The Death of Logan

John A. Logan has been a conspicuous figure for many years upon the national field, figuring as statesman and soldier, and statesman again.

General Logan was very ambitious, and has been aiming for the presidency as persistently as Blaine, to whom his trying as vice presidential candidate was very distasteful.

A Christmas Lesson

Christmas is more and more coming to be recognized as a day of good fellowship in which carking care and consuming ambition have no part.

How They Spent Christmas

Hon. Smedley Darlington gave each of his six daughters $10.00.

Personal

Ortiz, in London is now a sored and discontented man, practically destitute of human sympathy and companionship, and deriving little or no comfort from what her work has secured her.

Sweep Gently

The Reading railroad's new management seem to have started in with too vigorous a broom towards reform and economy.

A Kentucky Idea of Christmas

A great, good day for girls and priorities, and no prospect for $10.00 in the New Year.

A Valuable Medical Treatise

The editor for 1887 of the Sterling Medical Annual, known as Hostetter's Almanac, is now ready, and may be obtained, free of cost, of friends and general country doctors in all parts of the United States, Mexico, and India.

The Only Line of Remedies for Children

Dr. H. C. Gough, Chas. F. Payne, Wm. D. B. Gough and Chas. G. Gough, have prepared a new and complete edition of their book on the Diseases of Children.

Business and now the employes have decidedly expressed their lack of approval of the new methods. The reformer is often a martyr; as well when he is a reformer for profit as for principle's sake.

John L. Sullivan says it requires more science to be a prize-fighter than most people are aware of.

From Life to Death. It is a moment if rheumatism or neuritis strikes the heart. These diseases are the most painful and the most dangerous of any to which human kind is liable. They fly from one part to another without a moment's warning, and fatalities and other outward applications are in themselves dangerous because they are liable to drive the disease to some vital organ and cause instant death.

Imitation is the Sincerest Form of Flattery

"The best proof that the 'Ivory' Soap has extraordinary merits, and is in good repute with the public, is that it is so extensively imitated and counterfeited. These counterfeits resemble the Ivory Soap in appearance and style of packing only. They lack the purity and general excellence of the genuine.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be 'just as good as the 'Ivory' Soap', but they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for 'Ivory' Soap and insist upon getting it.
