THE BRICKLAYERS AND MASONA

A Branch of the International Union Instituted

For some weeks past the bricklayers of this city have been taking measures for the organization of a branch of the Bricklayers' and Masons' International Union. They meet in Bissinger's hall, West King street. Their application for a charter was granted, and on Saturday they received that important document. Saturday evening Mr. J. A. Stabinecker, of Reading, the organizer of branch unitons, came on to Lancaster, and instituted the new branch, which will be known as Lancaster Union No. 5 of the Bricklayers' and Masons' International Union. About thirty members were initiated, and instructed in the work of the order. Seven proposals for membership were made, whose names will be considered at the next meeting of the union on Tuesday evening. There are a hundred or more bricklayers in this city who will propably connect themselves with meet in Bissinger's hall, West King street. who will probably connect themselves with the order, now that a branch has been estab-lished here.

A false alarm of fire was sounded on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. It was caused by the employes of the Edison Electric Light company who cut the wire of the tire alarm graph near the station house. In attempting to put the wire together, the alarm was struck. First there were two taps and then one, the companies started for box 21, at West King and Charlotte streets. The cause of the alarm was soon learned, how-

Officers Lewars, of the police force, got on truck A. near the Eastern market, when his hat fell off. In endeavoring to recover it he fell from the truck and narrowly escape of being run over by the hose cart which came being run over by the hose cart which came dashing up behind. He also attempted to get on the engine, which was going too fast, and he was sgain thrown. He was consid-erably bruised.

Prosecuted His Assailants. In the INTELLIGENCER of Wednesday it was noted that Frank W. Hoffman had been tacked at the corner of Marshall and Chestnut streets, by half a dozen men and badly sd. He has learned the names of his asslants and to day he entered complaint be-Alderman Barr, against Joseph Leman, John Breitegam, Frank Ditzier and Samuei Wolrath, for assault and battery, and George F. be asen every evening except Friday, when they will be taken to Columbia.

The Edison Light West Out.

The buildings in the city which are illuminated by the Edison electric light, were suddently left in darkness last night about baif dently left in darkness last night about balf past eight o'clock. The cause of it was that a joint in a main steam pipe at the light works blew out. Extensive repairs had to be made at once and a number of hands were put to work. By 11:30 the light was burning as brightly as ever. For a time during the darkness there was a great deal of confusion. In hotels, eigar stores, and other places, which were open, people were seen running around with caudies which they were compelled to use until they could turn on the gas. Fortunately the churches which use light had just about corcluded their services when the dark spell came. Had it been any other night in the week the effect in business places would have been much greater.

Arrested For Attacking a Citizen, Jacob Burke, shoemaker, of West King street, has brought suit against James Donnelly, of the Sixth ward, and John Kimler charging them with assault and battery and dranken and disorderly conduct. Burke alleges that the two men attacked him on West King street near Mulberry on Saturday evening without provocation. The ac-cussed have given ball before Alderman Spurrier for a hearing on Thursday evening.

Jacob Mohow was heard by Alderman Me-Glinn on Saturday evening on a charge of beating his wife. She had no desire to press the case, and he was given the opportunity the case, and he was given the opportunity to pay the costs or have the case against him returned to court. He was unable to raise the money up to moon to-day to settle the case, but is expecting a friend this afternoon to get him out of his trouble.

Suit for Slander.

Joseph Witmer, of Providence townships through his attorney, Thos. J. Davis, entered a suit for slander in the court of common pleas against Martin Reese, of the same township. Witmer alleges that Reese circu-lated reports reflecting on his character for honesty, and that in consequence he has suffered heavy damages.
