The colored folks of town had a big time, esterday, in the celebration of their eman-pation jubilee. A parade was held in the racon, which passed through a number of the streets, headed by the colored bane of Lancaster. In the parade was a large hay wagon, containing a number of girls all dress-cdin white representing the states of the Union with the Goddess of Liberty. The parade ended at the ball grounds where an ex roast was held. In the evening a cake walk was held at the armory, which was full of people. Before the walk took place speeches were made by Messrs. Simpson and Howard, of Barrisburg, which were very good, containing excellent advice for the colored race. The walk brought out about thirty couples, and the judges awarded the cake to Pikey Brown and lady, of Wrightsville. This ended the jubilee, which was a successful effair.

Jacob Griel's Foneral The mortal remains of Jacob Griel were this morning laid to rest in Lancaster cemelery. The funeral was private, only the relalives and a few very intimate friends attending, but so large was the kinship of Mr. Griel that fitteen coaches were required to accommodate them. Funeral services were held at the house at 10:20 conducted by Rev. J. R. T. Gray, of the Duke street M. E. church and Rev. C. Eivin Houpt, of Grace Lutheran church. Rev. Gray read a scripture lesson, as did also Rev. Houpt. Rev. Gray followed with an impressive discourse, his topic being that life is but a vapor. Rev. Houpt followed in address of some length. At the close of these services the funeral train moved to Lancaster cemetery, where the concluding service was conducted by Rev. Houpt.

The pail-bearers were Max. Deichler, Frederick Kinsier, D. G. Baker, John K. Stoner, tives and a few very intimate friends attend-
