

INTELLIGENCER EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR (except Sundays). THE WEEKLY INTELLIGENCER PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING.

LANCASTER, NOVEMBER 29, 1888.

False Convictions. The Chicago Anarchists who were appointed to be shortly hung had their day of execution postponed.

Edmunds failed to defend his logical gates, and extended his hand, which the angry Blaine, declining, followed his impulse, and thought he ought to fight.

What an honest man should do in the house of mourning when introduced to a man he deems a rascal, remains an unsettled question, eligible for the decision of the winter's debating societies.

The Hon. Wm. D. Kelley, of pig iron fame, has been telling his Alabama friends that he would boldly inform his brethren in Pennsylvania as to the true condition of labor in the South.

Henry George proposes to run a weekly newspaper devoted to his peculiar political theories. He will now need the difference between chin-music and hard work.

It is announced that Tom Cooper has been offered and has accepted the post of secretary of the commonwealth under the Heaver administration.

Otherwise there would be a great many people hanged. That large portion of the Republican party for instance, that denounced Garfield, and whose talk incited Guiteau, as is generally believed, to his murder, should have been hanged en masse, if it is the law that such incitement makes them equally guilty with the man who fired the fatal shot.

Such convictions as that of these Anarchists brings the law into contempt. The solemn sentencing of men to the rope, who are never to feel it, is not an edifying spectacle.

PERSONAL. FRANK A. BERRY, the well known newspaper correspondent, is about to write an opera.

MRS. CLEVELAND keeps very busy with her various duties. She is frequently seen about Washington on shopping errands, and is very popular with the salesmen, for whom she always has a pleasant word of acknowledgment for courtesies shown to her.

George Hazlett and Miss Sadie Allen make the Perilous Trip. Geo. Hazlett and Miss Sadie Allen, of Buffalo, went through the rapids and the whirlpool Sunday afternoon in the torpedo shaped barrel used by Hazlett and Potts last summer.

WHY IS IT? That rheumatism and neuralgia are so prevalent. This question has not been satisfactorily answered, but it is certain that these diseases are not only the most painful, but among the most common, and some member of every family in the land is the victim of one of these dread troubles.

TRINITY PARISH. MESSRS. PROCTER & GAMBLE, CINCINNATI, O. GENTLEMEN—The cake of soap which you kindly sent at my request is received, and it seems quite to have taken our household by its most remarkable qualities and its unusually satisfactory results.

How such diverse characteristics can be combined in one article is beyond my knowledge. While it is equal to anything for the coarser kitchen or laundry work, it is fully equal, if not superior, to any of the more expensive, etc., for toilet purposes, most soothing and effectual, and leaving the hands and skin with that pleasant softness that really puts one into a good humor and a sort of gratitude for having used the "Ivory."

REV. J. MILTON PECK. MAY 30th, 1883.

A WORD OF WARNING. There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory," they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.
