Explosion in a Cigar Box Factory.

An explosion occurred Thursday afternoon in the dust drum attached to the cigar box in the dust drum attached to the cigar box factory of Henry H. Sneip & Co., Philadel. phis, followed by a fire, in which Carrie Brunner, 27 years old, one of the female employes, lost her life, and fifteen other employes, male and female, were more or less severely burned, though their injuries are not considered dangerous. The loss on the building and contents is estimated at 15,600, covered by insurance. Toily's livery stable, adjoining, suffered the loss of three carriages and a number of sleighs, and Creswell's stable was damaged about $1,700. These losses are believed to be also insured.

He Paid the Claim. At the last term of the court of common pleas, a trover and conversion suit was tried, in which T. Elwood Zell was plaintiff, and Cristian Sharp was defendant. The subject of dispute was a set of encyclopedias, and the jury rendered a verdict against Sharp. The amount of the judgment was $33.78, and having neglected to pay the claim a ca. so, was issued and Sharp was arrested on Thursday afternoon by the sheriff. He had the opportunity of paying the claim and costs or going to jail. He paid the claim and that ended the matter for the present.

A Woman's Fight.

Thursday evening quite a racket occurred on West Miffin street near Water. The ants were Clara Maney on one side and "Cotty" Hoover and his wife on the other. The women first became engaged in the rumpus and hair was pulled, eyes scratched and heads punched. "Cotty" finally got into the combat. Before Alderman Spurrier Hoover and his wife have been held to answer at a hearing on Saturday evening the charge of assault and battery preferred by the Maney girl.
