With its odor for days.
-From the Reading Herald. Manufacturing Meadows.

From the Country Gentleman.

There is no department of farming which is performed in a more imperfect manner generally in the United States, than in the preparation and seeding to grass. Meadows do not yield more than half as much hay generally as they might under the best preparation, and pastures afford a correspondingly reduced amount of grazing. One reason for this imperfect result is final grass land, and the preparation for seeding it, take a second chance in the succession of crops. The seed is sown with some grain crop, and the young grass has to take its chance. The amount of seed sown, and the imperfect treatment which it gets, result in a thin growth, and in plenty of small bare spots over the field.

The seeds of the grasses are many times smaller than those of wheat and corn, and the soil which is to receive them should be in a fine state of pulverization, and not made up of lumps and clods. The surface should be even and uniform, so that the seed may be lightly and evenly buried. Careful and measured experiments have shown that fine grass seed will not come up if covered much over half an inch deep, and clover seed should never be more than an inch. It will not answer, therefore, to sow these minute experiments and prepared grants. preparation and seeding to grass. Meadow over half an inch deep, and clover seed should never be more than an inch. It will not answer, therefore, to sow these minute seeds on rough and furrowed ground. Whether the seeding is done alone, or with some grain crop, it it vitally important that this finished preparation should be attended to. A top-dressing of fine manure, in either case, will greatly assist in the germinating of the seed, and in the rapid growth of the young grass after it has come up.

Grass, unlike Indian corn, will bear thick sowing and dense growth. The quantity of seed usually used is much too smail, and the bare spots seen in new meadows are the result. But a moderate sowing, on a well prepared surface, will give a more compact growth of grass than a bushel to the acre on a field of dry clods. The heaviest crop of hay which we ever succeeded in raising the first year was from a seeding of clover and timothy at the rate of half a bushel per acre on a fine and well prepared surface early in spring and alone, the seed being covered with a light brush.

The Care of Horses. From the Orange County Farmer.

The transition from the moderate weather of the tall months to that of winter, imposes i much larger amount of care upon the farmer in looking after the comfort of his flocks. Of these the horse is more likely to be affected by alternate changes from heat and cold, than by alternate changes from heat and cold, than almost any other animal. He is driven in all kinds of weather, and often left hitched, exposed to wind and rain without shelter for long periods. A warm stable, a good bed, and a comfortable blanket are among the most important requisites next to regular feeding, to secure good health to that most faithful, but most abused horse. We only know the true value of his services when he is lamed or becomes sick from overwork or is lamed or becomes sick from overwork or neglect. We bespeak good care for the

Danger Ahead:

Mr. George Dodge Speaks. This gentleman lives in Emporium, Pa., and says, "One of my men, Sam Lewis, while working in the woods sprained his ankie so had he could bardly hobble to the house. Used Thomas' Eclectric Oil and was ready for work the next morning. I have never yet seen so good a medicine." For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

"I am a Raptist minister, and before I ever thought of being a clergyman I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative practice for my present profession, forty years ago. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy. Thomas' Eelectric Oil cured ne. I was also troubled with hoarseness, and Thomas' Eelectric Oil aways relieved me. My wife and child had diphtheria, and Thomas' Eelectric Oil cured them, and if taken in time it will cure seven times out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most obstinate coil, or cough, and if any one will take a small tenspoon and haif fill it with the Oil, and then place the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon into the head, by saniffing as hard as they can, until the Oil fails over into the threat, and practice it twice a week, I don't care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their catarth. For deafness and carache, it has done wonders to my certain knowledge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent medicine that I have ever felt like recommending, and I am very anxious to see it in every place, for I tell you that I would not be without it in my house for any consideration. I am now suffering with a pain like rhounatism in my right limb, and nothing relieves me like Thomas' Eelectric Oil." Dr. E. F. Crane, Corry, Pa.

Tried in the Crucible

About twenty years ago I discovered a little sere on my cheek, and the dector pronounced ancer. I have tried a number of physicians, but without receiving any permanent beneit cancer. I have tried a number of physicians, but without receiving any permanent benefit. Among the number were one of two specialists. The medicine they applied was like fire to the sore, causing intense pain. I saw a statement in the papers telling what 8. 8. had done for others similarly afflicted. I produced some at once. Before I had used the second bottle the neighbors could notice that my cancer was healing up. My general health had been bad for two or three years—I had a hacking cough and spit blood continually. I had a severe pain in my breast. After taking six bottles of 8. 8. 8. my cough left me and I grew stouter than I had been for several years. My cancer has healed over all but a little spot about the size of a half dime, and it is rapidly disappearing. I would advise everyon with cancer to give S. S. S. a fair trial. MRS. NANCY J. Catatrib is a very prevalent disease, with dis-treasing and offensive sympsoms.
