new departure in marine as well as design. It is called the Peacock, and it will really prove as efficient as claimed by its inventor.

Mr. A. M. Gibson says in the New York Sun, that Mr. Tilden sent his paper on the coast defense to Cleveland to be incorporated in his message to Congress; that Cleveland declined to use it, and that Tilden then changed the opening and concluding paragraphs, addressed it to Speaker Cass, and gave it to the Associated Press.

How About J. W. Johnson? Everybody is discussing the misfeasance of Mayor Wm. B. Smith, of Philadelphia, which was so energetically and successfully shown up by the Times, of that city.

What would the 'Yim' Fathers say if they could read the announcement in the papers 'The Mayflower to defend the cup'?

It is an unusually interesting feast of reason and flow of soul that the INTELLIGENCER offers to its readers in to-morrow's issue. One of Lancaster's best known and most reliable historical writers contributes a timely monograph on the "Dear Taverner" at Elliptown.

Referring to the Smith scandal in Philadelphia, the New Era of August 19, said: He (Smith) has no right to construe the action about his own convenience or to harmonize with his ideas of expediency.

The major of Philadelphia is paying up but not fast enough to satisfy an honest clamor. He has no right to the public money and the sooner he acquiesces in it the better.

Russia declares that she had nothing to do with the rape of Prince Alexander, who has been released upon being landed upon her territory. The plot seems to have been the work of Bulgarian politicians of Russian proclivities, and it is said that the agents in carrying it out were largely students in the schools of Sofia.

The history of the government improvements in Hell Gate channel dates back to 1848, when Lieutenants Porter and Davis recommended the removal of the dangerous rocks. The first great blast was made September 24, 1850, and great blast of Saturday, October 10, 1853, was the completion of the work as far as blasting goes.

Stimulants for Chrysanthemums. From the gardener's Chronicle. Last year I was induced to try an experiment in chrysanthemum growing, and for this purpose I purchased one pound of sulphate of ammonia, which I bottled and corked up, as the ammonia evaporates very rapidly.

Fixed for Alienating the American Flag. Robert R. Allen, superintendent of the Coshuilla mines syndicate at Eagle Pass, Texas, makes complaint to Consul Lynn of the persistent annoyances inflicted upon the mining company by Mexican officers at Cuatro Ciénegas.
