The Girl of To day

From the Castroville (Tex.) Anvil. If there is anything we know less about than we think we do it is the girl ; and of thi the girl is giad, for there is nothing she hates to be known about her so had as the truth. We have been acquainted with her for long time and watched her pranks from afar, song time and watched her pranks from afar, seen her cut the "pigeon-wing" and knock the "back-step" in the back yard, when she thought she had no spectator; but still we don't know her.

From the time she is big enough to swing on the gate and the a ribbon in a double bow-knot she begins to locate a sweetheart, and she keeps this up until he is located in the back-yard exercising his talents dissecting stove wood.

She may be a little dull on mathematics but invariably solves the problem of putting a No. 5 foot in a No. 3 shoe.

She will wear out two old dresses running around to find out how to make a new one in the latest style.

She will break the point of her brother's knife making a crack to peep at strangers when they come visiting.

She will greet you with the most bewitching smile and laugh at your stupidness when you are gone.

you are gone.

She will walk three blocks out of the way to get a peep at her beau, and then pass by without looking at him.

She will talk with you two hours without being able to rejeat a word you have said, but will know how long you have worn your duds and how many buttons have lost their grin.

She will attend church, listen with absorbed. interest to eloquent and pathetic sermons then return home and expatiate upon the horrible fit of Miss Snow's new basque.

She will go to table, mince over delicacies with the most fastidious taste, then slip back with the most fastidious taste, then sip book in the kitchen and eat a raw potato. She will wear out her best pair of shoes dancing all day, then attend a ball at night and complain of being out of practice.

She will spend all night writing a carefully worded letter, in the most precise hand, to her simen Suggs, then scratch off a page to her sister that Old Harry couldn't read.

She will be the most devout creature on earth, and hate the earth that Sallie Grimes masks on.

A Jump From the Bridge for $25.

Another New York man jumped from the Brooklyn bridge into the East river. The affair was kept secret and the facts did not leak out until on Saturday. Michael J. Hess, a laborer, living in Oak street, was the hero. For a wager of $25 he made the leap. He was picked up by a friend who was waiting in a boat. Hess was unconscious. He was rowed ashore and carried to a saloon, where stimulants were poured down his throat, revived from the shock and said that it period between leaving the bridge and strik the water he was not conscious. Hes ing the water he was not consider the saloon and walked through the streets with his wet clothes to his house. He drank more whisky and got into bed very drunk. He is now doing well.

BEDIOAL ATHLOPHOROS FOR RHEUMATISM.

Another Sudden Death

Hardly a week passes without the mention by the newspapers of sudden deaths, and of late the alarming frequency of the statement that death was caused by rheumatism or neu-ralgia of the heart cannot fail to have been noticed. In all probability many deaths attributed to heart disease are caused by these terrible diseases, which are far more dangerous than is generally considered. Is there any positive cure? The best answer to such a question is given by those who have been cured by the use of Athlophoros

A YER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

"It Saved My Life

Is a common expression, often heard from those who have realized, by personal use, the curative powers of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. *I cannot say enough in praise of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, believing as I do that, but for its use. I should long since have died from lung troubles.—E. Bragdon, Palestine, Tex.

About six months ago I had a severe Hemorrhage of the Lungs, brought on by a distressing Cough, which deprived me of sleep and rest. I had used various cough balsams and expectorants, without obtaining relief. A friend advised me to try

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

I did so, and am happy to say that it helped me me at once. By continued use this medicine cured my cough, and, I am satisfied, saved my life.—Mrs. E. Colurn, is second street, Loweli, iffe.—Mrs. E. Coburn, is second street, Lowell, Mass.

I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for over a year, and sincerely believe I should have been in my grave, had it not been for this medicine. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, for which I had almost despaired of ever finding a remedy.—D. A. McMullen, Windsor, Province of Outario.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life. Two years ago I took a very severe Cold which settled on my lungs. I consuited physicians, and took the remedies they prescribed, but failed to obtain relief until I began using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Two bottles of this medicine completely restored my health.—Lizzle M. Allen, West Lancaster, Ohlo.
