legular Correspondence of INTELLIGENCER. COLUMBIA, Nov. 26—A special meeting of council was held on last Wednesday night for the purpose of considering the repairing of the Columbia fire engine, Messra. Caswell and Forry being the absentees, Messra Mall, Lockard and Clark represented the fire company. A statement was read from Mr. A. R. Moss, of the Pennsylvania from Mr. A. R. Moza, of the Pennsylvania railroad company, stating that the engine was badly out of repairs, and in case of a serious fire could not render good service. The company presented a list of repairs necessary to be made to put the engine in good order. The committee asked that council make the necessary repairs, which caused considerable debate between the councilmen and the committee. The which caused considerable debate between the councilmen and the committee. The councilmen thought the repairs were necessary and that the engine was in bad order. The secretary of council was instructed to write to the Manchester Manufacturing company, of Manchester, N. H., where the engine was built, asking that a representation of the company be sent to Columbia for the purpose of making a thorough examinative of the engine and what repairs should be made.

How the Holiday Was Observed. Thanksgiving day was observed in Col-umbia by a general suspension of business, umbia by ageneral suspension of business, the closing of banks, stores, &c. The inclement weather made the day a very dreary one, and spoiled a number of shooting matches that had been arranged for the day, and a postponement was necessary. The church services were well attended, considering the unfavorable day. The rink was open during the afternoon and evening, when a very large crowd was in attendance, showing that this enjoyment is still popular among the younger portion of the population.

An Early Morning Wreck. An Early Morning Wreck.

A wreck occurred on the west yards of the Penusylvania railroad at an early hour on Thursday morning. Engine No. 591 was pushing a draft of cars on No. 2 siding and the cars were pushed too far, running five cars off the track. The cars were not dam-aged in any manner but the switches were badly broken and the road bed torn up. The wreck crew were called into service to repair the damage. Death of Lewis Donacher.

Lewis Donacher, a married man, aged 22 years, died at his home on South Fourth street, on Thursday evening at 6 o'clock. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The remains of the late John Duncan Cottrell arrived in Columbia from his home at Minneapolis, Minn., on Thursday afternoon. The burial service was read in the St Paul's P. E. church, and interment was made at Mount Bethel cemetery. Town Notes.

Small audiences were in the opera house on Wednesday and Thursday nights when the Agnes Wallace-Villa combination pre-sented "A Wife's Sacrifice" and "Frou Frou." The company is a good one and carries an excellent band and orchestra.

A dairy mad's reception commenced in the armory on Thursday night, in benefit of the Ladies' Aid society of the St. John's Lutheran church. The reception will be held this evening.

The Millersville Lyceum.

The Millersville lyceum has changed its night of meeting to Wednesday of each week. The meeting on Wednesday eve was presided over by J. E. Spayd, presdent, with Harry Kready, secretary; B. F. Stanffer is editor, and J. H. Snyder critic. The Millerselle cornet tand played several selec-tions before the meeting, and their music was much appreciated. The programme was was inten appreciated. The programme was as follows: Referred questions: L. What was the origin of the American flag? Answered by J. C. Baker. 2 Are the lives of the majority of markind failures? Answered by Geo. D. Brown and S. M. Clare. 3. Was the execution of Mary Queen of Scots justi-fiable? Answered by S. M. Clare. The fol-lowing question was debated: Resolved, That the lear of inture punish-ment prevents more crimes than the law of ment prevents more crimes than the law of the land. It was discussed on the affirma-tive by Abm. Frantz and Rev. A. B. Shenkle, and on the negative by S. M. Clare and A. P. Kready. Both the judges and the house decided in favor of the negative. Mr. Abm Kendig gave a select reading, and the editor read a good paper. Arrangements have been made for holding a match detate with the Highiand Literary society in the Millersville band hall on Saturday exeming. Dec. 4 band hall on Saturday evening, Dec. 4.

Besides the debate the programme will in-clude recitations, music and an oration by Jne. H. Landis. The orchestra will also be in

Mrs. Hannah Alexander is lying in a crit-ical condition at the residence of her son, Geo. Alexander. The M. E. Sunday school will hold a jubiler on Christmas eve. A large Christmas tree will be erected and addresses will be made by the pastor and others ; also recitations and music, both vocal and instrumental. It promises to be a very pleasant affair.

Mr. Issac Walton has opened a cigar factory in connection with his mercantile business.

A Brother's Cuarrel. Bernard Falk, butcher, has brought suit ageinst his brother, Lowis, for assault and battery and Officer Roerich for aggravated assault and battery. Bernard alleges that he went to his brother's for a scalding trough on Wednesday, and he refused to give it to him. After some words he and his brother came to blows and he called for assistance. Officer Roerich responded but instead of assisting struck him with a black jack. On the other hand it is alleged that the officer used no more force than was necessary to arrest the parties. Alderman Barr will dispose of the case.

An Interest in the Firm will be good news to the many friends of Harry A. Lichty in this city to learn that he has become possessed of an interest in the extensive establishment of the Shamokin Hardware company at Shamokin, Pa., of which he has for some time been the general
