Maggie Mitchell To-night.—This evening Maggie Mitchell makes her first appearance in Lancaster in "Maggie, the Midget," and she will no doubt draw largely, as the play has been received with great enthusiaem wherever it has been given. The newspapers everywhere speak well of it, and the ability of Miss Mitchell is well enough known to insure its success. Quite a large number of seats have been sold.

"A Night Oft."—To-morrow evening this sparking comedy will be given at the opera house by an excellent company. The piece is not strange to Lancaster, where it has before pleased large audiences. Everybody that enjoys a laugh should see the play.

One of Neat Week's Attractions—On next Monday a dramatic company will open a three night's engagement in this city, playing "Condemned to Death." The party includes Annie Louise Ames, R. J. Dillon, Charles Kent and others, and they play at popular prices.

Wenger, containing so ACBES, more or less. The MANSION HOUSE is a fine two-storied Dwelling, the Barn, lately improved, is as good as new, logsther with Tobacco shed and other outbuildings in good condition. The entire tract is divided into five fields, from each one of which the cattle have access to a stream of running water. There is a clatern at the barn and every convenience about the premises. Also a fine orchard of well selected fruits.

on Saturday, November 21, at 1 o'clock p m., the undersigned will also offer at public sale, on the respective premises, the following valuable real estate:

A two-storied BRICK DWELLING HOUSE, situated on the Philadelphia turnpine, east of the limits of Lancaster city, at the corner of Ranck's avenue, and adjoining Clark's Villa, recently erected and in first-rate condition. There is a good Barn on the premises and all the necessary outbuildings, with good water supply. The new proposed East King Street Railway will pass immediately in front of the premises. It is now occupied by Samuel Ranck.

Also two two-storied RRICK DWELLING HOUSES, situated on Ranck's avenue, adjoining the premises of Rohrer, the florist and opposite the above described dwelling house. The houses are new, well arranged with beautiful side lots and young fruit trees in healthful condition.

Also one of the largest FLOURING MILLS in posite the above described dwelling houses. The houses are new, well arranged with beautiful side lots and young fruit trees in healthful condition.

Also one of the largest FLOURING MILLS in the county of Lancaster, it stated about one mile east of the city of Lancaster, in Lancaster township, on the Conestowa creek. The mill is a four-storied BRICK BUILDING, with first-class machinery throughout and in good running order. The water power isone of the fluest that can be found in the state. There are about its ACRES of land connected with the mill, an elegant HOUSE and good flarn, spring of water, with sufficient Sheds, Wagon House, etc., and the premises have for many years been known as "Ranck's Mills."

Also, immediately opposite this mill, situated on the Conestoga creek, in the township of bast Lampeter, will be sold at the same time on the premises, by the undersigned, a tract of land, whereon is crected the old "Ranck's Mill," with tenement houses belonging thereto and whereon is crected a complete two-storied BRICK DWELLING HOUSE and Barn, both nearly new, and now occupied by Issac Kanek.
