MATRON OF THE MANY COLORED ROBE.

Divinest Autumn! who may paint thee best,
Forever changeful o'er the changeful globe?
Who guess thy certain crown, thy favorite crest,
The fashion of thy many colored robe?
Sometimes we see thee stretched upon the ground,
In fading woods where acorns patter fast,
Dropping to feed thy tusky boars around,
Crunching among the leaves the ripened mast.
Sometimes at work where ancient granary floors
Are open wide, a thresher stout and hale,
Whitened with chaff up wafted from thy flail,
While south winds sweep along the dusty floors,
And sometimes fast asleep at noontide hours,
Pillowed on sheaves, and shaded from the heat,
With plenty at thy feet,
Reading a coronet of eaten straw and flowers.

Oranges Sold on the Tree.

From the Jacksonville (Fla.) Times-Union.

From information received from a gentleman who has just returned from Sumter and Hernando counties we learn that a large number of sales of oranges on the trees have been made to Northern parties, who have come to the state for this purpose. In Sumter the sales, as known, amounted to 40,000 boxes at $1.50 a box. This is a gratifying beginning and a great relief to grove owners, who have been borrowing money at varying rates of interest, mostly at high rates. The effect will be felt at once in a more hopeful feeling among orange growers, in the increased circulation of money, in the paying off of mortgages and current obligations, and, best of all, in increased confidence in orange growing. The sales of land, which have been somewhat sluggish since our January freeze, will be somewhat larger and higher prices may be looked for. Again, the selling of fruit on the trees is the safest and most profitable method of handling our orange crop. The growers avoid dishonest commission merchants and the fruit is more carefully packed and more judiciously distributed. If all our crop could be sold in the same way Florida would boom as never before. With choice orange land in Florida convenient to railroads selling at from $10 to $50 per acre, while California orange land sells from $200 to $600 per acre, the advantages offered by Florida are at once seen. Provide us with a market for fruit on trees and Florida can easily distance all competition.

Domestic Dairying.

From the Germantown Telegraph.

The organization of creamery associations and the erection of cheese factories which are becoming so common at the present day, is likely to exert such an influence that in a short time the making of domestic butter and cheese will be classed among the "lost arts."

The wives and daughters of farmers of the present day know comparatively little of the real home duties of farmer's wives of a century ago. The carding, spinning and weaving of those days are now past and forgotten, and following rapidly after is the practice of setting and skimming the milk, churning the cream by hand-power, working, salting and preparing for market, or setting the curd and performing the various manipulations necessary in the making and tending to cheese.

By modern process what required the labor of all the females of the neighborhood for many hours each day is now performed in a comparatively short time, and there is no very good reason why the labor of women should not be lessened by machinery as well as that of the man, so long as it can be done as successfully as is being done at the present day. All of which points to agricultural advancement.

Fencing for Poultry.

From the Germantown Telegraph.

When poultry yards were constructed of wooden fencing, as provided in olden times, farmers paid but little attention to yarding their fowls, and the general complaint was, that the injury done to the garden and to crops within range of travel of the fowls was greater than all the profit derived from them. Now, however, times have changed, and the galvanized wire fencing that is now abundant, supplies all the requirements in the way of fencing for poultry. The posts at the corner should be firm and securely braced so as to hold the fence in position, but all intermediate supports may be very light. To prevent the hens from flying over the fence, that need be no more than four feet in height, two very light curves may be stretched above the fence about three or four inches apart and the hens striking these as they attempt to pass over the fence are thrown back and seldom make more than three or four attempts. The fence is light and is no obstruction to the sun in winter, or to the breezes of summer, and is being largely employed for such purposes.

"O, It Was Pitiful."

Of course it was. He tried one remedy after another, and finally gave up and died, when his life might have been saved by taking Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery"—the great "Consumptive Cure"—which, if promptly employed, will soon subdue all threatening symptoms, such as coughs, labored breathing, night sweats, spitting of blood, etc., and restoring waning strength and hope, effectually stop the poor consumptive's rapid progress graveward. Is it not worth trying? All druggists.

This age presents the greatest boon, Salvation Oil; it cures so soon.

When Christmas came with its good cheer, its fun, and its merry-making, we used to deprecate its colds, but that was long ago, before the days of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Now it is very different. A new era has dawned on us, and great and small, little and tall, merry men all, are happy.

That great conqueror of pain, St. Jacobs Oil, has been rightly called a medical miracle.

THE ONLY MEDICINE CHEST.

DEER LODGE, MONTANA, Dec. 16, 1885.

I have been using BRANDRETH'S PILLS for the last thirteen years, and though I have had nine children, I have never had a doctor in the house, except three times, when we had an epidemic of scarlet fever, which we soon banished by a vigorous use of BRANDRETH'S PILLS. I have used them for myself, two or three a night for a month, for liver complaint, dyspepsia and constipation. In diarrhœa, cramps, wind colic, indigestion, one or two BRANDRETH PILLS fixed the children at once. A box of Pills is all the medicine chest we require in the house. We use them for rheumatism, colds, catarrh, biliousness and impure blood. They never have failed to cure all the above complaints in a very few days. WILLIAM D. MILLER.

Miserable and sleepless nights are unknown when DR. HAND'S Colic cure soothes baby to sleep without stupefying it with opium. Price, 25 cents.

No griping. DR. HAND'S Pleasant Physic never disturbs sleep nor operates till after breakfast. Price, 25 cents.

CLOTHING.

The Man Who Talks Much.

We want to say a word to you who make a living with your tongue. You certainly must have a clear, strong voice to engage your listeners. "Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil" for sore throat, colds, and hoarseness is unexcelled. Use and admire. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

"Fire Him Out."

This is a common remark when coughs and rowdys insult public decency by their unseemly ways. Dyspepsia is a horrid bore. Fire it out with Burdock Blood Bitters. You can do it. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Let Truth Prevail.

Let the facts be known. Let us understand that a boil, or a ulcer, or a carbuncle, or any eruption or blemish of the skin is sure to wear away and disappear when "Burdock Blood Bitters" are employed. This wonderful medicine acts directly upon the circulation and the reasons for its use are therefore obvious. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Its Equal Yet to Hear From

The movements of a mule's hind legs are very variable and uncertain, but Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil trikes but one course—it heals and cures. Its equal for asthma, diphtheria, catarrh, cold and sore throat has never yet been said. For sale by H.B.Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

First Revived and Then Cured.

"Was troubled for a year with torpid liver and indigestion, and after trying everything imaginable used Burdock Blood Bitters. The first bottle revived me and the second cured me entirely. J. S. Williamson, Rochester, N. Y. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

An Explanation.

No one medicine will cure everything, but it is an incontestible fact that Thomas' Eclectric Oil will cure a sprain, a bruise, a bite, or an ache, and is also an active and pronounced cure for neuralgia and rheumatism. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

ONE BOTTLE EFFECTS A CURE.—MR. OSCAR E. B. Koch, of Allentown, Pa., was bedfast with inflammatory rheumatism in the winter of 1883. Doctors could do nothing to relieve him. He commenced using Gross' Rheumatic Remedy. By the time he had used half a bottle he could leave his bed; when he had finished the bottle he was cured and has not had a return of the disease since. In his own words, "I feel better than ever before." Price $1, by all druggists.

CHINA.

The Second Invoice of our Haviland China importations for this fall has just arrived. The first consisted of Dinner Sets in the Regina Pattern, Daisy Decoration in Blue, Violet and Pink. The finest and neatest for the money in the market. Haviland China is so well known that we need not say anything about the quality. Its superiority over semi-porcelain is not to be questioned. The price of these dinner sets is such that it is within the reach of every one to own one of them. When our next arrives we will be able to come still nearer within the reach of all in price. Don't fail to see these goods before making your purchases.
