DEATH OF JACOB WEITZEL. The Oldest Member of the Lecal Order of

Jacob Weitzel, tin and coppersmith, died this morning at half-past one o'clock at his oce, No. 17 West German street, in the tive of this city, as was his father before him. He learned the trade of coppersmithing with on Getz in the frame shop in rear of Dr. nius' residence, on South Queen , near Vine, and carried on busithere up to the time of his death. When Mr. Weitzel was an apprentice Lancaster was full of distilleries, and the copper stills used by them furnished a large part of the coppersmith's trade; but when beer took the place of whisky as a beverage the trade declined and Mr. Weitzel learned tinsmithing and plumbing and continued the business till the time of his death. He was an industrious work was and an excellent. an industrious workman and an excellent mechanic, and did most of the tin work used in the cotton factories.

Mr. Weitzel had been in failing health for

Mr. Weitzei had been in failing health for a year or two past, and on Monday last in attempting to move a statue in the American Mechanics' hall he sustained a rupture which no doubt hastened his death.

He leaves a wife and four children, three sons and one daughter. His wife to whom he was married almost fifty years, was Rebecca Finkbine, of Chester county. His children are George F., carpenter, who with his family lives in Oberlin county, Kansas; Irwin K., who lives in Washington territory; wm. Harrison, carpenter, this city, and Rebecce, wife of J. B. Mitchell, of Spring City, the wester county.

Chester county.

Mr. Weitzel was in all respects an upright, because man; a member of Trinity Lutheran church from his youth up; an active member of the People's Building and Loan association and of several other business and beneficial organizations.

But it is as an American Mechanic that he er of Inland City Council No. 123, O.U. A. M. a 1851, and remained a member until 1861, heu he withdrew, and became a member. of Conestoga council No. 8. He held every experiant office in the council, knew every word of the ritual, and was regarded as the t exponent in this city, of the un-lition work of the order. He fre-muty visited every council in the laty and some in other counties to give county visited every council in the country and some in other countries to give instruction to officers and members. He saved as a representative from No. 8 to the state council of Pennsylvania for four or five terms, and was district deputy of the state council for Lancaster country a number of years, and at the time of his death held the office of examiner in No. 8. Not many in the office was more widely known or more nighty respected than Mr. Weitzel. He was one of the very oldest members of the order in Lancaster, and was looked up to as an authority in all doubtful constructions of the constitution. The Junior Order of American Machanics esteemed him so highly that they slected him an honorary member, as if also Washington Camp, No. 27. Patriotic Order Sons of America. Mr. Weitzel took great interest in the boys and young men and was an active worker in inducing them to join the order of Mechanics.

By Katleg a Lot of Glass.
Hattie Wilson, a rather a ell-known woman of this city, was committed to prison on last Tuesday, for 60 days by Mayor Morton, for being drunk and disorderly. Hattie thought this was a rather severe sentence and she declared that she would not remain that long. Criday she made a desperate attempt to take her life. Molasses had been given to her in a glass jar from which she broke a piece, pounded it up fine and then swallowed it. She was soon afterwards taken with terrible pains, and she informed the prison officials what she had done. Dr. Robrer, the prison physician, was sent for, and he gave the woman an emetic which had the desired effect. To-day she appears to be all right, and the prospects for her finishing the sentence are very fine. Hattle was first sent to jail when the Ingram family of Lemon street was sent to jail, and since that she has been arrested several times. clared that she would not remain that long.

Why Black Will Be Esected, From the Philadelphia Times.

It is manifest to all intelligent and dispassionate observers, that the tide of battle has been drifting toward Black during the last two weeks, and the only problem that profoundly concerns the friends of Beaver, is whether the Black tide will be strong enough to make his majority in the state overbalance Beaver's majority in this city. The Republicans yet claim 20,000 for Beaver in Philadelphia and 10,000 outside of the city, but they are not assured of these figures, especially in the state. On the other hand the Democrats claim from 20,000 to 25,000 for Black in the claim from 20,000 to 25,000 for Black in the state and concede 15,000, or, at the most, 20,000 to Beaver in the city. All information from the Western counties indicates a very heavy vote for Black. If the strong Demo-cratic counties in the East shall maintain themselves, Black will bring to Philadelphia a decided majority over Beaver; and the drift in this city of the elements which are the chief factors in the contest, has been to

The Louise Arnot Company

Friday evening the Louise Arnot company had a large audience and they successfully presented "The Two Orphans." Miss Arnot assumed the character of Henrichte, with Miss Camilla D. Elmer as Louise, Walter Owens as the Chevalier, W. J. Humphrey as Pierre and D. Whipple in Jacques, This afternoon "The Little Detective" was played and this evening the company closes their engagement with "Fun on the Potomao." In this funny piece Miss Arnot plays the part of Widow O'Brien in capital style.

An Epidemic of Typhoid Fever. rom the New Holland Clarion.

Typhoid fever seems to be prevailing to an alarming extent in the eastern end of the county. Not only has it become an epidemic at many places like at the Sorrei Horse, in East Earl township, but there are many iso-lated cases of great suffering and privations. We know of one place where four are down with the fever and no help or nurse to min-ister to the wants of the sick; also of another where the young man and the father of the household were both afficied. The son died for want of proper attention, and when the neighbors were apprised of the true facts they were horrified at the situation.

Rioters Heard and Disposed of Alderman Spurrier on Friday evening heard the young men who were charged with rioting on South Queen street, on Saturday night two weeks ago, Jacob Witch, Jr., David Peterman, John Tshudy and Charles Pickle were held for trial and Alexander Leibsley, Howard Miller, Christian Shroad, William Young and Howard Hiltz were discharged.

Harry Diehl's Funeral The funeral of Harry Diehl took place this morning from his mother's residence on Highstreet. It was attended by Miss Finger's school, where he was a pupit. The school contributed a very bandsome floral school contributed a very handsome horal tribute. The remains were taken to St. Jo-seph's Catholic church, where Father Gro-temyer celebrated a requiem mass. The in-terment was made at St. Joseph's cemetery.
