The noise made was something like thunder or an explosion. Many people ran out into the street, thinking that an accident had occurred. In East Wainut it appeared that nearly everybody felt the shock. At the Penn iron works the shock was so heavy that the clock was stopped at 10:50. At Quarryville the shock was quite severe, and the noise was similar to that of an explosion. Many persons had retired, but upon feeling the shock hastily donned their clothes and ran out of their houses.

At Smithville there was a similar noise, and in the store of George Smith articles were shaken from shelves. Reports from other parts of the county show that the shock and noise were heard and felt.

A Tried Remedy for dillousness.

Those who suffer from disorder or inaction of the liver will never get the upper hand of the unruly organ so long as they use such irrational remedies as bluepill, caloniel and podophyllin. But from the tried and popular medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters they may expect relief with a certainty of obtaining it. The influence of the Bitters upon the great billiary gland is direct, powerful and speedily foit. The relief afforded is not spasmodic, but complete and permanent. The sallowness of the skin, furred appearance of the tongue, indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, pains through the right side and shoulder, in lact every accompalment of the obstinate complaint are entirely and promptly removed by a course of this inestimable medicine, in behalf of which testimony is constantly emanating from every quarter, and from all classes of society.
