AND THE NEW PIRM OF

Joseph L. Rau & Co.

We have come into your midst with the full and sincere conviction that an institution such as we propose to establish would fill an unoccupied field and supply a long felt want in this progressive city.

Let these facts then be clearly understood : This shall be a store for the sale of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Wearing Apparel.

We mean to stay with you permanently, because we intend to make ourselves very useful to your comfort, your happiness and your pocket-book.

Our garments shall invariably be the BEST IN ALL RESPECTS, representing the production of first-class American manufacturers. Under no circumstances will misrepresentation be permitted; guaran-

Our prices are fixed firm as a rock, from which there will be no deviation-the millionaire and the mechanic shall buy here under equal advan-

Garments which are not entirely satisfactory will be cheerfully exchanged. We have resolved to make this a THOROUGHLY POPULAR STORE which shall and must at all times fully deserve your unbounded confidence.
