Fell Down a Flight of Stairs.

Mrs. William McIntyre, living on Fifth street, met with a serious accident at her home yesterday. The lady had occasion to go into the cellar, and in descending made a go into the cellar, and in descending made a misstep, which caused her to fall down the entire flight to the cellar floor. The noise made by the falling was heard by the family, who quickly went to Mrs. McIntyre's assistance. She was taken up stairs and medical attention summoned. Upon examination it was found the fall had resulted in the breaking of the collar-bone and the dislocation of the shoulder.

Death of Little G. Seibert. Miss Lillie G. Seibert died at her home or Locust street, below Third, on Friday evenng at 8:55 o'clock, after an illness of nine days, aged 23 years. Two brothers are left to mourn the death of an affectionate and devoted sister, both parents being dead. The inneral will take piace on Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Services will be held in the Second street Lutheran church. The funeral of the late Lewis Donacher, who died at his home on South Fourth street on Thursday evening, will take place on Sunday atternoon at two o'clock. Milk Cart Upset. Moses Gilbert sustained a serious loss this morning by the upsetting of his milk cart by some boys. He was pushing his cart along North Front street and had left the wagon standing alone, while he went into a house standing alone, while he went into a house to attend to a customer. During his absence some boys began playing with the cart and pushed it into the gutter, causing an upset. The milk cans were thrown from the cart and about twenty-two gallons of milk and cream were lost. Mr. Gilbert's loss is a serious one, and he will compet the parents of the boys to make good the loss.

Renewing a Successful Career - The Public Schools Observe Thanksgiving.

ADAMSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 27.—The adams town lyceum has reorganized for the winter with a new corps of officers. Last week the utility of the Knights of Labor was discussed. Saturday evening next the Mormon question will be debated. There will also be referred questions answered, recitations, orations and entiments given. The society bids fair to be a success this winter. It has a fine library and other property of which it should be proud.

The public schools of this place observed proud.
The public schools of this place observed Thanksgiving by an entertainment in the evening. The following was the interesting programme: Singing, "Give Thanks," by school; responsive Scripture reading, by school; Thanksgiving prayer, by school; "Why Should We Give Thanks?' by different pupils; "History of Thanksgiving," Henry Zemer; Thanksgiving concert exercises; singing, "National Hymn," by school; "President Cleveland's Proclamation, "Adam Farlw; Whittier's "Pumpkin Pie," recitation, Wille Yanson; "The Reason Why," recitation, Wille Yanson; "The Reason Why," recitation, Lydia Fichthorn; "Thanksgiving," recitation, Adam Arnold; singing, "Touch Not the Cup," by school; "Gov. BAST NIGHT OF THE BAZAAR All Should Go To-Night to See the Host of Pretty Things. On Friday evening a number of articles were chanced off at the Mennerchor bazaar. Among them were a Chinese tea set won by Mrs. Hoebele, a silver caster won by Mrs. Mrs. Hoebete, a silver caster won by Mrs. Westman, a plush enshion won by Edw. Eberman, a pair of blankets won by Mrs. Kinnear, a large doll won by J. B. Keyinski. The polis will close at 10 o'clock this evening and the articles to be disposed of by worth. vote, will be awarded as soon as the votes can be counted. On Monday evening the goods unsold will be disposed of at auction. Several valuable articles will be chanced off to-night. The handsome French clock and bronze ornament presented by the Harmonie of Philadelphia, will not be chanced off dur-ing the fair, but will be in the near future. A large attendance is expected for to night when the bazar closes. It has been in all respects a most notable undertaking and the fine work on exhibition is difficult to be equalled. Those who have not visited the fair should by all means do so to-night.

Died at a Ripe Old Age.

From the Altoona Tribune At twenty minutes of 11 o'clock on Thurs day night, at the residence of his son Robert B., No. 1,216 Seventh avenue, Mr. John Bartley died from illness incident to old age. He had been confined to his bed since last March and was aged 82 years, 10 months and 21 days. The deceased was born in Lancaster county, and there for many years followed the occupation of a farmer. He was married to Miss Lydia Russell, who died at Gap, Lan-caster county, fifteen years ago. About a year siter his wife's death he came to this year after his wife's death he came to this city and here made his home with his son Robert B. He leaves four children, who are, William B., of 228 Chestnut avenue; Robert B., of 1,246 Chestnut avenue; John M., of 1,505 Fourth avenue, and Jane Elizabeth, wife of William Plumiey, of McClain county, Illinois. Since he was 25 years old he had been a member of the Presbyterian church, and since he had been a resident of Altoona attended the Second church so long as his health would permit. There will be religious services held at his late residence by Rev. J. L. Russel, at 8 o'clock on Sunday evening. His remains will be taken on the one o'clock train Monday morning to Lancaster county for interment.

The church-going people of the borough observed Thanksgiving day by attending a union preaching service in St. Mark's U. B. church. Rev. Geo. W. Getz, paster of the Church of God, officiated.

Last evening Col. J. P. Sanford lectured in De Long's hall, taking for his subject "Old Times and New." The lecture course is under the supervision of St. Mark's U. R. church. Col. Bain will lecture at the same place, under the same auspices, on December loth next.

The high school scholars, assisted by talent from abroad, will have an entertainment in De Long's hall on Saturday evening next, for the purpose of raising funds to secure a library for the high school of this borough.

An Aged Couple. Sampson Townsend, of Bioomsburg, aged 74 years, was married Thursday night by the Rev. C. M. Winchester of the Free Christian Church, to Mrs. Julian Gillespie, of this village, aged 71. The "best man" on the occasion was Master Robert Byrant, aged 5 years, and the bridesmald was Miss Grace Mapes, aged 4 years, both of whom are great grand children of the bride. The wedded pair are both in well-to-do circumstances. Injured at Elizabethtown, Francis J. Martin, wheelwright, residing at No. 406 St. Joseph street, met with an accident in Elizabethtown Friday. He was working at a mill in that town, when he fell from a ladder, a distance of about 10 feet. He had his head badly cut, and was considerably bruised. He was brought to Lancaster, and Dr. McCormick attended him at his
