DAIRIES ON THE PARM.

She painted them on canvas
With a rapt, artistic air,
She wore them in her bodice,
And in her raven hair.
She thought farm life idyllie,
And said its greatest charm
Was lent it by the daisies.
The daisies on the farm.

"Do you not love the daisies !

It sounded energette,

To the farmer's son she saith, But all the praise he uttered Was underneath his breath.

But she felt a vague slarm That he did not love the daisies, The daisies on the farm.

Though her voice was very swee Ith some repressed emotion Itis face grew dark and warm,

Her esthetic nature yearned.
And the farmer's son, undaunted,
With his scythe upon his arm,
Went to battle with the dalsies,

The daisies on the farm. From the Texas Siftings.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

There can be something heroic in a medicine as well as in individuals. Burdock Blood Bitters have effected many a galiant rescue among the suffering sick. Thousands have escaped the miseries of dyspepsia and nervous debility through the use of this wonderful medicine. It is emphatically the best stomach and blood tonic in the world. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Called to Preach.

We feel called upon to preach a few gospel facts—facts that are worth knowing. We want everybody to enjoy all that is possible in this world. We want all those who are suffering from rheumatism, neuralgis, and all aches, sprains and pains to know that Thomas' Kelectric Oil is an unfalling and spiendid cure. For sale by H. B. Cochran, Druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

From Cleveland, Ohio,

Comes a letter signed T. Walker, saying: "About six months ago commenced taking Burdock Blood Bitters for protracted case of lumbrage and general debility, and now am pleased to state have recovered my appetite and wonted strength. Feel better allogether." For sale by H. B. Cochran, Druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Not a case of rheumatism, not a case of neuralgia, not a case of tameness, not a case of pala or sprain—not one—has failed to go whon attacked by Thomas' Ecceptic Oil. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

This old adage does not signify that we must suffer the miseries of dyspepsia, when a medicine with the curative properties of Burdock Ricod Butters is available. DEMOCRATIC NATURALIZATION COMMITTER—Foreign-born Citizens destring Naturalization, and their Iriends, should bear in mind that SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2d,
will be the last day for Naturalization this year;
and as Court may not then be in session it is best to have this matter attended to at once.
The following committee of Democratic attorneys has been appointed to attend to Naturalization for their party here; and calls upon them should be made at their law offices;
B. F. Davis, South Duke street; W. H. Roland,
South Duke street; John A. Coyle, Kast King street, B. F. Montgomery, North Duke street;
John E. Malone, South Duke street. ERISMAN'S. DON'TSUFFER ANY LONGER
