The funeral of Miss Lillie Setbert.

The funeral of the late Miss Lillie G. Setbert took place on Monday atternoon and was very largely attended. Services were held in the Second street Lutheran church. The Bible class and the literary society of this church, with which the deceased was connected, attended the funeral in a body. Town Notes.

Hi Henry's minstrel company appeared in the opera house last night before an audience which packed the building. The performance was a very good one and the people present were very much pleased.

The boilers to be used at the four new peddiing furnaces at the mill of the Columola Iron company have been completed and are now being placed in position. The fur-naces will soon be ready for making iron. The boilers were made at the boiler shops of Fairer & Son.

Hon. C. C. Kauffman has returned home from a visit to Pittsburg, Pa.

Word was received by 'Squire Evans yes terday to have Barney McNeal, captain of the canal boat "Electric Light," arrested. A warrant was given to Officer Hardnele, who arrested the man at Chickies. On his way down the cansi, the man threw one of his mules into the river, giving as his reason that the mule was lame and not fit for his work. McNeal was taken to Middletown this morning to answer this charge.

Messrs. F. A. Bennett and Chas. F. Brown have received contracts for the supplying new uniforms for company C.

A new tin roof is being placed on the Sunday school of the Presbyterian church.

Aaron P. Woodhuit will appear in the opera house on December 25, in the farce-comedy of "Eil Wheatfield."

$21,000 FOR A LANCASTRIAN. George Grossman Seils His Palace Horse Car

George Grossman, the well-known Laneau ter borseman, is $21,000 richer now than he was in 1885. Not long ago he invented "Grossman's Palace Horse Car" whereby horses may be shipped as conveniently as i they were in a stable. The animals may be watered, transferred, etc., with the utmost convenience. A detailed description of the invention has already appeared in these Grossman secured his first patent in March For an improvement he received ther patent in April.

another patent in April.

He last week disposed of his invention to two New York gentiemer, whose names are not given. For his invention he received $21,000, and for five of his palace cars $6,000, making a total of $27,000 cash. Mr. tirossman had contracted for 10 cars for $11,000, the contract for which the New Yorkers have taken at that figure. The cars have been built at the Harrisburg car works and fifty more are expected to be built by February 1. Mr. Grossman will remain as general manager of the concern, at a good February L. Mr. Grossman will remain as general manager of the concern, at a good ralary, and he will open up a central beadquarters in this city, at No. 117 North Prince street. Offices have also been opened at the Union stock yards, Chicago, and the Union stock yards, Chicago, and the Union stock yards, Indianapolis.

Mr. Grossman bas been a very successful horse dealer, and in this windfall of prosperity that has overtaken his invention, he will have the hearty congratulations of hosts of friends.

The management of the rink has made arrangements to have Texas Harry, the rifle shot, and a specialty company to appear to-morrow afternoon and evening.

The Owl and His Friends.

To-day a man took a live screech owl to the office of Alderman Deen and asked the squire to cut off its head and give him fifty ats for capturing it. The alderman said that no bounty was allowed for that kind of owis. The tellow left the big-eyed bird be-hind, and he was afterwards presented to the "Owl" club. They will christen him as a member of their organization, and will set member of their organization, and will as a thin at liberty this evening when it is dark and he is able to take in the town. The de-cision of the alderman was very satisfactory to the "Owia."

The Soup House,

Mayor Morton acknowledges the receipt from G. Sener & Son, of an order for $14 10 on a baker for bread for the soup fund. Ex Mayor Resembilier yesterday torned over to Mayor Morton the sum of $180.05, the amount remaining in his hauds for the soap fund since last year,

Resolutions. LANCASTER, PA., Nov. 29, 1886. At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the the Farmers' National Bank, held this day, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREA', The Board of Directors of the Farmers' National Bank have received the resignation of Edwin H. Brown, long an officer of the bank, and, in accepting the same, deem it proper to express our high appreciation of his services: therefore, Riselved, That in all the thirty-three years during which Mr. Brown has been connected with this bank, holding, as he did, for nearly the whole of that time, the responsible position of cashier, he has proven in every respect true to the bank and faithful to his great trust.

Resolved, That in the retirement of Mr. Brown the bank loses the services of an efficient effect, a citizen without reproach and a man of spotless character. At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the

"Michael Strogoff."-On Thursday evening next, "Michael Strogoff," one of the strongest and best plays now before the public, will be presented in Fulton opera house by Charles L. Andrews' powerful company. The scenes of this play are laid in Bussia and Michael Stragoff, the hero, is a brave soldier who volunteers to carry a message for the Czar through a hostile country. He loses his eyes in the attempt, but is successful. The story is an admirable one and two newspaper reporters who figure in it create a great deal of amusement. Mr. Andrews company has thirty-five people, including a balle and a number of specialty artists. The New York Heraldyays: "As brought out by the An-drews company it is both a majestic and massive representation. Its appointments are grand and picture-sque in chromatic detail, and there is a peculiar fascination about the successive scenic accompaniments that defy imitation.
