Robert B. Mantell, Under the Management of AUGUSTUS PITOU, in John W. Keller's New and Power ful Modern Society Drama, TANGLED LIVES!

"Relentiess fate that tangles up the lives of men and makes the innocent surfer with the guilty."—Act IV.

A play of strong human interest, illustrating society and bohemian life in New York. The main idea of the piot is new to our stage, and leads with the marriage law of New York and other states. The moral is pure and uphoids the church ceremony of marriage. The story is intensely interesting. The situations are strong and manual. A good velu of comedy releves the emotional scenes and dramatic climaxes. A play of this epoch, its teachings will benefit every man and woman of the nineteenth century. tury:
