At last the west wind brought us one Serene, warm, cloudless, crystal day, As though September, having blown A binat of tempest, now had thrown A gauntiet to the favored May.

Backward to Spring our fancies flew, And, careless of the course of Time,

The bloomy days began anew. Then, as a happy dream comes true, Or as a poet finds his rhyme— Half wondered at, half unbelieved-

I tound thee, friendliest of the flowers! Then Summer's Joys came back, green-les And its doomed dead, awhile reprieved, First learned how truly they were ours-Dear violet! Did the Autumn bring Thee vernal dreams, till thou, like me, Didst climb to thy imagining? Or was it that the thoughtful Spring Did come again, in search of thee? Robert Underwood Johnson, in The Century

COLONEL INGERSOLL ON LAWYERS. A Discussion Showing Intidet Hob Has Not as Elevated Opinion of the Profession, tust strumpet. He is prepared to receive big fees, and make the best of either side of any case. He is a sort of a burglar in the realm of mentality. It is a fortunate thing for the of mentality. It is a fortunate thing for the lawyers that, whenever a man is created who has the peculiar faculty for legal acquirements and controversy, at the same time enough fools spring into existence to give him a good living. It is illustrated in the story of the man who studied for the ministry and occupied the pulpit for a number of years without success, and then studied medicine and practiced this profession for a number of years without success, and then studied law and, entering upon its practice, made a fortune at it. He declared he had found men more willing to pay for having their own way than to be guaranteed their sonis or to keep their bodies whole. My ideal of a great lawyer is that great English attorney who, having accumulated a fortune of who, having accumulated a fortune of £1,000,000, left it all in a will to make a home for idiots, declaring that he wanted to give it back to the people from whom he took your clients than yourself," I said.

The colonel laughed as he said: "I never want to know much about my clients. I never want to know whether they are guilty or not. I do not even care to know what they can prove. What I want to know is what the other fellow can prove. Then I know that I am ready for business."

of the American association for the advancement of science, some of the delegates discussed in an informal way a substitute for cremation. One of the scientists, whose name is not remembered by Professor Pohlman, the local sercetary, proposed cements tion as something better than incineration or the present mode of interment. His plan was to have the body encased in cement and this it was believed would do away with a coffin. Its advantages were these : It would do away with all sanitary objections and would not interfere with the ritual of the churches for both Bishop Coxe, Episcopallan, and Bishop Ryan, Roman Catnolic, have declared themselves as teing opposed to cre-mation. Helpo Coxe in an interview says that he can see no possible objection to co-mentation, and Eishop Ryan says the same, mentation, and Eishop Ryan says the same, adding that "cementation is immeasurably better than cremation." A curious feature of the case, made known by inquiries, is that rats infest cemeteries, burrow into the graves and make their nests in the coffins. An old grave-digger said that he had killed hundreds of rats and that they were regular ghouls. He was much pleased with the idea of a cement coffin which would do away with any molestation of the dead by rats. "They will eat through anything," he said, "except stone, cement or metals."

The young man had taken her hand and was pleading in impassioned tones as they sat together on the sofa.

"Irene," said be, "though I am not the ossessor of great wealth, I can offer you the devotion of a heart that is yours alone-a love that is as boundless as the occun and as enduring as the everlasting hills. The aim of my life shall be to minister to your happi-

"Oh, Irene! At such a moment as this, when my life's happiness is trembling in the balance, can you be so cruei and so heartless as to pull a chestnut gong on me?"

Mother's Smiles Are the Sunlight of Home. Mother's smiles Are the Sunight of Home.

There would be fewer clouds and brighter sunshine in many households if every dispirited suffering woman realized what a boon Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" is for all weaknesses and maladies to which her sex is liable. No lady who gives this wonderful remedy a trial will be disappointed by the result. It not only acts promptly upon all functional derangements, but by its rare nervine and toole properties strengthens and repairs the whole feminine system. Price refused to one dollar. By druggists.

They were both entirely cured by taking one or two Bran dreth's Pills every night for three months with out interfering with their labor or household duties.

Go carefully in purchasing medicine. Many advertised remedies can work great injury—are worse than none. Burdock Blood Bitters are purely a vegetable preparation; the smallest child can take them. They kill disease and cure the patient in a safe and kindly way. For salo by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster. Depend Upon It.

Mother Shipton's prophesics and Louisians elections are uncertain things, but Thomas' Excitetric Oil can be depended upon always. It cures aches and pains of every description. For sale by H. B. Lochran, druggist, 137 and 13 North Quoen street, Lancaster.

First-rate Evidence. "Often unable to attend business, being subject to serious disorder of the kidneys. After a long slege of stekness tried. Burdock Blood Bitlers and was relieved by half a bottle," Mr. B. Turner, of Rochester, N. Y., takes the pains to write. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggest, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

How Much Will Do It? How much of Thomas' Eclectric Oil is required to cure? Only a very little. A lew drops will cure any kind of an ache: and but a trife more is needed for sprains and lamenesses. Kheumatism is not so readily affected: an ounce and sometimes two ounces are required. No medicine, however, is so sure to cure with the same number of applications. For saleby H. B. KIDNEY TROUBLES.

A Case of Many Years Standing Cured With Bix Bottles, in a Man 90 Years of Age.

Allentows, Pa., May 8, 1885.

Dandellos Bitters Co.—Gents: I had been troubled with my kidneys for a number of years, used almost everything without much benefit until I tried Dandellen Bitters. I used six bottles and am pleased to say I am antirely rid of the kidney trouble, besides my system being toned up so that I feel like a different person. I cheerfully recommend the same to all afficied in this way.

REV. T. J. ROSEITER, the honored pastor of the First Reformed Church, Baltimore, Md., says: "Having used Brown's Iron Bitters for Dyspepsia and Indigestion, I take great pleasure in recommending it highly. Also consider it a splendid tonic and favigorator, and very strengthening."

Hos. Joseph C. Surr, Judge of Circuit Court, Clinton Co., Ind., says: "I bear most cheerful testimony to the officacy of Brown's Iron Bitters for Dyspepsia, and as a tonic,"

Mrs. C. A. Nosway, Merrill, Wis., says: "I suffered for two years with Dyspepsia Used many different remedies without benefit. My physician advised me to try Brown's Iron Bitters. Three bottles cured me."

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR. -TAKE-

Simmons' Liver Regulator!

THE SYMPTOMS OF LIVER COMPLAINT Are a bitter or bad taste in month, pain in the back sides or joints, often mistaken for Rheumatism; sour stomach, loss of appetite, bowels alternately costive and lax, headache; loss of memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; debtilly, low spirits, a thick yellowish appearance of the skin and eyes; a dry cough often mistaken for Consumption.

Nonetimes many of these symptoms attend the disease, at others very few; but the Liver, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not regulated in time great suffering, wretchedness and death will ensue.

THE "BALTIMORE EPISCOPAL METHO "Stamons' Liver Regulator is ac-knowledged to have no equal as a Liver medicine, containing those Southern roots and horis which an all-wise Providence has placed in countries where Liver discasses pro-provail."

These goods were bought by us six months ago when prices were the lowest ever known, and we are now selling them from Se, to lee, a yard less than any importer, can land them to-day. We are confident that no better value has ever been offered in this or any other market, and we cordially invite ladies who have samples from other cities to call, examine and compare qualities and prices. They were made by the best manufacturer, dyed and finished by the best dyers, and come in all shades from Jet to Bright Blue-Black.
