Miss Bachler, soprano, and Miss with the The sormon was preached by the Miss who took as his text I Cor., 4th. ar ad 2d verse; the subject was loyality to the Miss of the duties of church members of this old congregation to manbers of this old congregation to manbers of this old congregation to mannestly and actively building on the anisotry and a halfage, to strengthen it was a very practical distance. The subject was loyality and actively building on the anisotry and a halfage, to strengthen it was a mannestly and actively building on the anisotropy and a halfage, to strengthen it was a might an anisotropy of the community. The virus and grace of the community with the school were reopened. The singing despringly beautiful was an obligate solo was spirited and well rendered socially beautiful was an obligate solo the hymn "From every stormy wind that tows," sung very sweetly by Miss Gussie Genderier. There was also a short practical talk to the achool by the pastor.

In the evening a full audience partock of a boly communion. All the services of the boly communion. All the services of the latter, a cross of red and white. In the sum of the was covered with one massive bank of the latter, a cross of red and white. In the sumps covered with green moss, wight flowers and trailing vines. In this a large arch of solid cut flowers of every hue was a panned, under which stood the silk tense were numberless bouquets, hanging takets and floral designs. The room presented a pleasing sight and the effect of the whole was very pretty.

The pastor announced that next Sunday spropriate notice would be taken of the Gunday school and church, who the following week would leave for the Moravian College and Theological seminary,

BICTCLE RIDERS ENJOY mut Spin to York Furnace Where They Were Well Entertained,

On Sunday Martin Rudy and John Traon Sunday Marcin Rudy and John Ita-passer, of this city, and W. B. Bushong, of New Holland, rode on their bicycles to Col-ambia where they were joined by E. L. Fornwalt, William Balley, H. L. Oberlin, W. S. Oberlin, John S. Musser, of Columbia; W. S. Oberlin, John S. Musser, of Columbia; S. N. Reed, of Lime Rock; Abraham W. Witmer, Washington borough; and G. F. Kohler, Millersville. The members all had biggoles and they rode across the bridge to Wrightsville and thence down the toe-path to York Furnace. They partook of an excellent dinner at Urey's hotel. In the afternoon Mr. Urey and histerrymen took them across the river to the Tuoquan camping ground. The wind cave on the hill was explored, after which the party recrossed the Susquehanna and left for their home at five o'clock. On the way up the tow-path they were caught in a storm which had the effect of cooling them. At Sale Harbor the party separated. Those living in Lancaster and other places in that direction crossed the river and came directly home. The others followed the tow-path to Columbia. The trips taken by the bleycle riders of this city are very pleasant, and yesterday's was not an exception.

Claims That He Was Robbed of $11.

A telephone message was received at the station house this morning to send two offistreets. Officers Leman and Babel were sent there and the found four men, strangers in the custody of Officers Lewars and Beechler. The men were taken to the station house, where they gave the names of Edward Lee, John McGee, Hugh Ross and Edward Robinson. The officers state that the men went to the Fairmount hotel and asked for liquor, and when they were refused they became very insolent.

Lee stated when at the station house that he had been robbed by McGee and Ross of $11; that they were all working at Elizabethtown for the Pennsylvania railroad company and that the money was stolen from him in this city on Saturday night.
