SHORT-LIVED MOVEMENT.

...D CLOSING ON SUNDAY OF COLUMBIA CIGAR STORES.

Agreement is Violated by Some and ... Puts in Pisons—The Borough Real Estate Market—Personal Mention—Recent Notes About Town.

Regular Correspondence of INTELLIGENCER.

COLUMBIA, Oct. 25.—Through the efforts of the Columbia Ministerial association the cigar stores of town remained closed on Sunday, with very few exceptions. The proprietors of these stores had signed an agreement not to sell cigars or tobacco on Sundays, but one or two signers did not carry out the agreement and disposed of their stock, to all who desired to purchase on this day. These cigar stores remaining open was a loss of trade to the stores living up to the agreement and the movement was not a success. When the proprietors of the stores found out that the Sunday closing movement was not faithfully carried out they started to re-open their places of business. On Sunday very few cigar stores remained closed, thus bringing the Sunday closing movement of the cigar stores to an early termination.

Personal Mention.

S. B. Clepper, senior vice commander of General Welsh post, will go to Mount Joy this evening, to inspect post, No. 478, of that place.

Messrs. Wm. J. Strickler, Wm. A. Kepner, Peter Hoffman and Lafayette Fridy have returned home from a successful gunning trip among the mountains of Juniata and Perry counties.

L. W. Richards of Thurlow, Pa., spent Sunday with his parents in town.

Had His Fingers Hurt.

Milton Westerman, a young son of John Westerman, living on Cherry street, was on the farm of Ephraim Kline on Sunday where he commenced playing with a cider press. The boy had his fingers of his right hand caught in the cog wheels, which resulted in nails being torn from two fingers.

The Funeral of D. C. Wann.

The funeral of the late Daniel C. Wann took place on last Saturday afternoon from his residence, corner Front and Perry street, and was largely attended. The Artisans Order of Mutual Protection attended the funeral of their late member in a body. The school board and teachers of the public schools were also present.

Town Notes.

Harrigan's Tourist company appeared in the opera house on last Saturday to a very large audience. The performance was disappointing. The band and orchestra were excellent.

Preparations are being made by J. H. Mifflin for the erection of a number of houses at Tenth and Chestnut streets.

Henry Wheelen, who met with the terrible fall on last Friday at the United Brethren church, shows improvement in his condition this morning. The injuries will not result in any serious manner.

Engine No. 234, of the Pennsylvania railroad, has been turned out of the Columbia shops after extensive repairs, and has been given a trial trip.

On Tuesday evening "Ranch 10" will be presented in the opera house by an excellent company. The play is deserving of a good audience.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Keesey celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage, at their home on Lawrence street, last Saturday night. A very large number of friends were present, and the time was spent in a pleasant way.

WANTED HIS WIFE AND CHILD.

His Father-in-Law Answers That He Was Not Their Custodian.

Judge Livingston this afternoon heard the application of George Risser, who alleged that his wife and child were prevented from living with him by John K. Nissley, his father-in-law. Mr. Nissley filed an answer under oath that Risser's wife and child were not under his control and direction when the writ of habeas corpus was served on him. Risser's counsel traversed the truth of the answer and put Mr. Nissley on the witness stand and examined him at length. He testified that his daughter, Mrs. Risser, on Wednesday last asked him to take her to a friend's house, some miles distant, because she feared her husband wanted to get the custody of her child, and he took her to the house of Rev. David Brubaker, since whom time he has not seen her. The court under the testimony dismissed the writ. Risser will probably make another effort to get his wife and child.

Held to Bail to Answer.

Newton Jackson, charged with committing an assault and battery on John G. Kensil, had a hearing before Alderman Spurrier this afternoon and was held in bail to answer at court. The parties are employed in the round-house at Columbia, and there has been bad blood between them for several months past.

Sudden Death.

Mrs. Fanny Kapp, a widow, residing at Elizabethtown, died suddenly on Sunday. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of death.

Amusements.

Miss Louise Arnot Tonight.—This evening Louise Arnot opens in the opera house for a week, and the indications are that she will do a large business. She is an excellent actress and has often before pleased large audiences. This evening "The Hidden Hand" will be plated, to be followed to-morrow evening by "Miles." On Thursday evening the star appears in the character of Leah, in which she has made such a wonderful success.
