A GAME SUPPER.

The Good Time That Was Had at Philip Wall' Green Tree Hotel. On Saturday night a game supper was given at Philip Wall's Green Tree hotel, on West King street. William Morrie, one of the representatives of Kuhlman & Rosenbaum, the well-known tobacco firm, spent ecasiderable time in Wisconsin last summer. Before he left for the East C. E. Shannon, who is a foreman for the firm in that state. who is a foreman for the firm in that state, and a well-known gunner, promised to send him a lot of game during the gunning season. Last week it arrived and consisted of canvas-back ducks, pheasants and rabbits. Mr. Wall-bad promised Mr. Morrin that he would serve up the game when it came, and on Sat-urday night he made his word good. Thirty or forty gentlemen partook of the supper. or forly gentlemen partook of the supper. Everything was gotten up in excellent style by Mr. Wall and his wile, who know well how to cook. In addition to the game there was an unlimited quantity of the best of sauer kraut. The guests nearly all had their appetites with them, and they did he many good things ample justice. The ducks were shot on Lake Koskanong, near Egerton, and they were very fine.

Is It Lavi Ebersole?

Some months ago Levi Ebersole was convicted in our court on a charge of burglary There was a number of charges against him in Labanon county and the authorities of that county asked for the privilege of trying Ebersole, after which he would be sent back for sentence. Before Ebersole's trial he made his escape from the Lebanon jail and has since been a lugitive from justice.
On Saturday night a man answering Eberaole's description was arrested at Ephrata and taken to Lebanon for identification.
Nothing has yet been heard from Lebanon as to whether he is the man wanted by the Lebanon authorities.

A Small Rattroad Wreck

At one o'clock this afternoon as the Frederick Accommodation train on the Pennsylvania railroad was backing into the siding east of the station, in this city, it ran against east of the station, in this city, it ran against and crushed a large band-truck belonging to the Adams Express company, which was standing too close to the track. The expressmen say the usual notice was not given by the railroaders, and they could not get the truck out of the way, being barely able to escape with their lives. The bagkage on the truck, including a barrel of Thanksgiving turkeys, was scattered around, but not much damaged.

He Frightened at the Band,

On Sunday afternoon the Knights of Pythias were marching up South Queen street from the funeral of Albert Seitz. At the corner of German street a man drove his horse up to the band, at which hefrightened. The driver attempted to hold him but the one line broke. The man kept pulling the other and the result was that the horse kept turning around in the street until he was finally caught. The Knights and members of the band were compelled to scatter in order to set out of the way and it is a worder. order to get out of the way and it is a wonder that no one was hurt.

Arrested on Suspicion. Between Friday morning and Saturday evening, the house of Constantine Barnbart, No. 448 Manor street, was entered by a sneak thief and $80 was stolen from a sewing machine drawer. Suspicion pointed to James Henry Crezer, a neighbor, and a warrant warested him and searched his house, but none of the stolen money was found. Alderman Patrick Donnelly dismissed the case this morning and stated that there was not a perticle of evidence to connect the accused with the theft.

Slight Wreck at Dillerville, iday morning a ratiroad wieck occurred at Dillerville, on the Pennsylvania railroad. It was caused by a loose wheel and two cars were thrown from the track. The damage was not great, but the track was blocked for a morning a aneak thief entered the treet, and stole a table cloth. The theft was discovered as the thief was leaving the premises, and Officer Gill was put on his track. He arrested him on West King street and locked him up. Ee gave the name of Harry Armstrong, and he had in his pockets a silver fork, which is also supposed to have been stolen. The fork may be seen at the station house.

Funeral of Albert Selfs. The funeral of Albert Seltz, whose terrible death has been noted, took place on Sunday death has been noted, took place on Sunday afternoon and was very largely attended. Inland City Division, No. 7, Uniformed Rank Knights of Pythias, accompanied by the Liberty cornet band and Teutonia lodge, No. 165, Knights of Pythias, turned out in largen numbers. Rev. Fry, of Trinity Lutheran church, preached the sermon and the interment was made at Zion's cemetery.

Driving to Their Homes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Thackers are on a driving tour from Marietta to their home at Bryn Mawr. They left Marietta on Sunday, arriving at the Stevens house last evening. This morning they resumed their journey, expecting to take dinner to-day at the White Horse hotel and to be in Coatesville to-night. They will reach home on Wednesday.

Another Cremation

This afternoon the body of Miss C. Eudora Kapp, who died at her home, 207 Constitution street, Baitimore, of apoplexy on Fri-day, was cremated. The body arrived on the one o'clock train, and it was accompanied by a number of relatives and friends. The crenation took place immediately afterwards.

Chester Hubley, working on the East End Street railway, was seriously injured this morning. He was using a heavy hammer in breaking stones, and a piece of stone bounded from the ground and struck him on the forehead cutting an ugly gash. Dr. M. L. Herr dressed the wound.

The Mænnerchor Bazaar, On Saturday evening the attendance at the Maennerchor fair was very large. The Liberty band was present and furnished the music. A large cake which was chanced off was won by Miss Chara Ream. This evening the Lie-derkranz will attend the fair in a body and Rush's orchestra will play.

Attempt to Rob a Chicken House, Thieves attempted to rob the chicken coop of John P. Schaum, on South Queen street Saturday night. They tore off a board and tried to open the lock, which shows the marks. They were probably disturbed in their work, as they left without taking

The mayor disposed of nine cases this morning; some of them were pretty tough looking customers. One was committed to the workhouse for 60 days, three for 30 days, one paid costs, one was sent to the county hospital and three were discharged.

At The Lancaster Rink The crowd at the Lancaster rink on Satur day evening, when Miss Jennie Houghton closed her engagement, was the largest seen there in a long time. Between 900 and 1,000 ickets were sold. This week Wilmot and Les er, champion bleycle riders, will be the a
