A number of friends of Miss Bertie Haldeman assembled at her home on North Sixth sirest, in honor of her birthday. The evening was spent in an enjoyable manner to all present.

Duck shooting was very good this morning, and the river was full of boats containing the men who enjoy this sport. Good luck attended the sportsmen.

From the present outlook, Arbor Day, which occurs to morrow, will not be celebrated in any general manner by the people of town.

Although the campaign is rapidly drawing to a close, there has not been any meetings held in town, except those by the frohibition party.

To Answer for Forgery.

William, alias "Snicker" McMullen, ar-sated some time ago for forgery, but whose see was postponed from time to time expectation that his friends would come to his relief and fix things up was taken before Alderman Deen this morning. The testimony was substantially as it has heretofore been published: Everts & Overdeer, of this city, had some men at work in Marietta; they boarded at the hotel of Amos Stapleford; McMullen, who was coming to Lancaster, got Stapleford to give him a bill for the board of the men, $28.55; McMullen took the bill to Everts & Overdeer and they paid it by check drawn in favor of Stapleford. McMullen took the check to bank to have it cashed; the bank said it must first be endorsed by Stapleford; McMullen went off, and in a short time returned with the name of Stapleford endorsed on the check. Subsequently the name was shown to be a forgery, and McMullen appropriated the money to his own use.

Alderman Deen committed McMullen to answer at court. to his relief and fix things up
