Resy Democratic Prospects.

Democracy of the state have good to thank Chairman Cooper, of the on, for putting into play the happy nght of bringing Blaine into the state ive the courage of his drooping fols. It has been everywhere commented that Blaine's presence has done more ring about Democratic harmony than ng else that could have been con. ed. It has drawn the Democratic hosts o full battle array, and they are awaitthe onset, ready to respond to the call of duty with cheerful alacrity. Blaine's ce has taught them that behind lowyer lurks the presidential shadow of the from Maine, and all differences on nts of party policy have been forgotten the call to arms against the common

All in all, the Democratic skies are ght with promise and they grow brighter as election dawn draws near.

The Cost of Gas.

Before Philadelphia gets through with he propositions of the gas companies us to serve her with gas, her people will be likely to know something about the al cost of gas and may be able to get it in future at a fair cost. Philadelphia is well situated to obtain cheap illumisting gas since she owns not only the sanufacturing works but the monopoly of the supply, Nearly every other city has given away to private cortions the privilege of supplying ga to the citizens and it has been a very profitable business. Philadelphia has freely given away all the valuable privileges she possessed except the gas and water supply.

Latta's could, we think, be readily im Commenting on Mr. Blaine's assertion that colored laborers of Chattanooga only made sixty or seventy cents a day the Doily Times of that city says that by care-
