A Stolen Clock Found.

On the night of Wednesday, October 27th, the house of Christian Snyder, living on North Front street, was entered by the shutter being forced open, when a valuable clock was stolen. Later in the night, George Meisel, employed at the Pennsylvania roundhouse, came into the saloon of Joseph Schlegelmilch, on Locust street, with a clock in his possession. He said he had purchased it for $5, and was taking it home. When he arrived at his house, along the Washington turnpike, he told his wife he had purchased the clock on the installment plan. Snyder learned about the clock in Meisel's possession and entered suit against him before Squire Frank. A warrant was given to Officers Wittick and Hardnett, who found the clock at Meisel's house. The man was arrested on last Saturday, and given a hearing before Squire Frank. He was unable to tell how the clock came in his possession. In default of bail he was sent to jail for a trial at court.

Officer Haronett arrested Edward Drake, from Steelton, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Squire Frank sent him to jail for five days.

Officer Wittick arrested a tramp named Jesse Bounce on the same charge. Squire Evans gave him a like period in jail.

Missionary Meeting.

The young ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church held a meeting on last Saturday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a missionary society, which was accomplished by the election of following officers: president, Miss Emma Riehl; 1st vice president, Miss Mary Paine; 2d vice president, Miss Frances Cristy; 3d vice president, Miss Lillie S. Clark; recording secretary, Miss Josie Patton; corresponding secretary, Miss Lillie Stevenson; treasurer, Miss Annie M. Bruner. The society will be known by the "The Layton Auxiliary of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society." The next meeting will be held on next Saturday afternoon in the church parlors.

Town Notes.

The pay car of the Reading & Columbia arrived in town this morning and paid the employes for September.

The employes of Bachman & Forry's planing mill commenced the nine-hour system to constitute a day's work.

A four-months-old colt of Mr. John Fendrich had a leg broken during last night in the stable. It is supposed the mare trampled on it. The colt will have to be killed.

Arizona Joe, the scout, will appear in the opera house this evening.

All Hallow E'en was observed in town on last Saturday night by the younger portion in the usual manner of playing many practical pranks. On many streets steps were removed from houses, being carried several squares and then hung on hitching posts. Corn, flour, lamp-black, etc., was thrown at passers-by, and persons were fortunate in escaping from a quantity of these articles. Several wagons were taken apart and the several parts were hidden in as many different directions.

On Tuesday evening Pete F. Baker and company will present "Close and Lens" in the opera house.

The workers in the different wards are preparing for the election of to-morrow.

The Boys' Parade.

This evening the boys will hold their parade and they expect a big turnout. The line will form at 7 o'clock at the corner of North Queen street. One of the features of the parade will be a club of boys who will wear high hats.

The Manheim band will furnish the music. The boys who want their torches filled will be at Wendlitz's Chestnut street hotel at 6½ o'clock.

Following is the route of parade for to-night: Form on East Chestnut street, right resting on North Queen, to Lemon, to Prince, to Chestnut, to North Queen, to South Queen, to Middle, to Duke, to Low, to Rockland, to Middle, to East King, to Ann, countermarch to Shippen, to Orange, to Duke, to James, to Mulberry, to West Orange, to Mary, to West King, to Dorwart, to Manor, to West King, to Centre Square, and dismiss.

Sent to the House of Refuge.

Harry Wise, of Ephrata township, was before the judges of the court this afternoon on a charge of being incorrigible and beyond his mother's control. It was also shown that he was dishonest. The court thought him a fit subject for the House of Refuge and committed him to the House of Refuge.

Church Dedication.

The dedication services of the River Brethren church, three-fourths of a mile south of Mountville, were held on Sunday at 9 a. m., with imposing services. There was a large attendance. Revs. Simeon Graybill, John Breneman and others preached. Service will be held every four weeks.

William Irwin's Funeral.

The funeral of William Irwin, who died at the residence of L. H. Bachler, will take place to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. The body will be taken to Washington borough for interment.

Meeting of the Y. M. C. A.

The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian association will be held in their hall this evening at 8 o'clock.

Sale of Cows.

Samuel Hess sold on Saturday, October 30th, for H. C. Lintner, Millersville, 20 head of cows at an average price of $44.65 per head.

Pay Car Passed Through.

The pay train of the Reading railroad company passed through this city on the way to Quarryville this afternoon.

Amusements.

Corinne To-night.—This evening Corinne, the charming young prima donna, opens an engagement in the opera house when "Giroflé-Girofla" will be sung. She brings a large and strong company, which is very highly spoken of everywhere.
