dagon in your hand; For while I was quading, laughing in the tavers yesternight, From the unknown world an angel floated on iny swimming sight.

Handed me a golden vessel, bade me drink, and as I drank All my swooning senses straightway in the pool of slumber sank; And I dramed a dream enchanted of a land beyoud the sky Where no youthful cheek grows paler, where no flagon e'er runs dry.

Where no woman whiapers falsely, where no eyes are ever wet, Where no kleses ever weary, where no loving hearts forget. Then I woke and wept at waking, leaving in that pleasant land Fairer flowers than Mosellay has, bluer domes than Samarcand, Nevermore, unhappy afts, will you tread that

Though you suck the seven oceans from their cup of golden sand pleasant land. - Justin McCurthy.

The Needs of Ireland. From Pres. Fitzgerald's Reply to Parnell's

Appeal.

"Until recently the sad story of Ireland was only known to her sons. Now it is appearment in the minds of all Christendom.

Printings for non-payment. The fight is on. Evictions for non-payment of impossible rents have commenced. God's of impossible rents have commenced. God's creatures are being rendered homeless and turned out on the readside, but they shall not die the death planned for them by heartless tyrants. Therefore, appeal to every man and woman with blood coursing in their veins to aid in resisting this inhuman brutality. Let every branch of the League at once start an anti-eviction fund.

"Branches should be started in every town and village in the country; in workshops and on the railroads. Organization is necessary to resistorganized tyranny. State delegates should lose no time in organizing their several states while municipal councils and branch officers should be untiring in their efforts to increase the roll of membership.

Large Increase in Revenue Receipts. From the York Dispatch.

Thursday wound up the month's business of the York office of this internal revenue district. Collector Adam F. Geesey during the month of September made collections amounting to the large sum of $61,014.69, an increase over September, 1885, of $11,483.87. The collections for the past six months were $298,030.19, being an increase of $75,231.74 over the corresponding six months of last year.

Nothing more painful than a sprained ankle, which can be cured by St. Jacobs Oll.

The Mayor's Message.—May we be pardoned for requesting the mayor to incorporate in his next message the fact that many of our most prominent citizens have been circed of rheumatism, neurnigia and kindred complaints by Saivation Oil, and to recommend this valuable medicine. EXPERIENCE OF AN EXCHAMPION.

Athletics and men who take ordinary out-door exercise, such as walking, running, bicycle rid-ing, jumping, s wimning, tennis, etc., are often the subjects of acute troubles. The experience of an ex-champion walker will be of interest to all who are afflicted. Read the following letter: No 324 East 1971 St., New York, April 2, 1886. Numerous statements relative to the merits of different plasters having been brought to my different plasters having been brought to my attention, I take this opportunity to istate that I have used Alicock's Porous Plasters for for over 20 years, and prefer them to any other kind. I would furthermore state that I was very sick with catarrh of the kidneys, and attribute my recovery entirely to Alicock's Porous Plasters.

HARRY BROOKS.

Cheap and Inferior Porous Plasters will inevitably disappoint you, and are not worth even the few cents asked for them. Among the numerous porous plasters offered for sale Benson's Capcine Plasters alone merit implicit considence. They have won their great popularity with the people, and gained the voluntary endorsement of the medical profession, by their unequalled curative power, and by that only When purchasing be on your guard against worthless imitations under misleading names, such as "Capsicine," "Capsicine," "Capsicine," "Capsicine," "Capsicine," of the genuine. It is better to deal with none but reputable and honorable druggists. Ask for Benson's, and see that it bears the "Three Seals" trade mark and has the word Capcine cut in the centre. Chesp and Inferior Porous Plasters Miserable and sleepless nights are uffknown when Dr. Hand's Colle cure scottes baby to sleep without stupefying it with opium. Price, 25 cents. No gripting, Dr. HAND's Pleasant Physic never disturbs sleep nor operates till after breakfast. Price, 25 cents. For sale by H. S. Cochran, Drugist, No. 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa

By Not Be Deceived.

Hypocrisy is the compliment that vice pays to virtue. Imitation is the compliment failure pays to success. The name—not the character—of Benson's Capcine Pinsters is imitated by unscrupulous parties, who make and try to sell plasters variously called "Capcien," "Capsicum," "Capsicine," "Capucin" plasters, with the manifest intention to deceive. So cunningly and boldly is this done that careless people are doubtless sometimes begulfed into buying such articles in place of the genuine. Happily the number who follow this vocation decreases every year through the refusal of reputable dealers to handle the imitation goods, meanwhile be cautious. In the middle of the genuine is cut or peroused the word "Capcine, and on the face cloth is the "Three Scals" trademark. Ask for Beuson's—then examine. One Benson is worth a dozen of any other kind. (2) Do Not Be Deceived.

GRAND OPENING We doubt if there is, or can be, a specific remedy for rheumatism; but thousands who have suffered its pains have been greatly benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilia. If you have failed to find relief, try this great remedy.

"I was afflicted with rheumatism twenty years. Previous to 1881 I found no relief, but grew worse, and at one time was almost help-less. Hood's Sarsaparilia did me more good than all the other medicine I over had." H. T. Hatcox, Shirtey Village, Mass.

"I had rheumatism three years, and get no relief till I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has done great things for me. I recommend it to others."

MONDAY, OCTOBER

Hood's Sarsaparilla is characterized by three peculiarities: 1st, the combination of remedial agents; 2d, the proportion; 3d the process of securing the active medicinal qualities. The result is a medicine of unusual strength, effecting cures hitherto unknown. Send for book containing additional evidence.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla tones up my system, purifies my blood, sharpens my appetite, and seems to make me over."
