Death of Jacob Clair.

Jacob C. Clair, a resident of Columbia, died at his home, on South Front street, at 12:45 o'clock this morning, in the 72d year of his age. The death was due to general debility, the deceased being sick for a long time. Mr. Clair was the father of B. F. Clair, of town, and S. S. Clair, agent for the Pennsylvania railroad at Middletown. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Town Briefs.

The local lodge of the Brotherhood of Railroad Brakemen will hold a ball in the rink this evening, which will be a very fine affair.

The regular monthly meeting of the school board will be held in the council chamber this evening.

John T. Richards has left town for New York, where he will attend the annual convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

The colored folks will hold their jubilee to-day and will conclude the affair with a cake and ring walk in the armory this evening.

Rev. H. B. Jackson, pastor of the colored Baptist church, is going about town on a collecting tour for his church.

"Ranch 10" will be presented in the opera house on Tuesday evening, October 26th, by an excellent company.

A well dressed stranger has been in town for the past few days conducting himself in a manner that should receive punishment. The fellow makes a practice of taking young girls by the arm as he meets them on the street.

Ducks were very plenty on the river this morning, and a number of gunners were enjoying the sport.

Mrs. Margaret McEnnis left town for Louisville, Ky., after a extended visit to her mother in Columbia.

Sale of Johnny H.

S. E. Baily yesterday sold his trotting horse Johnny H. to a gentleman named Russel, who resides in Baltimore. The horse was shipped to Baltimore after the Belair races and he has been there since. Mr. Russel purchased the animal to match another and he will drive them double to light wagons. The terms of the sale are private.

A Soldier Laid to Rest.

The funeral of Samuel Manrer, formerly a member of Co. I, 122d Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. The body was intered in the soldiers' burial lot in Lancaster cemetery, Bishop Kohr, of the Mennonite church, officiating, the soldier's burial service being conducted by Dr. J. A. E. Reed, of Post 84, and Chaplain A. C. Leonard, of Post 405, G. A. R.

The Score Corrected.

In the notice of the Schuetzen Verein's star shooting in last evening's issue, typographical errors occurred, viz.: Mr. John T. Knapp's score of stars should have read 2, 9, 13, 23, 24 and 30, instead of 29.

Mr. Geo. Kircher was not awarded the medal, as he did not shoot six stars; only four. Mr. Knapp hit the six stars.

An Engine Strikes a Cow.

Fast Line due here at 2 o'clock was a half hour late this afternoon. The engine struck a cow down the road somewhere, causing the delay. There was no damage to the train but the cow was killed.

Returned to Court.

Alderman Fordney to-day rendered decision in the cases against Charles A. Reece, charged with disposing of his good, with intent to defraud his creditors. The cases were returned to court and Mr. Reece entered bail for his appearance.

Thumb Cut Off.

Willie Coyle, a boy employed in W. P. Cumming's pattern shop on Cherry alley, while working with a chisel on Wednesday afternoon cut off the end of one of his thumbs. Dr. H. F. Eberman dressed the injury.

Shooting Match in Lebanon County.

A shooting match will be held at Campbellstown, Lebanon county, next week. It will continue over Thursday and Friday, and a number of Lancaster gunners are expected to participate.

A Colored Jubilee.

Quite a number of colored people left this city this afternoon for Columbia to attend an emancipation jubilee which is taking place there to-day.

Property Withdrawn.

The dwelling house of John F. Echternacht on East Orange street, offered at public sale on Wednesday evening, was withdrawn for want of bidders.

The Mayor's Court.

The mayor disposed of two drunks and two lodgers this morning. All were discharged.

Amusements.

To-morrow Evening's Show.—To-morrow evening Harrigan's Double Hibernia company will appear in the opera house, in the comedy entitled "The Two Barneys." The troupe includes eight rollicking Irish comedians, and two of the greatest pipers in the country. The street parade by the band, in which is seen an Irish jaunting car, is a strong feature of the show.

Ranch "10" Coming.—On Saturday evening this well-known drama will be presented at the opera house by a strong company. The piece has been seen here several times and it always gave the greatest satisfaction.

MARRIAGES.

OAK HALL.

WIRE TWIST, $11.00 AND STYLISH.

The cloth that we name "Wire Twist" is a special quality and bearing its name because of unusual strength. It is woven with double and twisted all wool thread in warp and woof.

The fabric is Cheviot-faced—Cheviots are returning to public favor very strongly, and the Oak Hall stock is replete with these "Wire Twist" goods, which are of superior quality and excellent in wear.

Suits of it are cut in several shapes. A very stylish coat is single breasted, straight front, square corner, very nobby, in sizes for men, young men and boys.

The prices are very low and this goods will be popular.

Men's Suits, $14; Young Men's, $13; Boys', $10.
