I watch him at his task,
When the broad sunbeams first light up hi watch him till the evening lays her mask

Upon the face of day | and in the gloom ite lays his pencil down and silent sits, And leans his chin upon his hand and sighs; How well I know what memory round him fits I read it in his eyes.

And when his pencil's skill Resometimes wrought a touch of happy are t see his face with sudden gladness fill; I see him turn with eager lips spart,
To bid me come and welcome his success;
And then hedrops, and throws his brush neide Oh, if my darring then could only guess.
That she is near who died:

Femetimes I fancy, too, That he does dimly know it-that he feels Some influence of love pass thrilling through Death's prison bars, the spirit's bonds and seals,

Some dear companionship around him still;
Some whispered blessing, faintly breathed co presence of a love no death can kill

Ah, but it cannot be

The dead are with the living—I am here;
But he, my living love, he cannot see
His dead wife, though she cling to him so near i seek his eyes; I press against his cheek;
I hear him breathe my name in wailing tone—
He calls me, calls his wife, I cannot speak— He thinks he is alone.

This is the bluterness of death To know he loves me, pines and yearns for

To see him, will be near him, feel his breath
Fan my sad cheek, and yet I am not free
To bid him feel, by any faintest touch, That she who never left his side in life-She who so loved him, whom he loved so much-to who so loved him, when the with him still his wife.

Justin McCarthy,

Courting at the Capital.

From an Interview in Chicago Tribune. Oh! it's jolly courting in Washington-a different from other places. There is roglitter of the White House, the roar and the ustle of the capitol, and to the music of the dining room and ball, isn't worth having. But, seriously, I never heard of so many ladies who wanted to get married as are here now. I know them, and see them everywhere I go—widows, orphans, daughters of magnates, statesmen and potentates. If I were a young man 1'd be a bigamist, sure. Lots of men come here to look for wives, but there is not one of them to ten ladies who are looking for husbands. The hotels, aris-teratic boarding houses, the flats and the private residences are full of them. Scores are in every square. My! "Water, water everywhere, and none to drink!" And the discouraging feature is, these ladies are be-coming more plentiful every year. Great families of them come in a bunch, put up at the fashionable places or rent houses and stay the season out. An acceptable man could marry twice a week. From the inflow of fa-miliar faces it looks like the market would be better supplied this short season than

A WEAR BACK KEPT STRONG.

HITRURO, APPOMATION CO., VA., March 7, 1880. ALLOGER'S PLASTERS have enabled me to work and labor for the last two years. I have been troubled with a pain across my kidneys and a weakness of the spine which, at times, rendered me almost belpless. The first relief I obtained was by wearing two Attroops & Plasters, and I use about two every month, and I have no pain or difficulty. I consider them the best plaster in use. I, for one, cannot do without them. B. H. GILLIAM.

He On Your Guard.

Benson's Capcine Plasters are widely imita-ted. That is the fact. Now, why are they ini-tated? Because they are the only perous plastated? Because they are the only porous plaster in existence that is really trustworthy and valuable. Benson's Plasters are highly and scientifically medicated, and cure in a few hours allments upon which no others have had any effect whatever. The public are therefore cautioned against plasters bearing the names of "Capstein," "Capstein," "Capsteine," or "Caputin," which are meant to pass for "Captine" of please note the difference) and also against plasters bearing the names "Benton's," Burson's, etc. When buying ask for Benson's Plaster and protect yourself by a personal examination. The genuine has the word "Captine" cut or poroused in the body of the plaster and the "Three Seals" trademark on the tace cloth.

The National Credit is No More solidly founded than the reputation of Benson s Capeine Plasters. They are known, appreciated and used everywhere in America-its hospitals and its homes. Physicians, pharmacists and and its homes. Physicians, pharmacists and druggists affirm that for promptness of action, certainty and range of curstive qualities they are beyond comparison. Once used their unqualled excellence recommends them. The public are again cautioned against the cheap, worthless and shameless initiations of ored by mendacious parties under the guise of similar sounding names, such as "Capstin," "capstin," "Capstin," "Capstin," "Capstin," "Capstin, "Capstin," "Capstin, "Capstin," "Capstin, "Tapstin," "Capstin, "Tapstin," "Capstin, "Capstin, "Tapstin," "Capstin, "Cap

MALARIA.

"If people could only know what a splendid medicine Simmons Liver Regulator is there would be many a physician without a patient and many an interminable doctor bill saved. I consider it infallible in malarial infection. consider it infallible in malarial infection. I had for many years been a perfect physical wreck from a combination of complaints, all the outgrowth of malaria in my system, and even under the skillful hand of Dr. J. P. Jones, of this city, I had despaired of ever being a well woman again. Simmons Liver Regulator was recommended to me. I tried it; it helped me, and it is the only thing that ever did me any good. I persevered in its use and am now in perfect health. I know the medicine cured me, and I always keep it as a reliable 'standby' in my lamily."
