Cheerful Outlook in the Senate. here are at present thirty-four Demood members of the party of Jefferson II be pleased to learn that there is little sibility of the diminution of that r in the next Senate. Twenty-five as expire on March 4 and fifty-one as hold over ; of this latter twenty-five Democrats, which is a good, solid s on which to build future expecta-

Of the twenty-five senators who retire. sixteen are Republicans and nine Demoats. The latter come from the states of laware, Florida, Maryland, Mississippi, ri, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia, and all are certainly Demomatic. The sixteen Republicans, however, re not so sure. Maine, Massachusetts, sota, Nebraska, Ohio, Rhode Island and Vermont, or seven in all, will nturn Republicans in all probability. This will make thirty-four sure Democrats and hirty-three sure Republicans in the next unted for.

Everything, therefore, depends upon the result of the legislative elections in the states of California, Connecticut, Indiana, Michigan, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Wiscorsin. Inans, alone of these, has a Democratic erislature, and Senator Harrison will be coeded by a Democrat. Michigan, Wisin and Pennsylvania are likely to rein at their Republican moorings. This leaves five to be struggled for. In Cornecut ex-Senator Barnum is carrying on an tive canvass with good chances of sucs. In New York the prestige of the ocratic state and national administrans,together with Prohibitionist activity. may give the legislature to the Democracy. In Nevada the biggest purse will win. In New Jersey and California the chances are about even.

It will thus be seen by what a narrow margin the Republicans retain control of the federal Senate. Any change in its composition by the legislative elections the welfare of the city at heart they deem it which I have, as a Democrat, for the continuance of wise councils in the administration of our government. The beneotracy, even in this remote region, is with the cry of "protection to home indus-try," and especially to Pennsylvania inter-much on sour kindness, please forward me my statistics (or any information that ony statistics (or any information that ony statistics (or any information that interference) and the tariff of '66, evenies, with the enemies of fair and equal existence. Was Mr. Grow in earnest then, or is he playing the role of the time-serving politiian now ?

CONGRESSMAN EVERHART, of the Sixth district, has consented to enter the field for re-election against Smedley Darlington. There will be some Republican fur flying efore long.

THE call for $15,000,000 of three per cent. bonds meets with the general approval of all practical financiers and was fully justified by the large surplus on hand in the treasury It cannot fail to have a most beneficial effect upon the business interests of the country. and the continuance of these calls will rapidly build up public confidence and, driving capital into active enterprises, inaugurate a new era of prosperity. The manage ment of the treasury during Secretary Mannig's illness has been such as to elicit the approval of even the enemies of the adminis tration, and his steady recovery gives assurance that with his resumption of the duties of his office at an early date, the financial affairs of the country will receive the attention of one of the clearest thinkers on mometary matters in the country. PROSE and poetry in these columns to day play hob with Whittier's beautiful legend of Barbara Frietchie, "

---MISS EDITH KINGDON, actress, has married Mr. George J. Gould, millionaire, and the gossips of New York, where wealth is worshiped most devoutly, are all agog over the event Miss Kingdon is an exceedingly beautiful woman, having in addition a fair share of the ability necessary to win her a high place in her protession and she has shown good taste in her effort to escape the prying curiosity of reporters, anxious for the details of her marriage. Jay Gould's son is a bright young man who gives evidence of having inherited a good portion of his father's business ability and as he is oo young to have fallen into the crooked ways of his father he is entitled to the good wishes of the public. This may be as well applied to the enterprising and audacious James G. Blaine, ir., who has taken matters into his own hands in most romantic style, but shown more good sense in the selection of his bride than is usual with the heroes of romance.

QUAY has stirred up an imaginary con troversy with Wolfe in order to introduce the allusion to his candidacy for United States senator.

THE pride of Venice, St. Mark's cathedral, s slowly but surely sinking into the mud of the lagoons. Water is often found on the floor of the crypt at high tide, the carth on which the church is built is being washed away and the foundations undermined. This is attributed to the recent use of steam launches in place of the silently gliding gondola.

As a result of a six weeks personal canvass, Mr. Blaine has lost twenty-seven per cent. of the votes his party commanded in Maine one year ago, has elienated the West and made the East weary of reading that " Mr. Blaine spoke as follows."

PROF. H igent man of color of Harrisburg, well known here and over the state, has announced himself candidate for the assembly. The young couple simply entered one of the par-tors of Mr. Goulo's residence, which had been decorated with flowers from the conservatories, and there, in the presence of their families, were married according to Loe ritual of the Presbyterian church.

It is next to certain, says the speaker, that the revenues of the current liscal year will exceed the expenditures, including interest on the pulle debt and $48,000,000 added to the sinking fund, by at least $55,000,000. Since 1868 Congress has appropriated for the construction, repair, armainent and equipment of vessels for the navy $75,000,000, an ment of vessels for the navy $75,000,000, an amount sufficient to have given us a respect-able navy of first-class vessels. But about $70,000,000 of that sum was wasted, and we have no navy. The present administration is now at work on the problem of repairing the deficiency. the Democracy.

A Gloomy Foreign News Budget. The French are becoming belligerent in he East Indies and a Paris paper hints that England is about to proclaim the exation of Egypt. England has esablished a coaling station in the .Egean ses, near the coast of Roumelia, and the three emperors have not yet settled the Bulgarian difficulty. Turkey appeals to England to delcare her intentions and the Russian minister to Vienna has left for Bolls, carrying with him an extensive knowledge of Austria's means of defense. The Asiatic cholera has gained a firm footing in Austria and is rapidly spread-

This is the melancholy budget of foreign news for to-day and is rendered more gloomy by the significant announcement that Emperor William, of Germany, was so unwell as to be unable to attend the military maneuvers near Strasburg. It is scally conceded that the aversion of the aged monarch to war has been the most powerful factor in preserving the peace of Europe, and when the crown prince, " Unser Fritz," mounts the throne he and the stern old chancellor will have a desperate time with a turbulent Reichsrath and foreign wars.

Cleveland's Pension Vetoes.

We notice in the report of the proceedings of several Republican state conventions fierce denunciations of President Cleveland's pension vetoes. They are couched in glittering language, that is all sound and fury, signifying nothing.

Despite the prating of these shallow Republican advocates, the country endorses the stand taken by the president against these disgraceful attempted raids on the treasury under the cover of patriotism. No chief magistrate ever had the courage to expose this fraud before, and the people teel that they owe the present occupant of the White House a debt of gratitude in his manly stand regarding it. If the Republican party proposes to make will cheerfully welcome it. The ammuon of the latter will consist simply in a ublication of the real facts of the pension plications. The Republicans will find it fient to manufacture a campaign argut out of the veto of a bill for the reof of a man with sore eyes, brought on by nic diarrhora which developed seven man after the patriot's desertion in 1864. Not the brave Union soldiers, but the belows who skulked in the rear when the lighting was going on are attempting to make capital out of the president's right-sous action.

Then and Now.

It is amusing to hear Galusha A. Grow now ringing the changes in the glory of the Resublican reliev of protection. His birth an policy of protection. His high ariff utterances now contrast very strange-ly with the sentiments expressed by him in this letter once sent to Hon. Robert J.

That race is a factor of considerable magnitude in state capital politics, and Mr. Day is an influential leader of it. A resolution adopted calls upon citizens, irrespective of party affiliations, to support him. This move may seat a Democratic legislator.
