Trying to Get Steel Works Here. Noticing that the J. R. Thompson see company, of Jersey City, contemplate moving their works to some point in central Pennsylvania, more favorably located than the town they now occupy, several citizens of Columbia are now in a correspondence with the above firm. The favorable location to the Pennsylvania, Reading & Columbia and other railroads were set forth in the letter to the above firm; also the shipping facilities to the southern also the shipping facilities to the southern markets, by means of the canals. They invited the sending of a representative of the firm to Columbia in order that the many points possessed by the town over other places could be shown.

Two Robbertes. J. W. F. Nowlen, of the firm of Wm. K. Nowien & Son, on Locust street, had two coats belonging to him stolen from the tailor ore during yesterday morning. He came to the store in the morning, placing his coat and overcoat on a pile of goods, and then went to the workroom upstairs. At noon Mr. Nowlen went for his coats, but found em missing, and is of the opinion that they bre stolen. An alarm gong is placed on a door, but this did not give any slarm of the door, but this did not give any slarm of the entrance of any person to the store. On Monday evening the house of Jacob S. Strine, on Cherry street, was entered by a tramp, and a vest and pair of pantaloons, belowing to Mr. Strine, were stolen. Mrs. Strine heard a door open but supposed it was one of the inmates, and no attention was paid. Yesterday a message was received from Marietta stating that a tramp was offering this clothing for sale in a saloon at that place. The parties in the saloon found a letter in the vest, addressed to Mr. Strine, by which they discovered the owner. A constable attempted to arrest the tramp, but he managed to escape from the cilicer. Mr. Strine has recovered his stolen ciothing. sie stolen ciothing.

Cale Jones, well-known in town, was sent to jail by Squire Evans, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, for three days.

A heating furnace was lighted up yesterday at the Columbia rolling mill. The furnace is used for heating old raits, etc., and is catled a "break down furnace." The one pudding furnace is still working and everything is romaing smoothly at the mill.

Officer Wittick arrested William Douahue, from York county, for being dent k in town. He paid his costs before Squire Frank.
