The remains of William Cabill, who met an untimely death on Thursday morning at Tunnel Cut, on the Pennsylvania railroad Tunnel Cut, on the Pennsylvania railroad near Elizabethtown, were brought to Columbia yesterday afternoon and taken to the undertaking establishment of A. J. Musser. He was a son of Philip Cahili, a wood-worker at D. Rupp & Son's carriage works. His father came to Columbia from Mechanicsburg last August, but his son remained in town but a short while, being employed under W. C. Boles, assistant engineer of the Pennsylvania railroad. The remains were taken to Mechanicsburg this morning at 10 o'clock, and the funeral will take place on Christmas and the funeral will take place on Christmas

A goodly number of people were at the rink last night to see the exhibition of Prot. O. R. Glesson, the horse trainer. The first horse was the property of Charles Cassidy, an irongray Texas mustang, which proved to be a victous animal, possessing all the bad traits practicable for a horse to have. The professor nd his assistants bad a hard struggle for and his assistants bad a hard struggle for about forty minutes when the horse was sub-dued. The work of the professor was re-ceived with much applause. The second horse was hard to shoe, but soon was very docile. The third horse belonged to John Wiley, living near Bainbridge, and was a licker and vicious beast. The tactics of the professor soon changed him into a different kind of an animal. The exhibition will be repeated this evening.

Town Notes. Michael Shuman, jr., has returned home from Philadelphia for the holidays. Lowis Bachman was arrested about 3 o'clock this morning by Officer Wittick, charged with committing an assault on Mrs. Henry Bynier, living on Manor street. He was given a hearing before Squire Evans and was held pending a settlement. Company C has received an invitation to attend a national drill and encampment to be held at Washington city commencing May 23, 1857, and ending on Decoration day. A number of prizes will be given. James Richards has returned home from Virginia, where he was managing a furnace.

John Broome, plasterer, has presented ach of his employes with a large turkey; is usual custom at the Christmas season. A progressive eachire party was held last night at the residence of Mr. J. Kauffman, ath Second street.

William and Harry Bruner have returned ome from the Wesleyan University to spend the bolldays. The express business is very heavy at this time, the Adams company requiring an extra delivery wagon.

Sale of Real Estate Henry Shubert, auctioneer, soid at public sale December 23, at the Leopard hotel, the property belonging to the estate of Henry Miller, deceased, situated on the east side of North Queen street, No. 567, to Catharine Hambright for $1.850.

"What would it cost to finish the South Penn?"

"About $9,000,000 if the plans originally stopped were carried out. The work on the eleven tunnels, the principal part of construction, is more than half completed. Within balf a month after a decision of the stock-holders to complete the railroad work could again be well under way. Thirty-eight per cent. of the capital stock, say $20,000,000, of the South Penn has been paid up. The $0,000,000 necessary to complete the line would in all possibility be raised by an assessment upon the stockholders. The road will be completed without the Vanderbitt interest. If Mr. Garrett buys an interest it will very likely be theirs. If he does not buy if the Pittsburg syndicate will. vanoerbilt interest. If Mr. Garrett buys an interest it will very likely be theirs. If he does not buy it the Pittsburg syndicate will. This interest amounts to $5,000,000, with 38 per cent, or $19,000,000, paid up. The Pittsburg syndicate, with the Philadelphia interest now hold the controlling number of shares of steck."

THE SIEBBE FAILURE.

A Suit of Palse Pretense Entered by Philadel-W. W. Davis, representing Carey Brothers & Greymyer, whole-sie dealers in wall paper, this morning entered complaint against Aifred Sleber for talse pretense. Sleber purchased $500 worth of wall papers and received the same by representing that he was the owner of unincumbered real estale in this city. After the executions were sed, Mr. Davis looked up Sieber's financial standing, and the records showed that his house was mortgaged for its full value and he then brought suit. Alderman Barr issued a warrant for Nisber's arrest, but the officer was unable to find him. At his residence the officer was informed that Sieber was out of town and would return this avening. The impression would return this evening. The impression of the authorities is that Sieber has skipped. Nothing new has been developed as to the forged notes alluded to in Thursday's INTELLIGENCER. It has not yet been decided whether or not to enter suits for torgery anglest Subar.

In the Caritsie Jail. On the 18th of December of last year a warrant was issued for the arrest of W. W. El liott, of Providence township, for forgery and false pretense. Elitot skipped tejore the artival of the officers and has been since a fugitive from justice. Nothing has been heard of Elitot until Thursday when Officer Barnhord learned that he is an inmate of the Cumberland county jail. The prison authorities at Carlisle have been written to and an answer is expected in a day or two.

A Whole Deer at a Dinner. A whole Deer at a Dinner.

At Senator Kenny's dinner in Washington Tuesday, the piece de resistance was a deer roasted whole, stuffed with estery dressing, and standing upright before the astonished Buests. The deer sported it natural horns and glared with glass eyes at the crowd, densfor Kenna stood upand skillfully carved masteritece.

oy Bave More Christmas Goods to Handle

Toan Ever Sefore.
Inquiry at the Adams and Reading ex ses shows that the Christmas business has been very large, and thousands of boxes and packages have been handled. The business has not been scattered as it was in former years, but seems to have come with a great rush during the past few days. When the reporter called at the Adams office this morning he found the employes and many extras up to their ears in work. The large room was filled with packages of all sizes. Mr. Houser, the superintendent, said that at the beginning of the week he had an idea that their business would be lighter than usual, but he was mistaken. It has been tremendous, and yesterday was the largest aday he has ever seen at the Lancaster office. The men have been busy both night and day, and scarcely get time to eat their meals. At the Reading office the same state of affairs exists, everybody is busy, and Superintendent Eigler says their business will be larger than any previous year. In addition to the Christmas presents an unusually large quantity of Lancaster beer was shipped over this road this morning.

The clerks at the postoffice are also very busy, while the carriers with their heavy packs look very weary. great rush during the past few days.

The operatives working in the specing department of Fulton cotton mill this morning presented their overseer, Mr. Samuei Long, with a beautiful gold inkstand and a gold-handled umbrella as a token of the hig i esteem in which they hold him.

Our old friend, Geo. H. Külinger, who has been away from Lancaster for the past twenty five years, has again returned to his old home and eased Mannerchor hotel, where he proposes having a grand turkey lunch on Christmas from 19 a. m. to 11 p. m., and he invites all his old and new friends, and the public in general, to come and partake of the feast. Give him a call.

A CARD.

A CARD,

In the hurry and rush of the work for the Holidays don't above all things forget the Christmas Dinoer and what more useful as well as succulent adjunct dish to the Christmas dinner than oysers. During the Thanksgiving season we sold thousands upon thousands of Oysters, and the great reputation which our Morris River Coves, at 50 cents per hundred, have soldeved has been well merited. We have Oysters as large as your hand, and they are just the thing for decorating the Christmas turkey after it comes from the oven. We will have a carload of Oysters for the Christmas trade, Leave your orders, and have them delivered to the house.
