The Fair at the Rink.

The Christ church fair at the Lancaster rink is moving along finely. The attendance Monday evening was good and the sales large. To-night there will no doubt be a still larger ... On Wednesday evening the Liberty band of this city will be present and furnish choice music.

The Other Side.

On Saturday evening it was stated in this paper that a case of assault against Margaret Shindle had been dismissed by Alderman Spurrier. Mrs. Shindle states that she was innocent of the charges, was not before the alderman at any time and that the prosecutor paid the costs.

Amusements.

Mantell in "Tangled Lives."—On Thursday evening next Robert B. Mantell will present his play "Tangled Lives" in the opera house, and already many reserved seats have been sold. Mr. Mantell is an excellent actor, and his play among the best. The main idea of the plot is new to our stage, and deals with the marriage of New York and other states. The moral is pure and upholds the church ceremony of marriage. Last week Mr. Mantell drew large and enthusiastic audiences in Philadelphia.
