THE MODEST MAIU This is the modest little maid Who always used to be atraid

Her charms would be o'ermuch displayed By ballroom dress;
But to the seashore she has strayed,
And in a bathing suit arrayed,
She doth exhibit undismayed,

Her loveliness A dress when cut decollete, This modest damsel used to say.
"Affords a deal too much display "Affords a deal too much disOf neck and arms!
But—mark the inconsistency—
She now meanders by the sea,
In dress descending to bey knee,
Without alarms.

Though she is of such modest mice That ever would she blush, I ween, Were betsu luch of ankle seen By boortsh churis yet admiration doth she court. As on the beach she doth disport Attired in skirts, I vow, as abort As ballet girls'.

And, what is more, 'tis her delight To keep exhibited in sight Her neck and arms supremely white To win a smile.

Yet this is she who none could press To don a low necked ballroom dress. Ah, well, the reason you can guess—

It is the style. - From the Hartford Daily Times.

A Man With Six Wives.

Parts Dispatch to the London Daily News The assize court of the Seine has had to deal with a remarkable bigamist, if such i name can be given to a man who had as many as six wives. The culprit is a Polish Jew, small, ill-made and ugly—in short, a sort of foreign Quilp. His name was Feinstein. Wherever he went he got married, because, he said, he could not do without feminine society, and, finding virtuous women fools, profited by their folly and credulity. Feinstein's first matrimonial venture or adventure was in Russia in 1870. He abandoned there his wife and four children and came to seek his fortune in Paris, where he got implicated in a robbery and was condemned to thirteen months imprisonment. In jail he fell in with another Polish Jew named Mayer, who died there, leaving a widow in fairly good circumstances. After his release Feinstein called on her, described to her the conversation he had had with her deceased husband about her and her virtues, and so got round her that in three weeks they were engaged. She would have married him then had she not resolved to devote a certain number of months for the late M. Mayer. The period she named was too long for him, and under the name of Herzfeld he woosed and won a very decent Jewess named Rachel Garlinski. To satisfy the requirements of the French code on the score of birth and other certificates he got, though the testimony of seven witnesses, a certificate of notoriety establishing that he was Herzfeld and had for many years lived in Paris. In a few days he absconded with his second wite's jewels and money, and went to Nancy, where he heard of a certain Anna Jarewska who had 3,000f., and proposed for her. He was accepted. Another certificate of notoriety was obtained, and the bride and the bridegroom were coming from the mayoralty when Rachel came forward, escorted by policemen, to forbid the bans at the bride party dispersed to escape being called upon to pay for the wedding feast that had been ordered. Inquiries having been made, the antecedents of Feinstein were brought to the public presecutor's table from Russian, Polish, German and other ferminance in the public presecutor i name can be given to a man who had as many as six wives. The culprit is a Polish Jew the antecedents of Feinstein were brought to light, and there was quite a pile of letters on the public prosecutor's table from Russian, Polish, German and other Jewesses, whom he had imposed upon and swindled. It came out that he had six wives, and was regularly engaged to fourteen single women and widows. He was so impudent as to laugh heartily and let off many sarcasms at their mistortunes when he was in the dock. Dis-pusted at his cynicism the jury refused to gusted at his cynicism the jury refused to admit extenuating circumstances, and the court sentenced him to six years penal servi-tude. Haste to the Wedding. Woman in upper window (to young mar at front door)-We don't want no paper

Young man (with package of envelopes in bis hand)—But you— Woman—No "buts." We don't want no stationery."

There is Nothing Surprising in the fact that Benson's Capcine Plasters are widely imitated; that cheap and worthless, plasters with names of similar sound, and similar appearance in type, are freely offered for sale. Articles of great and original merit always have to compare with trashy unitations. But as they become known they die out through deserved neglect. Meanwhile we warn the public against the so-called "Capsicum," "Capaicin," "Capaicin," "Capaicin," and "Capsicum," "Capaicin," "Capaicin, and "Capsicum," "Capaicin, " capaicin, and "Capsicum, " Capaicin, " capaicin, and "Capsicum, " Capaicin, " capaicin, and "Capsicum, " "Capaicin, and "Capsicum, " "Capaicin, and "Capsicum, " "Capaicin, " and "Capcine and are made to sell on the reputation of Benson's, deal with respectable druggists only, and you cannot be deceived. The genuine has the "Three Seals" trademark on the cloth and the word "Capcine" cut in the centre. in the fact that Benson's Capcine Plasters are

CURE OF A SPRAIN.

MACREON CENTRE, WAYNE Co., N. Y., February 28, 1885. Some years ago i badly strained my stomach picking cherries, and have suffered greatly ever since. Nothing has been so beneficial as Ali-cock's Plasters. They entirely cured me of that trouble. I have been afflicted with a lame ankle, but these Plasters soon enabled me to walk. I commend them whenever I have an opportunity, as I have found them very useful for over ten years. Allcock's Plasters have always done me the greatest service, and I am every day more and more convinced that no household should be without them.

Mrs. Susik A. Bills.

Be On Your Guard.

Benson's Capcine Plasters are widely imitated. That is the fact. Now, why are they imitated? Because they are the only porous plaster in existence that is really trustworthy and valuable. Benson's Plasters are highly and scientifically medicated, and cure in a few hours aliments upon which no others have had any effect whatever. The public are therefore cautioned against plasters bearing the names of "Capsicin," "Capsicin," "Capsicin," or "Capucin," which are meant to pass for "Capcine" or "Capucin," which are meant to pass for "Capcine," Burton's, "etc. When buying ask for Benson's Plaster and protect yourself by a personal examination. The genuine has the word "Capcine" cut or poroused in the body of the plaster and the "Three Seals" trademark on the lace cloth.

BEDICAL

TURED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some sort of tonic. IRON enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who need building up.

Physicians and Druggists Recommend BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

AS THE BEST TONIC.

For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, Etc., it HAS NO EQUAL, and is the only fron medicine that is not injurious. It Enriches the Blood, Invigorates the System, Restores Appelite, Aids Digestion. It does not blacken or Injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—as other medicines do.

Dr. G. H. BISKLEY, a leading physician of Springneid, Ohio, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action excels all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it.

Dr. W. N. WATSHO, 1219 Thirty-second Street, It contests is the Tomic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strongth and improves digestion." creates appetite, gives strong and crossed red digestion.

A YER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. Your Children

For such alimentate to the throat and lungs. For such alimentate to the throat and lungs. For such alimentate affords speedy relief and cure. As a remedy for Whooping Cough, with which many of our children well afflicted, we used, during the past winter, with much satisfaction, we consider this preparation the most efficacious of all the medicines which have come to our knowledge. — Mary Parkhurst, Preceptress, Home for Little Wanderers, Doncaster, Md.

My children have been peculiarly subject to attacks of Group, and I failed to find any effective remedy until I commenced administering Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This preparation relieves the difficulty of breathing and invariably cures the complaint.—David G. Starks, Chatham, Columbia Co., N.

I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for many years, and have found it especially valuable in Whooping Cough. This medicine aliays all irritation, prevents inflammation from extending to the lungs, and quickly subdues any tendency to Lung Complaint.—J. B. Wellington, Plainville, Mich.

I find no medicine so effective, for Group and Whooping Cough, as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It was the means of saving the life of my little boy, only six montas old, carrying him safely through the worst case of Whooping Cough I everasw.—Jane Malone, Piney Flatts, Tena.
