Lancaster Rink.—This evening the Liberty band will be at this rink and play some of their finest selections, including the "Mikado," "Brudder Gardner's Piente" and the "Forge in the Forest."

The Tulmage Lecture.—To morrow evening Rev. DeWitt Talmage, the great preacher, will lecture in Fulton opera house. His subject will be "The Bright Side of Things," and the indications point to a large audience. He lectured in Harrisburg several evenings ago to a crowded house, and he is so widely known that little need be said by way of an introduction to the Lancaster people. The reserved seat chart is at Fon Dersmith's book store.

John A. McCaull's superb company, and it is safe to say that a better or more thoroughly drilled organization has never essayed comic opera in this city. Every mem-ber of the company was a star, and each number was given with a zest that showed how thoroughly intelligence and art united their force in bringing about the happy results achieved.
On Monday evening the company was in Wilkes barre, and the papers of that town speak in term just as highly of them.
